To think of Senators Clay, Calhoun, Benton, Webster, Buchanan, Woodbury, Allen of Ohio, Ewing, Silas, Wright, and then of Harlan, Nye, Clayton, Caldwell, Cameron, Brownlow, is dropping from the sublime to the ridiculous very suddenly.

A CRAZY man in the gallery of the U. S. Senate, during a rambling debate one day recently, was taken out, the Sergeant-at-arms telling him that he was "out of place in that gallery." "That's so," said the lunatic; "I ought to be on the floor with the Senators." There's a good deal of wisdom in a fool's wit sometimes.

RESULT OF RADICAL DISHONESTY .-The committee of investigation appointed in the case of Secretary Robeson, makes the seventeenth committee appointed by Congress at this session, to investigate charges of rascality against Radical officials. Be it remembered, too, that none of the committees were appointed without the most strenfraud and corruption have been allowlowed under the present government. WRANGLING IN THE U. S. DENATE. Almost the entire session, thus far, o

the present U.S. Senate has been conumed in wrangling. The Democratic lenators have taken but little part in the debates, only putting in abroadside occasionally, merely to give spice to the entertainment. The disputes, criminations and recriminations have been indulged in almost entirely by Radical Senators—the friends of Grant on one side, and his enemies on the other. The first fought against inquring into or in any way investigating the corrupt practices of the administration; the latter contended for fight and for exposure, and, to a certain extent they gained their point. It has been a long, bitter and tedious contest, and it may be added, a very expensive one to the people. But, this contest between those who desired to cover up the unblushing villainies of the administration and those who desired their exposure, was necessary. Our country for the last three or four years has been in the keeping of most despicable men-mer whose sole object was their own aggran dizement. PALM SUNDAY IN THE CATHOLIC CHURCHES OF THE CITY.—Sunday last was the day known throughout the Roman Catholic world as Palm Sunday, an which the people of that faith commemorate the triumphant entry into the city of Jerusalem. At that time a dense multitude bearing in their hands palm and olive branchs, as a testimony of their approbation, met and welsomed the Savior. To celebrate this day the Catholic church has instituted the festival of the blessing and distribution of palms. Sometimes the officiating priest gives the palms to the clergy and the laity while they are kneeling at the altar railing. At other times, to avoid confusion, they are distributed to the members of the Rings have been formed, and are forming, including members of Congress, candidates for Congres, railroad officials, bank presidents, prokers, a few manufacturers, and others, to obtain land grants for railroads, subsidies for steamship companies, and guarantees from the government promising payment of bonds ssued by railroad companies. All over the country candidates for Congress are approached by these rings and their agents and interrogated as to what their views are on questions like the foregoing. If the candidate is an nonest man, unwilling to aid in robbing the government by fraudulent and grants, and the giving away the people's money to bogus steamship ompanies, and generally opposed to this system of plunder and pillage, he s considered an old fogy, and all the nfluence and power of the thieves is exerted to defeat him. The "land grant" business seems to ne at a discount in congress, just now, but subsides in money to steamship companies are making a rather lively agitation in that body. On Tuesday last, the house being in Committee of the Whole on the post office appropriation bill, Mr. Haldeman, of this Dist. spoke against the section appropriating 500,000 for steamship service between Sau Francisco, Japan and China. The lemocratic members of the Pennsylvania delegation in congress have made an excellent record on the subject of land grants and subsides. We give below the concluding portion of Mr. Haldeman's remarks on Tuesday last:
