Mass Meeting At Carlisle!

SATURDAY, OCT. 5, 1872. Let the friends of GREELEY BROWN and BUCKALEW bear in mind that a GRAND MASS MEET-Saturday Afternoon, Oct. 5. Distinguished speakers, (whose names will be announced as soon as heard from,) will be present to address the people. Rally all!

Another Big Steal by one of Grant's Office-Holders. James J. Johnson, the Revenue Stamp Clerk in the Sub-Treasury at New York. asked for u two weeks' leave of absence the latter part of last month. The Sub-Treasurer granted his request, when Johnson shook hands with the other clerks and started on his "pleasure tour." Not returning at the end of his two weeks, an investigation of his accounts took place, when it was discovered that he had swindled the government to the tune of $185,000 00. From the best information that could be obtained, it seems that Johnson has been using the government money for the last several years, with which to speculate in fancy stocks. Of late his speculations proved unfortunate, and the money he had stolen was swamped. In answer to a question of a reporter of ber Hartranft, for Governor of Pennthe N. Y. A WOLF IN SHEEP'S OLOTHING.

A "tramp," who was advertised on the bills as "General Hancock," addressed a motley Grant-Hartranft meet ing at our court-house on Thursday evening. The meeting was a very slim affair, and those present hung their heads in shame. By advertising him as "Gen. Hancock," the Radical supposed they could impose upon the people and create the impression that the distinguished soldier, Major General Hanock, was in Carlisle to talk up the imbecile Grant. The trick did not suc ceed, however, for it was soon discovered that the "Gen. Hancock" who was to speak, was a bummer unknown to anybody. None of our soldiers had ever heard of him, and if he was an off cer during the war, he must have been in the rebel army. He is, he informed us, a Maryland man, and this adds weight to the belief that he was one of Moseby's men during the rebellion. Be this as it may, certain it is he is neither man of intelligence or truth. The man who, in this enlightened age, speaks of such statesmen and scholars as Horace Greeley, Senators Trumbull, Schurz, Fenton and M'Clure as "traitors, sore-heads and skunks," is either a fool or a villain, or both; and yet these were the epithets applied to these hireling. No wonder that the few white men who were compelled to listen to the slanders of this mountebank, felt mortified and shamed. They had good reason to feel as they did, for they were convinced that a great mistake had been made when this so-called "General" was engaged to speak to the people of Carlisle.

This thing of denouncing every man who refuses to support Grant, the seaside loiterer and gift-receiver, for Presdent, and Hartranft, the Cameronring candidate for Governor, as traitors, is so infamously libellous and reckless, that decent men will not tolerate the slangwhanger who indulges in this kind of talk. Beast Ben. Butler, the spoon-thief and insulter of ladies, made a speech in Philadelphia a few evenings since, in which he said that the three and a-half or four million of Democrat in the United States "had all been traitors during the war-every man of them had aided the rebels in every manner he could!" The villain who could make an assertion like this should be strung up to a lamp post. It is no-torious that at least one half if not twothirds of the men who composed the fighting portion of our armies during the war were Democrats. Of the sacrifices made, in money, provisions and comforts, the Democrats of our country were most liberal and unselfish, for they gave from their own means, whilst the Radicals, generally speaking, gave of the means they had been permitted to steal from the people's treasury, And yet at this late day, this consummate humbug, coward and pilferer of spoons has the brazen effrontery to stigmatize the whole Democratic party, as well as the Liberal Republicans now acting with us, as having been traitors during the war! We are glad this Ben Butler is on the stump, for he will assist very much to swell the majority against the great imbecile, Grant, and his pet canlidate for Governor in this State—the BIRDS OF A FEATHER. ney of the Press is doing a work in exposing the villainies of Hartranft and Allen, the Ring candidates for Governor and Auditor General. He nsists upon it that these men must not only be defeated, but utterly squeiched. So far, Forney is right, and he is entitled to the thanks of all honest men for his bold denunciation of these two desperate "roosters." But, Forney is not consistent. He supports Grant for President, when it is notorious that Grant is a more corrupt man, if possible, than Hartranft. There never was a ruler read of who has abused the people's confidence as Grant has done. He has received gifts estimated at $300,000, and has dispensed his patronage and ING will be held in CARLISLE, on his offices to those from whom he received those gifts. . He has gambled in gold, and by official acts of his Secretary of the Treasury, could put gold up or down at pleasure, making his gambling operations a sure thing for himself. He has dabbled in Government contracts. and has permitted contractors to make enormous profits, so that he, a partner in the contracts, might have a big dividend as his share. He owns brown malignant falsehood. In 1871 the cost stone quarries, and compels govern ment contractors to use these stone, for was $1,631 00, and at no time exceeded which he is paid three prices. He has $2,000. Now tax payers I think I have appointed all his relatives and his wife's relatives to lucrative offices without regard to their fitness or honesty. The Grants and Dents now receive from the Government—so Sumner says—three hundred and sixty thousand dollars per annum in salaries, and twice as much more in stealings. He purchased large tracts of land in St. Domingo, and then attempted to force the United States to purchase the Island from the usurper. Baez, so that his lands might be enhanced in value. He is absent from Washington, attending horse-races and cock-fights, two-thirds of his time, and has no knowledge whatever of the public business. He has been convicted of falsehood on many occasions, and is a man of lowand beastly habits. Finally, his influence nominated the State-rob-ronage, Hartranft could not have musthe Radical Ring Convention. Sixteen to that Convention, and every mother's son of them voted for Hartranft's nominated Hartranft, and the Press knows at large, and if Hartranft and Allen are to be defeated at the October election, so should Albright, Scofield and Todd, for they were all nominated by the same influence, and all are engaged in the attempt to transfer the State funds to the keeping of a corrupt Ring, who will use the people's money for their own benefit. Let Democrats and Liberal Republicans think of these things, and stand up like a wall of brass against all the Ring nominees. We must elect our whole State ticket, Congressmen and all, and this we can do if every Reformer is at his post in the ischarge of an imperative duty.

TAX PAYERS, BEHOLD!

As the speakers on behalf of the Republican party are going about the county traducing voters into the belief that the finances of Cumberland county have been more economically handled during this year than any other, it becomes the duty of one thoroughly acquainted with the facts to put them before the tax payers in their truë light, and not endeavor to traduce them with wide speculations as has been done For the correctness of our figures w refer you to the records in the Commis sioners office. Tax payers, the Repub lican speakers and writers would have eminent men by this Grant-Hartranft you believe this county could be run almost without taxes. But is there an intelligent man among you, who being acquainted with the system of free government that believes this? No! You all know it requires a certain amount of money to keep up any system or character of government. Your townships require so much every year for road and school purposes. So it is with the county. Your Alms House Jail, and other public institutions necessary to the government of the county must be kept up. Can this be done without money? The conclusion is so olain it scarcely admits of notice. How is this money to be had? By taxation is your reply. Taxes are then levied to run your Courts, &c., just sufficient to pay expenses. All this being admitted by every intelligent man, let us see how this principle has been carried out during the last year, as it is in that period of time the Republicans boast of conomy. Under pure Democratic rule the actual debt of Cumberland county was reduced to ($9,041 08) eight thousand forty-one dollars and eight cents which was the total actual indebtedness of Cumberland county, January 1, 1872. Now I assert by the grand conomy practised by the boasting Republicans that that debt ($8,041 08) has peen increased to over ($25,000) twentyfive thousand dollars. This may astound you honest tax payers, but nevertheless it is true and here are the figures. Amount of Commissioners orders for $81,702 amount of Duplicate for 1872,

Thus you see the amount of taxes

$64,850 (

levied do not cover outlays, therefore your debt has been increased just so much more. This too Democrats for a political measure by your opponents. Can you experiment more? Now tax payers they boast of reducing the mill rate from five to four mills, thereby reducing taxes twenty per cent. Let me ask is it economy to reduce the mill rate and increase your indebtedness? You all know the taxes are the only revenue of the county, then how make up this deficiency. By loans at six per cent interest of course. In doing this tax payers they make you pay sixty times as much for interest as the reduction proportionally. Is this economy and good financiering. It is but just to say that our honorable Commissioner Mr. Deitz, strove against this infamous proceeding, but in vain. The Republican party demanded it, and they got it. Honest voters of Cumberland, in a few years, at this rate your county will be burdened with a heavy debt. Yet they have the audacity to ask you to prolong their rule, and this state of affairs by electing their county officers. Will you do it? Methiaks I hear the honest cry "no" from all parts of the county. Fellow citizens, we have been deceived, throw off the slimy serpent who dares to thrust the flaunting lie at you. They boast of reducing the expenses of Alms-House $\frac{1}{2}4,000 00. They say "we did it." Now it is an undefinable fact that the Directors of the ion proportionally. Is this economy niable fact that the Directors of the Poor are unanimously Democratic, and they did it. This you see is poor argument for them, and it is a lamentable fact, that they do steal Democratic honors. Again they boast of reducing the cost of collection of taxes from $5,of collection of taxes by the Treasurer exposed their method of deceiving you, by their continued howling corruption. in the Commissioners office, I again say there is no corruption, and that the financial condition of Cumberland un • der Democratic rule is better than any county in this Commonwealth. Your debt has been increased to $25,000 in one year under Republican influence. Can you experiment longer? No! Tax payers, vote for Samuel Ernst, and economy will again reign supreme, and your debt wiped out. Elect Mr. Ernst,

GOVERNOR HOFFMAN.

GREELEY AT PITTSBURG.

This distinguished statesman and accomplished orator will address the citizens of Harrisburg on political issues on Friday evening, the 27th instant, in the court house. Governor Hoffman is a statesman of whom the people, of the Empire state are justly proud. In gifts of oratory be has few equals in the country, and the ability and wisdom with which he directed the government of New York are acknowledged everywhere. A short time ago Governor Goary made a speech in the court house. Those who heard that speech, with its silly abuse and misrepresentation of a large portion of his fellow citizens, will have an opportunity of contrasting him with the statesman who occupies the chair of chief magistrate of New York. It is with feelings of humiliation that we invite the comparison, but with the confident assurance that in the election of Charles R. Buckaiew, Pennsylvania's atandard of qualifications for the office of SARATOGA. September 20.—My Dear ir: Your favor of the 11th inst. insperming me of my nomination by the Sir. Your favor of the Ith Inst. Informing me of my nomination by the liberal republican state committee as a candidate for delegate at large to the constitutional convention, and inclosing an address to the people of the state, recommending my election, came duly to hand, but extreme illness prevented my reading the letter or considering the subject until now. I am still quite feeble, and unable to write without an amanuensis; but the near approach of the election, and the gravity of the issues immediately affecting the henor and prosperity of Pennsylvania to be decided in October, compel me to answer when my rest should be unbroken. The nomination rade by so many of the purest and best of the old representative republicans of the state, and presented to the people upon grounds which stand out in such brave contrast with the demoralized political management now so sadly prevalent, is an appeal that I cannot refuse to respect. I therefore accept the nomination, and if it shall be ratified by the people and health permits I will discharge its duties with fidelity. I had confidently expected immediately upon my return home to familiarize myself with the details of what I well understood in all general aspects touching the misrule of our commonwealth under its present political control, and to speak my convictions at the earliest possible moment. I cannot ever be indifferent in a Presidential contest. I feel that the regeneration of my native state in the October election was of paramount interest to the people in whose happiness and greatness I am enlisted by every consideration of gratitude and patriotiem.

The bad rule that has wholly compassed the channels of political edunistraberal republican state committee consideration of gratitude and patriotism.

The bad rule that has wholly compassed the channels of political administrative authority in Penneylvania is not or recent creation. It was the tireless but impotent power that confronted the action of the government, styte and national, during the dark days of the civil war, and steadily struggled to gather advancement and gain from the bitter sorrows of the people. Six years ago it attained control in our State; how it was achieved is remembered in humiliation by all; why it was sought and won our subsetive and other important state officials.—
If Mr. Buckalew shall be defeated and a new lease of authority thus conferred upon the despotic control that has long misruled the commonwealth, it will be marvelous indeed if a convention chosen in the partisan strife of a national contest, can afford any substantial relief or protection to the people. If Pennsylvania is to be restored to purity, the government as well as the convention must harmonize fully and earnestly in the work of regeneration. Mr. Buckalew's confessed integrity and consistent devotion to reform during many years of official service gives the best possible guarantees of honest administration and of complete restofiation from corrupt or reckless authority, and his election seems to be denianded by every consideration of individual manhood and of fidelity to the honor and advancement of the State. If, as is claimed by the desperate leaders of Pennsylvania, to renegade our State in October. will effect the national contest, the cause thus to be endangered must be wanting in most essential attributes of popular confidence.

Actuated solely by a sense of duty to a people whose devotion in times past fur-nishes the most grateful memories of my life, I shall vote in October for honest life, I shall vote in October for honest government in our commonwealth, and meet the Presidential issue, when it comes before the people in accordance with my long settled convictions. I cannot consent to sacrifice a great contest for constitutional legislation, and administrative reform because a Presidental election is pending. To yield the question would give fresh victories for misrule and make the effort for just fundamental restraints, either measurably or wholly abortive. Very respectfully, your obodient servant, (Signed) A. G. CURTIN.

To Hon. A. K. M'Clure, Chairman of the Liberal Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania.

THE WEATHER .- Old Probabilities is no doubt a very fine institution in his way, but he has been lamentably deficient of late in his prognostications of the weather. We shall not point out his defects further than to make the above general assertion. A few days ago, the thermometer ran down to 52. (which is 8 degress below temperate.) and necessitated a return to artificial coal and stoves. Presto! The scene shifts, and the treacherous mercury bounds up to 90, in the shade.

SENATOR WILSON said in a speech "I would sink a hundred million of dollars to build the road (the Union Pacific). Mobilier stock. "He has not a single OMEGA. | stain on his character."

these gentlemen, who met here, "All this is a mockery and fraud. You do not mean anything by it, and the cry goes on, rebels and traitors, denunciation and proacription, the same as ever." Four years ago, in the Republican National Convention, it was declared that this proscription would speedily cease. Four years have passed, and still it is maintained.

There are this day thousands of people of Arkansas alone, probably the most intelligent and responsible people of that State, forbidden to exercise the right of suffrage—forbidden exclusively by the party that meets here and shouts for Grant and Wilson. Nobody else asks for proscription but them. No other party requires that any human being shall stand proscribed on our soil for a rebellion that ceased seven and a half years ago, no party, no man of any party but this, the very party that held a great military parade this week in order to further separate and divide the hearts of the American people from each other. They hold essential to their triumph, that hatred should continue, and distrust, suspicion and alienation should continue.

Do what you will, do what you may, they are determined not to be satisfied. Is it not enough that those who fought against the Union should be proscribed? Those who stood for it are continually denounced if we do not happen to agree with others in our politics. Here stands one who is charged by them with being a secessionist. Could that be true?

Took facts in the face. When Lincoln a secessionist. Could that be true? Look facts in the face. When Lincoin had been elected, and this conspiracy for secession began to advocate itself, we Republicans were told by our own men, and told still more by those out of the circle, you must back out of your Republicanism; you must surrender your opposition to the extension of slavery, or consent to a great civil war.

This, they said, was the only alternative. Bloodshed and devastation over the whole country, you shall surrender before there had been any clash of arms, the people of the South, any more than the people in the North, desired disunion.

Mr. Greeley here spoke in complimentary terms of the prosperity and growth of Pittsburg, and closed by asking the people to clasp the hand held out by the Southern bretheren, and forget that they had been enemies.
