JUROR'S QUALIFICATIONS -There can e no doubt in the mind of any discern ng person, that sooner or later, all of our States will imitate Ohio, whose House of Representatives have passed by a vote of venty-eight to seventeen, a bill admitting as competent jurors, persons who may have formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of an accused from reading newspaper accounts of an ofence alleged to have been committed .-It is high time that the farcical old fogyism which forbids their acting should be frowned down as an insult to the intellience of any civilized community.

LENT.-The lenten season commenced yesterday, (Wednesday.) It is an ancient istom of the Christian church to hold as a period of fasting and solemnity the forty days preceding Easter, in commemoration of the miraculous abstinence o lesus when unifer temptation. From legen tide, a Saxon term for Spring, (as being the time of the lengthening of the day,) came the familiar word for this period-Lent. Originally the period be gan on what is now the first Sunday in Lent, but it being found that when Sundays, as improper for fa-ting, were omitted. there remained only thirty-six days the period was made by Pope Gregory to commence four days earlier—Ash Wednesday.

Last week I paid a visit to a family, and as the old saying is—they live at home, two and a-balf miles west of this the young man arrested on suspicion of having fired the stable of Rinesmith & Rupp, referred to in our last issue, after a heaving before Justice Shryock, on the 7th iust, was remanded to the institution known as Foreman's Castle, to sawait his trial at the April Quarter Sessione for arson.

"ROMANISM AS IT IS," is the title of a work for which Mr. James H. Harper, a mute, (son of Rev. Dr. Harper, of Shippenshurg.) is now soliciting subscribers in Carlisle and elsewhere. THE attention of our readers is called o the advertisement of The Charter Ouk Life Ins Co. of Hartford, Conn .-This Company is well known as one of the oldest and most substantial institutions of its kind in the country. It has been most carefully managed during its business career of over twenty-one years. Though one of the most conservative companies in existence, it has always been the leader in matters of improvement in the science of Life Insurance, and has ocen the originator of many of the most valuable features which have been added to the business during the past few years. It now presents a new plan, which is highly commended by all whose attention has been directed to it. This plan, Deposit Insurance, certainly present some very lieve two unfortunates, we will send to marked improvements over any other each of our debtors in the course of a few plan of insurance with which we are days, two collectors, one of whom has acquainted. To those "who live long hardly recovered from the small pox and and prosper" it yields very handsome the other of whom has just taken the returns as an investment, and to those who die it affords the benefits of insurance at rates far below those elsewhere offered on any short endowments, for which this is a substitute. But its chief nept of the "course" in Rheem's Hall, and admirable provision is for the withdrawal of payments, by those who de-ire so to do, at the end of any policy year. The amount allowed to be withdrawn is definitely specified for each vear, and is a very large proportion of the total payments to the Company.-We are confident that in advising our readers to investigate the plan we are

CARLISLE, Feb. 8tb, 1872. Ed. Volunteer—When I see a state ment made that is incorrect, I think it is nothing more than right that it should he corrected, especially when it refers to the ladies. Now, such statement has been made. You assert in your last edition "that there has been no leap year party in Carlisle." This is just what I would like to see corrected. There has been a leap year party in this town, and that on the evening of the 1st inst. The ladies sent the invitations, called for the invitations, called for the

to refuse and we danced.

As all things bave an ending so had this party, but I don't think it will ever be forgotten by the participants.

The last feature of the party, was escorting the gentlemen home. Just here the ladies had a little difficulty, as some of the guests didn't have regular homes. Such unfortunates were gently deposited at one of the gates of an educational institution of the town. While the gentlemen from an adjoining borough were deserted at the "square."

I think the gentlemen or Carlisle would have no objection to a repetition of the same kind of party. of the same kind of party.

THE SECRET OF CAPTIVATION.—Features Grecian mould, a well turned neck, and bear tifully rounded arms, are no doubt very nice things to have; and ladies who possess these charms have reason to be thankful to Mothe Nature; yet, after all, the most captivating of all womanly charms is a pure, fresh and britiant complexion. This superlative fascination any lady may secure by using HAGAN'S MAGNO any lady may secure by using Hagan's Magno-Lia Balm, the standard beautifying preparation of the present age. It differs from all ordinary cosmetics in three most essential particulars, inasmuch as it contains no injurious ingre-dients, dois not contract or shrivel the skin as all the astringent "blooms," "iotions" and pow-ders" eventually do, but produces a lasting love-liness by improving the health of the skin. Under its operation the texture of the epider-mis becomes finer, and the surface soft as vel-vet and smooth—as percelain.—Features cannot be changed, but complexions can, and it is quite certain that a lady with no other charm than a fresh and rosy complexion, will attract han a fresh and rosy complexion, will attract more admiration in company than her neigh
