To Grant the peohave his interests most at heart, and will be most likely to forward those interests. The Liberal Republican platform aims to overthrow an officeholding aristocracy which has assumed an overbearing superiority over the workingman, and which, through its orinsipal organ, recently taunted Dr Horace Greely, an honest workingman with insane audacity in aspiring to the office of President of the United States-a position which the chief of this army of aristocratic officeholders desires to retain.

It is unpleasant to be obliged to record a most unfilial act on the part of Gen. Grant. It has already been pubished that the Republicans of Covington, Ky., have manifested a disposition to repudiate the Administration; and it now appears from the Cincinnati Commercial that it has been telegraphed from Washington that the President would hold the Federal officers in Covington responsible for the act of parts nsubordination. The principal Federal officer in Covington is the venerable Jesse R. Grant, who, as is well known, is physically incapaciated from performing any of the duties of his office except drawing his salary; and for his son to except the old gentleman in his disabled condition to go stumping around for the purpose of manipulating caucuses, displays a degree of heartlessness on the part of Ulysses which is really shocking. ONE of the most extraordinary freaks of human atrocity inspired by religious —or rather irreligious—fanaticism, or record in modern times is the Marquand tragedy which took place near last week. Both the father and the mother had worked themselves up to that pitch that they believed it was necessary to murder their five children. Two of them escaped, but the remaining three were most brutally murdered by their unnatural parents, after which Marquand murdered his wife evidently with her own consent. We presume that there are but few cases on record in which both husband and wife have been seized with such a murderous insanity, and then proceeded to carry out such an unexampled plan of murder so systematically, under the belief that they were propitiating the Deity.

JAMES W. GRIMES was the founder of the Republican party in the State of Iowa. He was ele ted Governor, then Senator twice. It is not so now in York ; has not been so for years. A new set of men-men who compose a 'ring"—rule the Conventions of York, and shape things to suit their own selfish and villainous purposes. Too nany men are sent as Delegates to the County Conventions and appointed Conferees, who would sell their county or barter their souls if they could make money by the transaction. And what has made these corruptionists arrogant and impudent, is the fact that the party has endorsed their doings and supported their candidates.
