rez. But revolutionary fires do not often go out when the flame dies down, and President Lerdo may find himself in a perfect blaze of civil war in less than three months. A DEMOCRATIC majority on joint ballott, in the North Carolina Legislature, gives them a United States Senator in place of John Pool, Radical .-This will be one pool dried up by the August drouth. THE Concord Patriot says that two snakes, about eight inches in length, recently issued from the mouth of a son of Mr. Frank Plummer, of Sandwich, New Hampshire, thirteen years old, who has had nearly three hundred fits a year for the last five years. The lad had suffered terribly, and has nearly last his mental powers.

NORTH CAROLINA-AGAIN.

Our Radical friends think they have the laugh on us because we placed our gay chanticleer over the North Carolina returns of the election last week, and ordered him to crow with all his might. "You crowed before you were out of the woods," they say, and then remind us that they have elected their Governor (Caldwell), by a thousand or so. We don't believe a word of it; on the contrary, we believe the Democratic candidate (the glorious Merriman), is elected by from three to five thousand majority. He was "counted out" four days after the election had been held by ballot-box stuffers in the pay of the Grant Ring. A number of these scoundrels have already been arrested, and ere long they will be safely housed in a penitentiary. The following despatches show the high-handed means used

Rest assured, friends of Reform, the Old Tar State is O.K. Merriman is elected by a decided majority, but, it may happen that he will not take his seat in the Executive chair until after the meeting of the Legislature, when the frauds of the conspirators will be unearthed and a certificate of election given him. The Grantites admit that the Democrats have carried all the other State officers-six in number-carried both branches of the Legislature made happy by the application of tar largely, thus securing us a U.S. Senator in the place of the infamous Pool.-Of the members of Congress we have > the skin of their teeth." Our little game chicken cock is al right, then. It has been some time since he had a good crow, and he had a right to "spread himself" last week, North Carolina is ours now, and in November will give 20,000 for honest Horace Greeley. Stick a pin there!

CONGRESS.—The Democratic County Convention of Perry having instructed for John A. Magee for Congress, the Democrats of York ratified the choice of Perry by instructing the Conferees THERE were 4,103 arrests made by representing that county to vote for the police in Philadelphia, during the Mr. Magee. This secures the nomination of Mr. Magee, as there is no other county to speak but Cumberland.

That Perry county might have presented a candidate for Congress who would have been more acceptable to Cumberland, is undoubtedly true. Mr. Magee's uncalled for and bitter assaults upon the Democrats of Cumberland two years ago, and his demand at that time that Cumberland, notwithstanding her right to the candidate for Congress, should not be permitted to name him, was an insult to our people which it is difficult to forget or overlook .-However, for ourself personally, we can overlook and forgive a great many things just now, when men of all shades of political opinion are clasping hands in an effort to rid the country of the Goths and Vandals who have usurped power and who are using the government to enrich themselves. Therefore, when the Congressional Conferees for the District shall have met and made selection of a candidate. the man named shall be our candidate, and receive our support.

That Long Branch Cottage. It is astonishing how rapidly the evi-English market, which is the first car- | dence accumulates. It will be rememgo of this kind sent from the United | bered that a short time since Grant's bosom friend, ex-Collector Tom Murphy, published a letter in which he denied that he had anything to do with the purchase and presentation to President Grant of that Long Branch cottage where G. and M. do now periodically enjoy social reunions. Now comes Mr. A. T. Stewart, the great dry-goods merchant, and affirms "that the subscription paper for a fund to buy a Long Branch cottage, to be presented to President Grant, was given to him for a subscription of $5,000, to complete the full amount. On this paper were the names of Thomas Murphy, Grant's and change of political opinions. George W. Childs, Adolph Borie and three or four more, for $5,000 each. Mr. Stewart says he declined to sign. All of which transpired after Grant became President and before the delectable Murphy was appointed Collector. The. nvestment was an excellent one for Murphy, netting him not less than half a million, and probably much GRANT'S NEW ALLIES.-The Radicals rejoice over the fact that a few notorious men heretofore dead weights upon the Democratic party, avow their intention to support Grant. Who are tentional on the part of those in authey? Henry A. Wise, who hung old thority, what else could we expect John Brown; Robert Toombs, who, as when the President and his entire Cab-$1,000,000. Pillow, a rebel General sharpers, and is going to the description entire kits of tools. Six hundred work. Thom the Radicals charged with the rail-road speed.

Next to the defeat of John Pool-the head and front of Radicalism in North Carolina—for the United States Senate that of Thomas Settle for the House of Representatives, is peculiarly gratifying. They are both "scallawags" or renegade North Carolinians, who sold their birthright for a mess of pottage, and then instigated all the bitter perse cution with which that State has been visited. Settle was a swift witness before the Kuxlux committee, and his testimony was not published before he was appointed Minister to Peru, in reward for that service. After a few months' residence, by which his pay for a year-$10,000-was drawn, he returned home and became one of the peculiar pets of the White House. It was mainly through the persons efforts of Gen. Grant, that Settle was made President of the Philadelphia Convention, and that selection looked to still higher advancement, in the event of success, which may now be candidate of all others in North Carolina, upon whom the Administration lavished its favors and patronage. An immense amount of money was raised and thrown into that district, of which he personally was the chief distributor Numbers of deputy marshals and reve nue officers, were especially appointed to aid in his election. In spite of all these efforts and advantages, he is ignoit with great satisfaction. His competitor, Mr. Leach, is chosen by a decided majority to represent the district. Settle, like Holden, Pool, and that tribe of reckless agitators, was a rank ecessionist, and served as a captain and major in the Confederate service, without winning the least distinction as a soldier. In fact, he was not ambitious of such laurels, and retired from the scene of danger, to emerge again as soon as the tide turned, a convert to the victorious side. He had not preached Holden had for twenty years, but he was prompt to join him, who, after misleading the youth of North Carolina with his fire-eating harangues and editorial fulminations, was among the first to desert them, and then for pay to persecute the misguided followers of his own teachings. There is not a chapter in the history of the civil war, sad as every page of it is, that is darkened by more revolting treachery and baseness than this one in which Holden and his corrupt crew figure as the chief actors in the scheme of reconstruction, and as the vindictive tyrants who were placed in absolute power, to punish and proscribe the young men whom they had led into pernicious courses.

The Great Uprising. The noblest and grandest-step ever taken by any political party in our day was the action of the Democracy in National Convention at Baltimore. It was not, as the organs of the Brass Collar party assert, a surrender of fundamental principle, but unqualified obedience to the popular will by the representatives assembled as the supreme tribunal of the party. The nomnation of the man who was unques tionably the most formidable and per ssues, could only be brought about by a great and gratifying change of feeling on the part of the masses-a change from bitterness and hatred to friendship and sincere desire to assure for the future to ue fraternal relations and good will among all the people of ever section of the country, without regard to nativity, race or religious creed. The union of the Progressive Democracy with the Liberal Republicans, upon one broad and liberal platform and upon the same standard bearers means radical reform in every department of government. It means unqualified obedience to the letter and spirit of Constitution and law. It means justice, equality and the right of the people of every State to govern themselves. It means union, fraternity, peace and the prosperity and happiness of the people. It means that the pernicious despotism and corruption, and notorious dishonesty and incompetency that characterizes the present administration shall be crushed and swept out of sight forever.

Gen. Dix as a Time-Server. Dix adheres to Grant and the Radical papers are making a great hurrah over it. Why shouldn't Dix declare for a nepotist and gift-taker? He has been as arrant a place-seeker as the political records of the country can show. He opposes Greeley because he is " unstable and erratic." Well-a-day !-What is Dix, pray? When he started out he supported Adams and Clay.-When their fires burned low he warmed himself as a retainer at the camp fires of Jackson. He went into the Senate to fill the place of Silas Wright when Wright became Governor of New York. Then he ran for Governor of New York on the Free Soil ticket. In 1860 he was enthusiastic for Breckenrige, but when the war broke out he smelled place, position, and power on the Union side and went for it; and as a reward for his loyalty (!) was made a Major General. He turned from Lincoln to support M'Clellan in '64. In '65 he was devoted to Johnson, and in '68 was again a Radical. If any weathercock can beat this, we would like to see it. By all means, Brother Dix, give your testimony against time serving

AN OVER ISSUE.—The authorities in AN OVER ISSUE.—The authorities in the Treasury Department at Washington have been considerably astounded concerning an over issue of "Greenbacks." It seems that some time ago the printing department was required to furnish quite a large amount, and in getting the paper ready a mistake occurred involving an over issue of many million dollars. Of course the money being perfectly genuine is as good as being perfectly genuine is as good as any ever issued.— Washington paper.

We have no doubt this "over-isssue" was intentional, and is one of the modes adopted by the administration to raise "many millions of dollars" for political or speculative purposes. But if not in-
