MILITARY.-We see by our exchange that in neighboring towns efforts are being made to revive the military spirit, and the formation of volunteer compan ies (white) is earnestly urged upon the citizens. This is the right course, and we hope the effort may be successful.-It would be well if the young men o Carlisle and of the towns of Cumberland county generally, would take the matter in hand, and at once proceed to organize volunteer companies. Why should the military organizations be confined to the stupid blacks, whose drills and marchings are a burlesque upon the military system? At one time Carlisle had three or four fine volunteer companies, ably officered, well drilled, and whose appearance and soldier-like conduct reflected honor upon the town and county, and whose praise was in every mouth. Nov we have not even the skeleton of a company, and the military spirit once so universal, appears to have entirely died out. This state of things should not be suffered to continue, and we do hope our young men, imitating the example of neighboring towns, will at once set to work and endeavor to effect the organization of one or more good volunteer companies. We have the right material in Carlisle to effect this object; all that is necessary to accomplish it is an active and united effort.

CONCERT.—The Philharmonic Associ ation of this place purpose giving a grand vocal and instrumental concert, in the Second Presbyterian church, on Tuesday evening, March 19. The programme will consist of solos, duets, quartets and choruses, both sacred and secular, care. fully selected from the works of some of the best authors in the country. On this, conside the new church will be lighted. up for the first time, and the fact that this will be the first concert given by the association outside of its own room, w fell satisfied that the church will be crowded. Go early, in order to secure your seats, and hear a rich treat.

Tickets of admission thirty-five cents to be had at each of the banks, and at Neff's, Piper's, Conlyn's and Blair's stores. Doors open at 7; concert to com nence at 8 P. M.

Moving DAY .- The first of Apri draws night, and around and about us are even now manifold evidences that the reign of discord and confusion has commenced, and ere many suns shall want it will be still more inexplicably confounded. Broken mirrors, shattered furniture, scratched tables, spoiled veneering, clocks that will not go, legless chairs that will not stand, carpets that will not fit, curtains either much too long or far too short-women vexed-men madden ed-children restless, and squalling babe ...will, with a myriad of other untold inconveniences, dim the vision and dull the ear. Indignation meetings will be held by disturbed bed bugs, and grand councils of venerable rats will be held nightly. Tenants are on the wing: land lords restive for security, and the only consolation left to the migrators is, that as the old proverb runs, "three moves are as good as one fire." From cold dinners on moving day, carrying beds to the actic, cording up sacking bottoms; and sore throats for a week afterwards-

LAMP explosions continue to occur not with standing the many fearful warnsult of carelessness and ignorance. Scarcely a paner we take up but contains accounts of one or more of these accidents, resulting in death or the horrible distigurement of the unlucky persons who may happen to be in the room when the lamp explodes. Women, too, are sometimes reckless enough to attempt to kindle their fires by the use of kerosene or coal oil. by which means the most fatal casualities have occurred. It is, however, a matter of congratulation that no such accidents have occurred, at least of late days, in our own neighborhood.

BLUE BIRDS .- A few of these beautiful and welcome little songsters, whose ap pearance is hailed with universal joy. doubtless inspired with over confidence by the late congenial weather, have made their appearance. We are afraid that they will yet be brought to regret their imprudent flight to the vet desolate North: Their melancholy notes may be heard from the tree-tops as they wistfully turn towards the east for the appearance of the radiant gleams of the sun-

ANOTHER SNOW STORM. - After the intense cold of the early part of last week, the weather moderated somewhat and on Friday afternoon last we wer visited with another snow storm, which covered mother earth to the depth of about one inch. These slight snow 'squalis" go to show that " winter yet lingers in the lap of spring."

MONEY WANTED AT THE VOLUNTEER OFFICE.—Money is badly wanted at the Volunteer office, and we have to request those who owe us for subscription, job work or advertising, to pay their bills as soon as possible. We have a large mount standing on our books, which we want speedily settled up. April Court will be a good time for those indebted to pay up, and we hope all who can will avail themselves of it. Our patrons will please give this notice their attention.

BURNING OF A HOUSE.-The dwelling ouse of Mr. Edward Noll, situated one mile east of Shiremanstown, this county, on the line of the C. V. R. R. was entirely destroyed by fire on the 6th inst. The wind was blowing a perfect gale at the time, and all efforts to save the building were fruitless. The configgration was caused, it was supposed rom the sparks of a locomotive, attach ed to the third freight train east, which had passed a short time before the fire broke out.

VOTE OF THANKS.—At the temperan neeting held in the Reformed Church of Shippensburg, on Thursday evening the following resolution was offered and passed unanimously:

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be and is hereby t-indered to Jacob Bomberger, Esq., of the House, and Hon. J. M. Weakley, of the Senate, for their kindness and promptness in having passed through the Legislature, and signed by his Lxcellenoy, the Governor, the bill allowing our citizens to vote upon the question as to whether or not honess shall be licensed to sell liquor in our Borough.

SLIGHT FIRE. On Monday last a light fire occurred at the house of Jacob Mumma, Jr., in Monroe township. The fire commenced in the chimney and ommunicated to the fire doors and floor. Mr. Mumma was at the time attending a sale at the neighboring farm of Mr. Hiram Watt; and when the alarm was given he, acco moanied by many others, ran for his house, and upon reaching it found that the flames had already been extin guished by Mrs. Mumma and her assistints. The damage was slight.

INCREASED LENGTH OF DAYS .- The last day of February was eleven hours and twelve minutes long, being a gain during the month, of one hour and twelve minutes. ASPARAGUS ATTACK .- Almost every eason our horticultural friends are afflicted with a fever of some kind. One year it is the grape fever: the next the strawperry; then come the raspberry and plackberry, followed by the pear. Having had all these in turn, something new may be expected, and it is said that the next epidemic will be in the direction of asparagus. There are those sanguine enough to believe that asparagus as thick as a man's thigh, and perfectly tender vill be produced before the fever exhausts

As the first of April is approaching we vould again remind our readers that if they come into possession of any money this spring, for which they have no imnediate use, it is positively dangerous to keep it in their houses over night. CONFLAGRATION.-One of the largestand most alarming fires that has ever visited our town occurred on Wednesday afternoon, at about two o'clock, involving the destruction of the "Old Warelouse," owned by Mr. George Koser; also the large new stable of Mr. George Titzel, and for a time threatened the lestruction of the business portion of the town.

The Warehouse is situated on the corner of North Frederick street and C. V. R. R., and the fire was first discovered on the roof of this building, immediately after the second freight train had passed up, and is supposed to have originated from a spark from the engine. The slarm was immediately given, and the Washington Fire Company with their apparatus early on the ground, but as the wind from the North-west was blow ing almost a hurricane at the time, it was found impossible to save the building which was then entirely enveloped. The flames were soon communicated to Titzel's stable, and other buildings on the South toward Main street, and the efforts of the firemen and citizens were directed to the saving of these buildings, and through almost superhuman efforts all were saved but the Titzel stable. "The most intense excitement prevailed among our reople, as the terrible high winds carried the burning cinders over the central portion of the town, setting fire to many houses and buildings, and it does seem miraculous, that our town is not in ashes to-day. The stables from the corner of Frederick street and Strawberry lley east for half a square, were all on fire at different times, and on Main street, the properties of Geo. Titzel, Second National Bank, (Boyer's block,) Mrs. Coover, L. Kauffman, W. H. Oswald, Dr. Day, J. Dorsheimer, J. K. Neisley, Jno. Hoover, John Sadler, Jos. W. Hughes, Miss Kinsey and others, were ignited and only saved by hard labor. We also learn that some buildings, situated from two to four squares from the scene of conflagration, were on fire, among which were those of Dr. Young and Jos. Elcock, on South Market, and H. Bobb, on Simpson streets. Too much credit cannot be given to our people-firemen, citizens, wo men and children—for the manner in which all worked, and we have great reason to congratulate ourselves, (many of us at least,) that our homes are saved. We almost forgot to mention the fact that the large grain house of Bucher & Neisley on the north side of the railroad also caught from the intense heat from the other buildings, but as the wind was blowing in an opposite direction the flames were extinguished by tearing off the burning weather-boarding and the lamage to this property was but slight-The loss by the fire is between 6,000 and $7,000; there was a large amount of oats and flour stored in the old ware house for shipment; as near as we can learn it is distributed as follows: Bucher & Neisley, 4,000 bushels of oats; Miller & Garret, 80 barrels of flour; B. Giver, 40 barrels of flour: John Williams. 35 barrels of flour; C. Brindle, 30 barrels of flour; John Shaffner, 25 barrels and Geo. Leidig, 20 barrels of flour, all lost. No insurance. George Koser's loss i greater, comparatively, than any of the others; he looses about 300 dollars worth of goods and is thrown out of business for the time being and as he is less able to bear his loss than many of the others, will consequently feel it more. Mr. Tit zel's loss on stable is about $600, and is insured in the Allen & East Pennsborough company for this amount on which he will realize two-thirds, he also looses 100 bushels of corn, lot of hav and much damage to his property in the destruction of fences, grape arbor, &c. The surrounding properties also suffered to a spread of the flames. In this connection we would state that when the fire broke out many of our citizens were in Carlisle attending Court. Mr. G. A. Zacharias immediately telégraphed to Mr. R. A. Bucher, who comnunicated it to Judge Junkin, and the Judge at once adjourned the Court so as to allow the gentlemen, from this place to come home. The 3:18 train brought home a crowd of anxious citizens accompanied by a number of gentlemen from Carlisle ready to lend us their aid. The Carlisle fire companies upon the receipt of the news got their apparatus ready and tendered us their assistance, and had it been found necessary would have been nere in a short time, as the C. V. R. R. ompany had an engine fired up and cars ready to bring them at a moment's notice. Happily however their services were not required, but we are none the less thankful for their kind offer, and our people will hold them in grateful remem-

The fire of Wednesday demonstrates, that while our fire department is well supplied with the necessary apparatus for the protection of property, there are some other things wanting that would add much to our safety, of which we shall speak when we have more time and space, for the present we feel that we have made a narrow escape, and are, therefore, not disposed to make any complaint.—Mechanicsbury Independent, March 8.

THE present winter has written a tale f unparallelled horror on the pages of Western history. As yet, however not half the story of suffering from terrible rosts, and damage from blinding snow torms, has met the public eye. Snow has been piled house high in many localities, and men, women and children fro zen while endeavoring to obtain wood for fuel. In some cases parties were overtaken in the open air and killed by the blighting embrace of the wind; in others, whole families died by their own fireless hearth stones cold, hungry and alone. These are some of the incidents which have marked the winter of 1872 in he West. SHOT HIMSELF .- Mr. George Moore n old and respectable citizen of Allen's love. Penn township, this county shot ilmself on last Friday under the following circumstances : Mr. M. resided near the Cove Station. About noon he was sitting near the chimney, smoking and conversing with his family. He got up, walked through the dining-room into ed-room. Shortly after the report of a gun was heard, and his wife running in found her husband in a sitting posture with his right boot off, having doubtless used his foot to discharge the rifle. The bullet struck him in the forehead, a lit le above the eyes, cutting a groove out of the skull bone, passing out at the top of his head, and entering the wall, He died about 1 o'clock on Saturday morning. His remains were interred on Sunday, in the Methodist burying ground near Duncanuon. He was about 62 years of age. It is not known what led him to commit self-destruction, though it is said he was addicted to the immoderate use of opium, and it is probable that his mind was disturbed by the deadly drug. A HORSE THIRF IN TROUBLE .- A mar who gave his name as Charles Smith. efore the mayor, but whese real name s Samuel Reed, (the son of a respectable farmer residiug above Harrisburg) was arrested in the vicinity of the stables in the rear of the Motter house, on Saturday morning, charged by Wm. Fought. of Silver Spring township, Cumberland The horses were taken from Mr. Fought's barn on Friday night or early on Satur day morning, and the thief reached this city about half past three o'clock, A. M. the same day. Mr. Fought missed his horses early in the day, and by means of the tracks on the snow, and after crossing the bridge and inquiring, ascertained from a Mr. Zarker that the man and the property he was looking for could be found at the Motter house. Thither he went, and on going into the stables discovered his man leading a horse by a alter. The thief, when spied by Mr. Fought, ran out into an alley adjoining the stable and tried to make his escape He got away but a short distance when he was collared by another man and secured. He had sold the horses to a horse dealer from Washington, D. C., Mr. Jno-Gallagher—one for $77 50, the other—an old, blind one -for $7 50. The horse deafer had paid him two dollars and flity cents to close the bargain-Reed promising to bring a man who knew him to prove that he was "all right," but failed to find such a person before he was arrested. He was taken before the mayor, and in default of ball, committed for further bearing, which will probably take place to day. Reed was recently discharged from the penitentiary and this is his third arrest for horse stealing. He alleges that he lived unhappily with his vife, and prefers penitentiary life to con nubial felicity. In arithmetic they stood with chalk in hand, and a blackboard before them, and their faces lit up with a smile of joy, and readily solved the questions given them. It was thought the girls far excelled the boys, which is unusual in this branch, for although the former almost always read better than the latter, it is the reverse in figures. The school room was decorated with beauticlear, though necessarily brief, to meet | ful engravings, and wreaths of evergreen handsomely arranged. Music was furnished by Mr. J. [For the Volunteer.] SCHOOL EXAMINATION.

Mr. Editor.—As our public schools in the county are about drawing to a close, and as school examinations seem to be the all-absorbing topic of the day, among educational circles, I will attempt to give yous sketch of one it has been my good fortune to witness held on Thursday, February 29, at the Carliele Springs school (Middlesex township.) The school numbers sixty-two scholars, and ja taught by Mr. George O'Hars, antable and efficient teacher; of eighteen years practical experience in the business of ceaching, and whose rare abilities and skill are highly appreciated by the patrons of the district.

The school room was handsomely described; the walls; were thickly strewed; with pictures of men of intellectual eminence, and others of appropriate design. The house was so densely crowded that the pupils were all forced into the front seals and about the platform, so that the regular order of bringing out and of dismissing classes had to be dispensed with. Quite a number of teachers of this and when townships were present. The order Quite a number of teachers of this and other townships were present. The order of exercises consisted of the examination of the acholars. In the various branches now taught in our common schools. The examination was conducted in a rigic and practical manner. The scholars answered promptly and satisfactorily, not only the questions propounded by the teacher, but also those propounded by others. All desiring were privileged to participate in the examination. The manner in which the scholars acquitted themselves reflects great credit upon manner in which the scholars acquitted themselves reflects great credit upon them and their teacher, showing that they thorougly and practically understand what they are taught. The exergive interspersed with yord and idetrumental part being: furnished by the scholars and the choir of the Carliele Brings Church, the instrumental part being: furnished by Mr. John Lesher, a proficient performer. A prominent feature of the entertainment was an original address prepared for the occasion and delivered by Miss Annie Jacobs, aged twelve years. The sentiments and the deliberate and easy style in which it was delivered, excited the admiration of all present. After which addresses were made by Messrs Gutshall, Jacobs, "and others." During the adjournment at noon all present from a distance were hospitably enter-

C. IT is a rare thing that physicians give any countenance to a medicine, the manafacture of which is a secret. About the only exception we know of "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment." This, we believe, all endorse, and many f them use it in their practice with reat success.

Persons requiring purgatives or pills should be careful what they buy. Some pills not only cause griping pains, but eave the bowels in a torpid, costive state. "Parson's Purgat ive Pills" will clense the blood without injury to the system.

THE AMERICAN STOCK JOURNAL.-We wish to call the attention of our readers to this, the oldest and most widely circulated Journal of its class, devoted to the Live Stock interests of the whole country. In this powerful, yet harmless restorative. dyspepsia, billious complaints, and all seases of the stomach, liver, bowels and nerves, encounter an irresistable antidote. 4w

"HOW TO GO WEST."—Forty years ago ills nois was as far, West as the people wished to go and the journeys were made in the legendary "Prairie Schooner," but in these days o ress and Improvement, the word West ha com reas and improvement, the word wast in con-to, mean lows, Nobraska, Kansas, Colorado, California and the Territories' and the traveler reaches amost any point therein by a spien-did Line of Ruitroad.

The line of Railroad is the Burlington route, which starts from Chicago over the Burlington, i Chicago and Quincy R.; R.; from Indianapolis over the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western Short Line, and from Logansport, over the To-ledo, Peorle & Warsaw R. R., and running through Burlington, reaches Omaha, Lincoln, Nebruska City, Bt. Joseph, Atchison, Leavenworth and Kansas City, connecting with the Union Paci-le, Kapsa Pacific and other railroads running. rom those cities.

Always go "By way of Burlington," and yo

Always go "By way of Burington," and yo will be sure to be right.

The Burlington route has admirably answered the question. "How to go West?" by the publication of a truthful and interesting comment, filled with facts in regard to time, connections, accommodations, rates of fare, and other interesting items, and illustrated by a large map, showing the whole West, which they distribute howing the whole West, which they distribu free of charge. requite as astonishing as any scene on the age of a theatre. That famous beautifier trans mutes a sallow peeky looking complexion, in to one in which the tilly and the rose vie for ado one in which the tilly and the rose vie for admiration, and imparts to a dry, harsh skin, the softness of perfect loveliness. Tan and freckles, which country arraid sunlight are pretty sure to produce, in spite of parasols and sundowns, are completely obliterated by it, while it has a perfectly magical effect in banishing undue redness, blotches and primiles from the unduo redness, blotches and pimples from the skin. When the lady who has used it to remey her complexional defects looks in the mir-nor, she is equally astounded and gratified at the improvements in her appearance. Every blemish has disappeared; her neck, arms and bosom, now rival in whiteness the snowy collar which encircles her throat, her cheen mantles with a peach-like bloom, and she is ready to it voke a blossing on the inventor of the article which has brought such à delightful transfor-
