HAVE YOU HEARD FROM NORTH CARO-

"Have you heard from Maine?" the gun of the campaign," which ended in the great victory of "Tippecance and," infortunately for the Whigs, "Tyler too." Maine in 1840 gave the keynote of the campaign and foretold that "little Van" was in the end to be "a usedup man," Then the Whigs sang: "Oh! have you heard the news from Main Maine, Maine! How it went, hell bent, for Governor Kent, And Tippecanoe,

"Have you heard from Maine?" was a terrible question for the Democrats of 1840; but no more terrible than is the question, "Have you heard from NORTH CAROLINA?" to the Radicals of 1872. They were so confident of carrying this State! They had all the Federal patronage, all the prestige of power, all the negroes in the State, and the money necessary, and why should not they carry North Carolina? Their Fresident had sent his Cabinet officers into the State to make speeches in behalf of the Radical ticket: their friends the carpet-baggers and scalawags, had made every arrangement for importing and colonizing negro voters from South Carolina and Virginia, and everything was supposed to be very lovely. But all these appliances of fraud, power and North State has redeemed herself from the rule of Radicalism and, like Maine in 1840, has given the keynote of the of Van Buren. The North Carolina election, and the letters of Sumner and Banks, all in one dose for Ulysses! But our Belshazzar the Government was made for his uses. and that the American people will continue him at the head of it indefinitely. But, dull and vain as he is, October's hunders will bring him to his senses, Indiana will tell the tale in October. after which Grant stock will fall to zero, and he, like Lucifer, will fall to rise departed, in the estimation of all who try to annoy and punish its people. are shrewd enough to see the tendency of Horace Greeley, for President of of the political tide. To such, North Carolina has foretold the doom of Grant. We see them on the street; gay, if Greeley men; gloomy, if Grant men-their countenances alone betraying their inward convictions. "Grant ceedings. Let there be a grand rally is gone!" said a Republican candidate for election, on Friday. Grant is gone, say we-gone "up in a balloon, boys!"

> Prince Fred-"our Fritz"-has returned from Europe, and we would advise Ulysses to call home his other son, and the Princess Nellie. Europe will understand North Carolina, and foresee the dethronement of their father in March. Let the children come home before the October storm, lest they find their royalty wrecked with their father's political fortunes. It was wise to send them over before the elections them away from Europe before any more are held. Setting suns are not sons of setting suns. It is gratifying to every American who properly respects his country to graced by the re-election of Grant .-Heaven knows it was quite a sufficient mortification for the country to have to endorse this man for a single term. It was the country's fault, it is true, but the country is very repentant and ashamed, and will never do so again.— She is giving us every possible assurance of her penitence and proper determination for the future, and we believe her sincere. North Carolina is a very encouraging token, and we take great pleasure in looking forward to Grant's departure from the White House, on the 4th of March next .--Never was a man more out of place than is he in that House, and never has a President left it under such a load of humiliation and public contempt as he will have to bear when he leaves it .-Let us rejoice that the White House will have a new tenant in the spring, and for some weeks to come let us ask ture, exempts from taxation for twenty our Republican friends, now and then. 'Have you heard from North Carolina?" but let us do it gently-" with malice toward none," lest we hurt their feelings. Some of them are very ten der on the subject, and get "mad" and

Radicals answer the question civilly,

Well, now, do "look out" neighbor, and see what you can see. The "Republican victory in North Carolina," has a queer look, has it not? The unanimous vote of the U.S. Senate; readers of the Herald can see and this would take place but for the from the above that its editor is fact that the majority in the Senate is nothing.

GEORGE WILKES, of the Spirit of the Times, made a bet of $10,000 with Tom Murphy, Grant's late favorite Collector of the Port of New York, that Greeley would be elected President, and anothwould be elected President, and another of $1,000 with Hugh Hastings, of the New York Commerciat, that the Radicals would be whipped in North Carolina.—Ezchange, July 28,

Well, Wilkes has won his last bet, and he will just as certainly win the first. 'Tom Murphy might as well shell out the $10,000 at once, and be done with it.

THE latest rumor is that Grant has announced himself in favor of Greeley. We can scarcely believe this. Certain POLITICAL LEVIES.

Now for the proof that we were right in our conclusions. The following appeared in the daily papers of Saturday last. Read it: THE DEPARTMENT CLERKS 'TO CON-TRIBUTE TO THE ELECTION FUND. Washington, August 1.—It appears that the WASHINGTON, August 1.—It appears that the upushess of lovying contributions for political supposes upon clorks employed in the several executive departments has been gold, on for some time. It appears that one Joe Dwyer, a uppervisor of internal revenue, has been entraised with the matter, and he has been contributed with the matter, and he has been busy in making ussessments against the clerk? In the departments and all others in governments and the contributed of the properties of the contributed of who live by his patronage, must come upromptly to the work and give a portion cheir salaries, &c.

There! Is this not evidence, strong as holy writ, that Grant is a dissembler and fraud? How his paid minions of noney ignominiously failed. The Old the Radical press eulogized him when he issued his order forbidding the blackmailing of his office-holders. It was "so magnanimous in him;" his orcampaign which will end in as com. | der was "almost in the words of the orplete a rout of Grant as did that of 1840 der Jefferson had issued," &c. But poor Grant, the gift-taker and sea-side loiterer, is not a Jefferson either in character, ability or truthfulness. > Grant, then, is not a truthful man. We have the testimony of President Johnson's entire cabinet, stamping him as a falsifier. We have testimony, too of three United States Senators that he attempted to bribe them to the support of his villainous St. Domingo job. GRANT'S ATTEMPT TO BRIBE SENA-TORS. speech, that the President had tried to patronage if he would support his pet Santo Domingo project, he startled the country somewhat, but touched that unctionrry in a very tender and sore place. The next meeting of the cabinet was principally devoted to a consideration of what it was best to do. Something must be done, that was certain. Gen. Grant authorized an explicit denial and challenge for proof, whereupon the ready and versatile German published a letter from Gen. Pleasan ton for a long time one of the President's family and trusted intimates. The letter justifies the Senator's statement in every particular, and adds that this is not the first instance in which Gen. Grant's recollection has proved at fault. The affair has had a damaging effect upon the fair-minded Republicans who care more for the country than for Gen. Grant, and would sooner see him defeated than have the nation suffer at his hands. But the unand most of them confess that the Grant favorable impressions were deepened by the prompt statement of other Senators that they were approached in the same way, and Gen. Grant went to the Capitol and personally sought to influence Senators by such considerations as he could personally present! Mr. Sumner was offered the mission to England if he would let the measure without the notice of his ever-vigilant eyes! A sadder revelation of executive unfitness and degeneracy has never been made. Every patriotic American will turn from the disclosure with pain. Instead of running him for reelection, he should be impeached by a > every honest man. THAT pink of Grantism, Mr. Secretary Delano, was one of the speakers selected to talk to the negroes of North Carolina and to instruct them how to vote. At Wilmington he commenced his speech in these words-"My fellow men, the first fact I shall tell you is that I am the cleverest fellow in the world." There is no descent here, for this is simply the natural language of the blackguard. A very proper person this Mr. Delano to grace the Grant Cabinet, and address the North Carolina negroes.

Hon. A. C. MULLIN, formerly member of the House of Representatives 'NOW BY ST. PAUL THE WORK OES BRAVELY ON,"

And now Sumner and Gen. Bank have espoused the cause of hones old "Did vou ever!" Head. Horace! Sumner's letter on onr first page. It is the greatest production of his life, and time. This Whig victory was the "first | positive instructions that in future no | will not fail to convince all sensible men that it is a duty they owe to their country to oppose the aspirations of the departments or others in the employ of | bold, bad man, Grant. It is a cool, sensible view of its promulgation as a fraud, a piece of the question before the people, and f deception, a blind and a lie. It was will do much to swell the tide that is setting in for the people's candidate Horace Greeley.

"The ball is rolling on;" the people have got their blood up, and are won derfully in earnast against the giftaker. The brains of the Republican party are at work for Greeley and Brown. Gov. Curtin, "the soldier's friend," will be home in a few weeks, to take the stump for Greeley. Indeed, we have nover seen such an uprising b the people, and it may happen that States in the Union. Now for a glarce at the field. The political situation of to-day is not the same as we may expect to find it in November. The state of parties at the beginning of a canvass is sometimes widely different from that at the end. The Liberal movement is young, but it is already a giant. The new party is a phenomenon. It grows like a gathering avalanche. It widers like a prarie fire. It swells like a mountain torrent. If its future progress shall continue at its past rate, the opposition will be swept from the field like dust or leaves or chaff before an autumnal gust. Even to-day it is a victory; what, then, will it be three mon the hence? According to the pres ent look out, Greeley is ahead of Grant three to one, and if the present uplieaval of the old order of things continues, (as it certainly will,) Grant will be utterly annihilated. On then, with the work, all men who love their country On, Stanley, on;" "charge, Chester, charge.''

SUMNER'S LETTER SUPPLIMENTED The Results of the War Must be Established by a Union of Men of All Parties. Boston, August 1,-The rumors of the defection of Gen. Banks from the support of Grant and Wilson are con-Boston, July 31.—Dear Sire, Lhave the honor to acknowledge by this note, in addition to our conversation to-day the receipt of your invitation to day, the receipt of your invitation to address the citizens of Lynn on Thursday morning in support of the reelection of. General Grant and the policy of his administration. No invitation could have greater weight with me from any part of the county nor from any present of the county part of the country, nor from any por-tion of my fellow citizens, and it gives me great pleasure to assure you that nothing could be added to your suggest tions as a representative of the citizens of Lynn to induce inc to accede to the request. Their kindness to me many vears since is a continuing life remembrance, and nothing would give me greater satisfaction than to renew the associations with them, but I regret to Grant will not carry more than four say that I am not in accord with them in regard to the Presidential canvass Against my wishes and my porsonal interests I am compelled to believe and to say that the perpetuation of the present policy of the Government is not for the advantage of the country and that it will not tend to establish its former good and prosperity nor to pro-mote the interests of any class of citizens. No personal feeling of any form or character enters into this judgment. It is in view of general principles and public interests alone that I am led to this conclusion. The uniting of the masses of the people of all parties, soctions and races in support of the grand results of the war is indispensible to the permanent establishment and gen-eral recognition of those results. It can be secured by no other means. We shall ail be forced to this conclusion sooner or later. This united action up-on this basis has been the hope of my life. I fervently desired it during the war and in the reconstruction of the state after the war. I believe it is now tendered in good faith in the nomina-tion of Mr. Greeley, and for one I can-not reject it. It was what I desired.—

Its consummation, although sudden and startling, does not alarm me. My and startling, does not alarm me. My duty to myself and my country require me to give him my support.
