VIOLENT ASSAULT.-On Wednesday of last week, Charles Taylor, an old citizen of our borough, was violently beaten about the face and head, in the Market House, by a couple of young "sports." The weapon used was a clever, which was laving on one of the stalls. He was also verely cut on the right hand with a knife. Mr. Taylor had his assailants arested, but they were subsequently reeased upon paying the costs.

DEATH OF MAJ. STERRET RAMSEY.-The many friends of our former hospitable and beloved citizen, Maj. Staret Ramsey, will be pained to learn that he is no more. He died at Gettysburg on Tuesday, after an illness of some weeks. Maj. R., for the last fifteen years, was on the retired list as Purser of the Navy, and received half pay. He was a man of great kindness of heart, a warm friend to those he liked, and a very decided enemy to those he did not like. On the 1st of January last he sent us two dollars for subscription to the Volunteer, and in his letter he remarked, "I have taken the Volunteer for forty-one years, and I have always been the friend of its different editors. I have a presentiment that I will not take it for forty-one years longer; my time is nearly up." Major Rumsey was, we learn, 78 years of age.-

CHANGE IN THE CARLISLE HERALD. The Herald of last week, in a short edtorial, gives notice that J. M. Wallace, Esq., for the last three years its junior ditor and business manager, has retired from the concern. The Rev. O. L. Haddock, of Philadelphia, takes his place.-Mr. Wallace walks out of the office sub rosa, without a word of explanation, and we are therefore in the dark as to the cause of the dissolution. It is with sincere regret that we part with Mr. Wallace. During the three years or more of his connection with the Herald, his rare social qualities and affable manners secured a large share of paronage to the establishment, and hosts friends to himself. He was a very decided partisan, but yet he never permitted his politics to interfere with his friendships. We therefore wish him God-speed in whatever calling he may hereafter engage in. To the new firm we extend the hand of fellowship, wishing it success in eve rything except Radical principles. Mr. Weakley, who will continue as editor in chief, is a cogent writer and a gentleman of ripe experience in his profession. Long life, then, to the old Herald.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Last week we inadvertently neglected to mention the ccident which occured to Robert Matthews, son of Mr. Worley Matthews of this borough. The following are the particulars of the accident: The Southern Pennsylvania Rail Road Company has recently erected a buildhouse at Loudon, Franklin county.-Workmen have been employed in filling up the ground about it. In hauling dirt for this purpose, they used cars which are made to dump their contents after the manner of a cart. On Saturday morning, three men were in one of these cars. Unfortunately the bolt which goes into the staple to prevent the car from dumping, had not been put in and when the car was about two hundred yards below the station. it dumped, and threw the men out. One of these men is named Robert Matthews. He held on to the car, and, one of its wheels ran over his left leg, crushing it fearfullly. About noon, the leg was amputated above the ankle by Dr. H. G. Chritzman, of Weish Run, Drs. Brownson, McClintock and Van Tries being present and assisting. Young Matthews will be rant his removal.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT,-The Hagers own Herald & Torch gives this accoun of a fatal accident:

"On Saturday morning last a most untimely and terrible loss befel the family of Mr. Daniel Downin, a most highly esteemed and industrious farmer, residing on the Bryan place, 1½ miles north-west of Hagerstown. The eldest son, Frank, an unusually bright and pleasant boy of twelve years, had been assisting his father through harvest with the horse rake. About noon, having finished the field in which he had been working, he started for home, his way leading through the lane passing by Nicholas Martin's, and across the Middleburg pipe. An old horse, regarded as the most gentle and reliable on the farm, was attached to the rake and no fears of danger being entertained, the boy left the field some fifteen or twenty minutes in advance of the others. Nothing was seen or heard of him until his minutes in advance of the others. Nothing was seen or heard of him until his father coming along the lane, found the senseless and mangled body of his son lying upon the ground. The services of Dr. N. B. Scott were quickly secured, but surgical skill was powerless, life being extinct, the neck having been broken, and the entire upper portion of the body severely contused and crushed. The circumstances of the accident are unknown, no one belong present, but it is known, no one being present, but it is generally supposed that the horse, be-coming unmanageable, dashed off, one of the wheels striking the fence, the force of which precipitated the boy from the rake upon the rocks abounding at the place of accident."

WONDERFUL RESTORATION OF SPEECH -The Cumberland (Md.) News has the ollowing: "About five years ago Miss Eliza Hite, now about 23 years of age residing on Bedford street, in this city, lost the power of speech entirely, from the effects of a cold, and has not, up to Sunday last, uttered a word since. The skill of the best medical advisers of this city and Baltimore was obtained by her distressed parents, but all in vain, and all hope of the restoration of her voca powers was given up., On Sunday morning she was returning from Church, and was thinking of a particular tune sung by the choir at the services she had just attended, when she found herself unconlously humming it. She was greatly astonished to hear sounds issuing from her lips, but proceeded to make other experiments, and found that she could speak. How or where this miraculous cure, if such it can be called, was effected no one can tell, but the joy of the young lady's parents and friends is so great that they do not trouble themselves much on this head, but are content to look at it as an interposition of Providence. The young lady's joy, as may be imagined, is not unspeakable, and we suppose that after five years of enforced silence, she will have a great deal to talk about for some time to come.

TRYPITE OF RESPECT -At a meeting of Marion Council, No. 88, Jr. O. U. A. M. of Carlisle, held in their hall, July 16, 1872, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in his all-wise. Providence, to re-move from our midst our beloved broth-er, William C. Bentley; and, Whereas, In the death of our brother, who was esteemed by all who knew him, and who was faithful to all the duties imposed upon him by his Council; therefore, be it Resolved. That we mourn the loss of our departed brother, and that we deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in their sad affliction, and can only commond them to the love of our Heavenly Father, the great and only source of conselection.

Resolved, That in respect to the memory of our deceased brother, our charter be draped in mourning for sixty days. Resolved, That these resolutions be en grossed upon the minutes of our Council, a copy presented to the parents of the deceased, and that the same be published in the AMERICAN VOLUNTEER, Carlisle Herald and Junior American Mechanic.

TALK AT THE TOILET.—Every lady's naid knows that the bewitching beings maid knows that the bewitching beings who pave their triumphant way withi conquered hearts, regard a splendid head of hair as the most effective of all womanly fascinations. They believe, and they are right, that they can tasso as many beaux with the luxuriant ringlets and glossy braids as they can "kill at sight" with their beaming eyes. Hence in their "toilet talk' among themselves and with their at tendants, the merits of preparations for the hair are freely canvassed, and the almost universal adoption of Lyon's Kathairon as an article better adapted to promote the growth and beauty o the "Chief Glory of Woman" than any other at present before the world. They say that without irritating the skin of the head it eradicates dandruff and that it penetrates below the surface to the roots of the hair, endowing them with new life and vigor.

Our Book Table. THE LADY'S FIREND FOR AUGUST.—The lead-ing engraving in this number is that of a most lovely lady on a balcony, waving a handler chief—a beautiful picture. "Moonlight at Sea" is also something exquisite. The illustrat of stylish costumes and tasteful novelties i dress are rather more than usually captivating we should say. SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOW TO GO WEST. - This is an inquir which every one should have truthfully an-swered before he statis on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and mo-The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West, At Burlington they connect with the B. & Mf. R. and form the great Burlington route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nahragies and Kares, with clear compactions ebraska and Kansas, with close connection c California and the Territories; and passen-ers starting from Carlisle, on their way West-ard, cannot do better than to take the Burngton Route. This line has published a pamphlet called This line has published a painting curied whow to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the freat West which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B, dM, R, R, Burlington, Iowa.

For One-half the people cannot take Castor Of from its terrible nauseating taste and recoll in the throat. The Castoria prepared by Dr Pitcher is purely vegetable, perfectly harmles, pleasant to take, and more effective than Castor Oil. It does not distress or gripe, but regulates the system, and operates when all other remedies have failed. It acts like magic for stomachache, constipation, flatulency, croup and worms. It contains neither minerels, morphine nei alcohol. Its soothing, quieting effect produces natural sleep, and particularly adapts produces natural sleep, and particularly adapts it to crying and teething children. No article it to crying and testuing outsires. No article has ever met such unqualified endorsement by the physicians. Take no more bitter pills, narcotlo strups, griping purgatives or sickening oils. The Castoria costs but 50 cents, and when once thed you will never be without it. J.
