IT is said that gas from a cast iron stove produces typhoid fever.

MANY pavements are out of repair from the effects of the winter frosts. THE new anring sivles of the ladies are certainly very pretty and becoming. VAGRANTS have commenced the enjoying of their spring excursions on free tickets.

Buns, flowers and leaves are now more worn in bonnets than flimsy, fluttering, fussy feathers.

RAILBOAD men say that the travel has not been so light for a number of years as during the past two months.

Notes due on Monday, when that is a holiday, will hereafter be paid on Tuesday instead of Saturday.

THE most stylish parasols this season are of gay colored satins, lined with white and edged with fringe or lace. THE grain coming East is enormous and lake captains are making contracts at 13 cents per bushel for corn to Buffalo and 18 to Oswego.

THE spring style of bonnets are said to be the prettiest which women have worn for centuries! Did you ever know a woman sweet on any style over three weeks?
