BENEFITS FROM HOEING.

Too many persons who use the hoe suppose that the chief benefit derived from it is to kill the weeds. That, certainly, is an important work, and one which is greatly neglected. Weeds are not only in the way of cultivating the crops which we plant, but they rob them of much of the nutriment which they need. Hoeing, then, is an essential service in respect to destroying the weeds.

There are other advantages, however, which are quite commonly overlooked. Let us see:

1. The loosening of the soil in the operation of hoeing is beneficial to the plants; as much as the destruction of the weeds, or more so.

2. Moisture abounds in the atmosphere during the hottest months, and is absorbed and restrained most abundantly by a soil which is in the most friable state. Prof. Schluber found that 1,000 grains of stiff clay absorbed in twenty-four hours only thirty-six grains of moisture from the air; whilst garden mould absorbed forty-five grains; and fine magnesia seventy-six grains.

3. Then, again, pulverizing the soil enables it better to retain the moisture absorbed.

4. The soil, in order to be healthy and active, must breathe. A light, porous soil admits the air, and thus it is fed and greatly invigorated by the atmosphere.

5. The sun's rays heat a hard soil much quicker than a loose one, and the hotter the soil is so much greater will be the evaporation from it. So that the hard soil is deprived of its moisture much sooner than one of a loose texture.

6. The roots of plants can find their way through a moist, loose soil, in search of food, much better than they can through a hard, dry soil.

7. The soil that has been ploughed well, and then kept loose near the surface by the action of the hoe, will receive and hold the rain water that falls, while a hard soil will allow most of it to run off into the valleys and streams as it falls.

Let us all hoe thoroughly this season until the crops are perfected, and while engaged in this work, observe and discuss the benefits we may derive from it.—New England Farmer.

CORN SOWN FOR FODDER.

We have given frequent detailed directions for raising corn-fodder—always sowing it in drills or furrows, the latter being the best, allowing more breadth for the rows. An inquirer asks what time it should be sown? We answer, any time in the Northern States between the middle of May and the middle of July. Those who use it for early soiling may sow it as early as the weather and soil will allow, early in May, and if small early corn is sown quite thickly, say three bushels to the acre, it will give a heavy crop of fine fodder on good ground by the time of common wheat harvest. But if intended only for autumn soiling or for fodder, it need not be sown earlier than the middle of June, and a larger variety of corn will do better. But never sow less than two or two and a half bushels to the acre.

If the ground is poor, the crop will be greatly increased by manuring.—Coarse manure may be used to good advantage on corn fodder. Plow two horse furrows about three feet apart, fill them half full of manure by throwing with a fork from the cart or wagon, then strew the corn along with a half bushel basket on the left arm, at the rate of about three bushels per acre, and then harrow the whole lengthwise with the furrows. The harrow will break up the manure and mix it with the soil, and the seed will be mixed with both—it may be scattered some, but more fodder will grow on a wide than on a narrow furrow, and if a few grains are left uncovered, there will still be enough for a good crop. If the the owner happens to have a smoothing harrow, he may harrow the whole surface before the corn is up, and two or three times afterwards; and this operation, together with the shading of the crop, will leave the surface as clean and smooth as a floor, after the crop is harvested. It should not be overlooked by those not familiar with this mode of raising fodder, that two or three times as much dry fodder may thus be obtained from land as from good meadow hay; that cattle will eat the whole, stalks and all; and that the stalks will be sure to heat and spoil with the novice the first year—therefore begin moderately.—Country Gentleman.

TAKE SLEEP ENOUGH.—It may have escaped the general reader's notice, that more men have died young, who have been connected with the New York press, within ten years, and that too from intemperance, than in all the other educational callings put together; young men whose talents have been of the first order, and gave promises of a life of usefulness, honor and eminence. The best possible thing for a man to do, when he feels too tired to perform a task or too weak to carry it through, is to go to bed and sleep a week if he can; this is the only true recuperation of brain power; the only actual renewal of brain force; because, during sleep the brain is in a sense of rest, in a condition to receive and appropriate particles of nutriment from the blood which take the place of those which have been consumed in previous labor, since the very act of thinking consumes, burns up solid particles, as every turn of the wheel or screw of the splendid steamer is the result of consumption by the fire of the fuel in the furnace. The supply of consumed brain substance can only be had from the nutrient particles in the blood which were obtained from the food previously, and the brain is so constituted that it can best receive and appropriate to itself those nutrient particles during the state of rest, quiet and stillness of sleep.

CHLOROFORM often removes grease or paint from clothing when benzine or bisulphide of carbon fails to do it.

take this opportunity of directing the attention of the community at large, and every person in particular, to their recently replenished stock of

HARDWARE.

They studiously avoided investing during the high prices, and patiently waited the falling out of the bottom before attempting to refill their shelves, and now that things have been reduced to old time prices, as near as possible, they have invested largely and are prepared to guarantee to their friends and customers as low prices as any market outside the cities. They especially invite the attention of mechanics, farmers and builders. Our stock is complete and none need fear meeting with disappointment in enquiring for anything in our line.

We have the agency of the Willcox & Gibbs and would respectfully ask all those in want of a Machine, to examine the Willcox & Gibbs' before purchasing.

All orders promptly attended to, and good delivered to all parts of the town free of charge.

Agricultural Implements, &c.

IMPLEMENTS FOR HARVEST!

We offer to Farmers for the coming season the following well-known and popular Farming Implements, along with other articles needed by all farmers which is now generally admitted to be the simplest, most complete and efficient single Mowing Machine in the country. We sold several of these Mowers last season and they gave perfect satisfaction. Price, $100.

THE NOVELTY HAY RAKE, worked either by hand or on the self-acting principle. The reputation of this Rake is well established. Every farmer who is not already supplied, should buy a Novelty Hay Rake.

THE ORIGINAL AND IMPROVED

with improved Grapple, Pulley, &c. This Hay Fork, in connection with the grapple and pulley, is undoubtedly one of the most complete machines in the market for handling hay.

THE CUMBERLAND VALLEY

THRESHER AND SEPARATOR.

The improvements we have made in the construction of this Thresher since last season; warrant us in offering it to farmers as one of the best machines in the market. With the Horse Power which goes with this machine, four horses are calculated to do the work, where six and eight are required in many other machines. Compared with others, the price is so low that every thrifty farmer may readily become the owner for himself of a Cumberland Valley Thresher and Separator for permanent use on his barn floor. Farmers would do well to call and examine it.

THE CARLISLE CIDER MILL,

made at our establishment, has won the highest recommendations from all who have used it. It both grinds and crushes the apples. It therefore requires lighter pressure and produces the largest quantity of cider from the amount of apples put in. The WILLOUGHBY Patent is so well known to farmers in many parts of Pennsylvania, that we need not speak at any length of its merits. We now build it with or without Guano Attachment, and with the shovels so attached as to work in straight rank or zigzag whichever is preferred. The Gum Tubes are also put on by our new patent arrangement, which gives them greater flexibility and firmer attachment to the Drill. No good farmer can afford to do without the Willoughby Gum Spring Drill. We have always on hand a supply of

GUM SPRING GRAIN DRILL

FODDER CUTTERS,

Corn Shellers,

of all sizes, and a variety of other implements needed by farmers, at the lowest prices.
