

The man most prominent in the New York Custom-house frauds was a certain Mr. Leet. He went to New York with a letter from President Grant, asking the Collector to appoint him to a vacant position...

From the testimony of Mr. B. S. Madgett before the committee, we copy as follows: B. S. Madgett was recalled and swore that he knew Mr. Leet. Witness spoke to Leet about the interference of Leet in the general order...

THE CUSTOM-HOUSE FRAUDS. From the testimony before the Senate Committee, investigating the New York Custom House frauds, we copy as follows: George Wood, clerk of a steamship company, testified to being paid small gratuities for receiving letters...

LOOK TO YOUR DELEGATES!—The way to success in commerce with proper candidates who of course must possess the public confidence and undoubted fitness. The way to obtain such candidates is to elect your very best men for delegates...

NO RESPECT FOR GRANT.—A special to the Enquirer from Dayton, Ohio, says that the City Council, a vote of 12 to 7, rejected the whole expenses of President Grant's reception...

GRANT PAYS UP!

In our paper of two weeks since we stated that Grant was a defaulter to the government in the sum of $5,000. We had our information from a source that could be relied upon...

After Grant had sent his check to the Auditor for $5,000, Mr. Davis notified the President of the fact, and concluded his remarks thus: The President of the United States is a defaulter in the amount of four or five thousand dollars for upwards of twenty years!

THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE has heretofore been considered the fountain of honor, but now we see now? Let men of honor hide their heads in shame.

Grant and the New York Custom-house Frauds. The Sun, Republican, says of the investigation into the frauds of the New York Custom-house: Enough evidence and more than enough has already been taken in the course of the Custom-house investigation...

FRED DOUGLASS

Forney, of the Press is again in trouble. Fred Douglass, the presumptive Boston negro, has again been "outraged" and on this Forney writes a leader for his paper, in which he demands social equality between the races...

THE IMPEDANCE OF CERTAIN NEGROES is beyond endurance, but they are not as much to blame as are the white demagogues who encourage them in their presumption. Forney should be ashamed of himself for his conduct in this respect...

GRANT AND HANCOCK. It is stated that President Grant abolished the Military Division of the South since the death of General Halleck, merely for the purpose of gratifying his petty spite against General Hancock...

HEADQUARTERS UNITED STATES ARMY, WASHINGTON, April 14, 1870.—General W. S. Hancock, commanding Department of Dakota, St. Paul, Minn.: Sir, I have had your despatch of the 13th, from St. Louis, before me...

THE POLAND OF AMERICA.

The Richmond Inquirer draws the following short picture of the condition of affairs in the South that should induce reflection. If some American citizens may now be treated in that manner with impunity, may not such ultimately be the fate of all?

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE met at Harrisburg, last week, and resolved to call the Republican State Convention to meet in that city on the 15th of April...

THE MURDERER'S LAST NIGHT. Bots sleep but little last night, not more than a few hours together. About half past five o'clock he got up and dressed himself...

UNDER THE FATAL BEAM. The nose was attached to the rope hanging from it. The sheriff then said to the prisoner, "The hour for executing the sentence of the law has arrived."

TO KEEP GEN. HANCOCK IN DEACON, and prevent him from succeeding (as he rightly should) to the Military Department of the South, just made vacant by General Halleck's death...

HORACE GREELY, in the Tribune still keeps up the cry for Grant's New York thieves. On Tuesday he said: "The most valuable requisite in the gift of the Government is given to a friend of the President."

DEPARTURES FROM NEW ORLEANS report that both factions remain entirely quiet, making no demonstrations of any kind, awaiting the arrival of the Committee of Congress.

FOURTH DISTRICT

PHILA., January 30.—Henry W. Gray is certainly elected, but reports vary as to his majority, which is given from 5000 to 6000 votes...

THE last Kansas scandal is the charge that 10 members of the Legislature were paid from $1,000 to $3,000, each to elect Alexander Caldwell to the United States Senate...
