In the meantime we call ttention to the three extracts we publish below from three of the most influential Republican papers in the State. The tone of these articles is indicative of the feelings of the Ketcham men. It is said that many other Republican papers are ready to deounce and will denounce the Radical State ticket. But to the extracts : [From the Lancaster Express.] Those who have been careful readers of the Express for the past two years, or ince it has called public attention to the reckless and criminal manner in which our State finances have been managed, need scarcely be informed that neither the proceedings nor the results of the Bepublican State Conven-tion meet our approval or have any claim upon our support. The conven-tion, so far as its relation to either the wishes or the interests of the people at large are concerned, was a broad farce.
