Mass Meeting!

AT CARLISLE, OCT. 3 AT MECHANICSBURG, OCTOBER 4. NEWVILLE, OCT. 5,

Owing to reports about sickness in Carlise, and in compliance with suggestions from leading men from the various townships, the proposed Mass Meeting advertised to be held in Carlisle on Saturday afternoon, October 5, has been indefinitely postponed, and in its stead an evening Mass Meeting will be held in the Court-house, Carlisle, on Thursday evening, October 3. There will also be a meeting of Dem. ocrats and Liberals at Mechanicsburg. on Friday evening, October 4. Also, at Newville, on Saturday evening, October 5.

All these meetings will be addressed by able speakers from abroad, and it is expected that all will be well attended. Friends of Reform! turn out, and assist to rescue our State from the hands of those who practice "addition, division and silence."

SAM'L N. EMINGER, Chairman Co. Com.

Silver Spring Awake!

A meeting of the Democrats and Liberal Republicans will be held at Leidig's tavern, on Wednesday evening, October 2, to be addressed by several able speakers.

A Vote for Bomberger for the Legislature, is a vote for Cameron for United States Senator.

The Radicals are looking very blue; they wilt before the frosts of October. All that is neceseary now is for the Democrats to turn out on NEXT TUESDAY.

Hon, S. S. Cox

is less troubled with Gen. Grant's taking of gifts than with the consideration for which he took them. This is just the point where the trouble comes in.

The "Press" Says that the speech of the Hon. Charles R. Buckalew, at Lancaster, on the evening of the 26th instant, is the ablest ever delivered in the State, and was delivered without notes.

Hon. George W. Cass late President of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, has been elevated to the Presidency of the Northern Pacific Railroad, a post of great re- and honest Republicans, turn out to a sponsibility and labor.

The County Ticket.

It should be the object of every Dem ocrat in the county to use his best efforts to swell the majority for the County Ticket. That a desperate offort is to be made by the Radicals to defeat a portion of the Democratic ticket, is certainly true. Money has been sent here to be used against our candidate for Assembly, Mr. Williams, It s well known where this money comes rom. Simon Cameron is a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate, and hence his anxiety to have a majority of his tools in the Legislature Democrats, see to it that the County Ticket receives the full party vote. We nust not permit a man to be defeated. Be at work, then, Democrats, for the tate, County and District, tickets. , A nagnificent opportunity is offered you to rescue Pennsylvania from the clutches of the Rings that have ruled her to her ruin. The candidates of the Rings, Hartranft and Allen, are unpopular with their party and odfous to the people! They are charged with corruption and unfitness by the leading Republican presses of the State, and the charge sustained by sworn testimony. Thousands of Republicans refuse to support them. Thousands of the most tendfast Republicans will vote for Buckslew. Here, then, is your opportunity! Awake! arise! shake off your while the noble Buckslew at its head. eccives the full vote of the county.

Organize, then! Bring out your neighbors and friends! We must; WE will fail in this crisis? 🤄

Tun Radical supporters of the infanous Hartranft—most of them negroes held a meeting at Mount Holly on Friday evening last, at which Todd indulged in one of his refined and characteristic speeches. He called the Democrats horse-thieves. Mr. Buckalew a Greeley "miserable demagogues." and Greeley himself an old fool. Beautiful anguage, this, to be used by a man who aspires to be Congressman at large, man who defends Hartranft is defending a State robber, and he must necessarily deal in slang, vituperation and lies. Most of Mr. Todd's audience, as we have said, were negroes, and he may have been under the impression that low language was necessary. We have permitted Mr. Todd to escape. this fall without saying an unkind word concerning him, but if he considers it his province to defend a notorious and convicted corruptionist, and at the same time asperse the characters of the purest men in the State, we will conider it our duty to hurl back his vile he must mend his manners or we will be compelled to perform a disagreeable duty. "A word to the wise."

Hartranft and Allen Doomed.

The Philadelphia Press says: Nobody now duate that Hartranft and Allen are destined to an overwhelming defeat. If they could be elected in spite of their proved unfitness for any position of power or trust, the friends of honest government might as well surrender all hopes of reform. Who that knows the people of Penn sylvania can doubt for a moment the ntire truthfulness of the prediction made by the Press. When the Treasury Ring determined to put their own pliant tool in the gubernatorial chair of this great Commonwealth, they misook the temper of its people. Pennylvania has already been sufficiently lisgraced by the rascalities of those who follow at the heels of Simon Cameron. The day of redemption draws nigh. All that is needed to insure the over vhelming defeat of Hartranft and Alen is a full poll of the Democratic vote. Let every voter be brought to the polls on TUESDAY, and the telegraphic wires will record the verdict of the people against the Treasury Ring, in a majority ranging from twellty to forty thousand. All that is needed to secure that result is active and well-directed effort during the few days that are left to work. Let every Democrat tackle on his armor and join the march to GRANT, the "sea-side loiterer," as Sumner calls him, was in Philadelphia on Thursday evening. Of course his keeper, "Gen. Horace Porter," was with him. Grant was serenaded by his office-holders, and then was introduced to the collar men by Simon Cameron! Both Grant and Cameron made speeches-the speech of the first being three and a-half lines in length, and that of the latter four full lines. Grant told two falsehoods and Cameron three. What beauties are they-Grant and great country.

Look Out, Democrats!

All the efforts of the Radicals are beng concentrated upon Pennsylvania for October, knowing if they lose the State all is lost. Every desperate appliance. of modern political warfare will be employed; still we believe the corrupt candidate of the Treasury Ring will be defeated. Let the Democracy organize thoroughly, and see that every vote of the party is polled in October, for as a Radical orator said last week, "one vote in October is worth five in November."

Every Democrat, and every other man, who wishes to see once more the good old days of HONEST government in Pennsylvania, should be at the polls NEXT TUESDAY, working for the success of that pure states

Gov. Curtin---His Defamers. Governor Curtin's letter, published our last, in which he took occasion to advocate the election of Mr. Bucks ew, has utterly demoralized the State robbers who forced the nomination of Hartranft against the appeals and protests of honest Republicans. Hart ranft's defeat was a foregone conclusion weeks ago, but now that Curtin, the most popular leader in the Republican ranks has espoused the cause of the eople, the conspirators are struct umb with alarm, and look at each other in sullen and mute astonishment Curtin has been their idol, and they feel that when he appeals to the people to defeat the Ring, that it means something. Some of the more reckless of them-those who have been promised place and emoluments by Grant and Cameron—are attempting to break the force of Curtin's letter by assailing its distinguished author, and applying to him abusive epithets. But these menials and place-seekers are only heaping coals upon their own heads, for the thieves, the closer will honest men cling to him. He made the broad avowal crats horse-thieves. Mr. Buckalew a that Geary had been "counted in" as traitor, the Republicans who supported Governor, three years ago, after he had been defeated by thousands, and that this was the work of an infamous, thieving Ring, with Cameron at its head! He denounced Hartranft as " a But, then, it must be remembered that bad man—a man who had abused his trust, and who had used the public funds for his own private purposes, He appealed to his old friends to join him in the effort he was making to crush the most infamous conspiracy that ever existed in our State. Curtis intends to speak at different points. The "war Governor" is on the war path.

Why Not Vote for a man who is in favor of protecting slanders. We dislike personalities, but your interests, capaable of sympathizing we will tell Mr. Todd once for all, that with the laborer, the producer, the nechanic. Yote for C. R. BUCKALEW for Governor, for HORACE GREELEY for President and the whole Democratic and Liberal Republican ticket, and you will support men and measures to support your nighest good.

Embezzlement is simply using public money. Hartrauft and Mackey, as Auditor Genera and State Treasurer, stand morally con victed of having speculated in stocks and loaned out for profit the money in the treasury of the Commonwealth.

A. Leo Knott, Esq., of Baltimore, will be one of the speakers at the Democratic and Liberal Republican Mass Meeting at the Court louse, Carlisle, this evening—Thursday October 3. He is a gentleman of grea power, and all who hear him will be edified. Turn out, everybody!

Vote for that Honest Statesman, Buckalew.

The Democraters. and Liberal Republicans of Allegheny county have "clasped hands," and have placed in nomination a mixed ticket of great strength. Jas. P. Barr, of the Pittsburgh Post, is the nominee in the first district for Legislature.

The "New Dominion" is an able and handsome campaign pa per published at Parkersburg, W. Va. It says the people of that State will give 20,000 majority in November against the party which has stolen $200,000,000 from the Southern people.

The Friends of the State Robber, Hartranft!

Held their mass meeting in this place of Tuesday evening, on which occasion a onsiderable amount of oil, was consum ed, and the torchlight display was unuspally fine. A friend who counted the men procession puts the number down at twelve hundred and fifty, of which about granted at the earnest solicitation of 1,000 were Cameron's tools from Harris-burg, who had been sent berefor the ore-cars of the Northern Central R. R., the very eve of that election, when it is free of charge. Had it not been for these etrangers, the whole meeting would have been a failure. The speakers for the occasion were Scofield and Albright, two of the Ring candidates for Congress men at large, and another fellow named Wilson, who hails, we learn, from Philadelphia. His speech consisted of two stories and fifteen lies, and was perfect abortion. But the speeches of Scoffeld and Albright were no better. Both attempted—but in vain—to con vince the people that Hartranft had a perfect right to use the public money for speculative purposes, and that the more Curtin is abused by hirelings and Ring was privileged to rob with impunity. During the delivery of these three wretched speeches- the weakest productions it has ever been our misfor tune to listen to—not a single cheer, not single huzza went up.

The speakers rose and sat down it perfect silence, and really we pitied them, for they must have been fully convinced that the soil of old Mother Cumberland was not the kind of soil for them to stand upon. The meeting, taking it all in all, was, indeed, a most humiliating and disgrace-ful failure, and but for the Harrisburgers who were conveyed here free of charge, the procession would have also proved a

This meeting will do us good; it will ncrease Buckalews's majority, for our people are of the opinion that they know how to vote without the dictation of men from Dauphin county, who come here at the bidding of the ring and at the expense, not of Cameron, but at the expense of the public treasury. Democrats and Liberal Republicans resent this insult; turn out to a man on TUESDAY NEXT, and roll up a majority for the people's candidate, "honest Charley Buckslew!!

Importing Negroes! The Harrisburg Patriot of Friday last ontains a list of the names of another batch of imported negroes from the Mt Pleasant district in Maryland. Oh those honest Republicans ! They wouldn't commit frauds on the ballot box, oh, no. Look out for these fellows, and if they attempt to vote, ar rest them on the spot. It is about time that the people of Pennsylvania should do their own voting, without any assistance from the negroes of Maryland nd Virginia:

Look out for frauds! The Credit Mobiler of America is the last bombshell that has broken in the Grant camp. And it fills the Grant leaders with consternation From the statements made under oath it is plain that Mr. Oakes Ames has carried out a vast scheme of bribery crediting Members of Congress with shares in the concern and paying them enormous dividends for using their influence in behalf of a gigantic piece of jobbery, to call the thing by the mildest ossible name.

> A CHANCE TO MAKE THREE THOU-SAND VOTES FOR HARTRANFT.

Now that Gov. Geary has pardoned Yerkes and Marcer, and thus made two more votes for Hartranft, had he not hetter issue a free pardon to every pen itentiary and jail bird in the State? There are some three thousand men in the various prisons of our State. Let Geary pardon them, and he will make just that many votes for the State robber, Hartranft.

That Little Arrangement.

Galena-Jones, who gave Gen., Grant the deed of a valuable property for one dollar, and immediately received an appointment to a foreign mission, was, lso a brother-in-law, but of Minister Washburne, whom the President complimented with the Premiership. So it would seem that the brother in-law disease is contagious, and to sustain that relationship to any of the President's favorites is to catch an office.

The Grant Convention in Kansas refused to rebuke veniality and corruption, out of regard to the feelings of Senator Pomeroy and the President. Such consideration deserves mention. It shows that there are men who will not go back on the man who ought them:

BROTHER-IN-LAW CASEY is to remain as Collector at New Or leans. The family office holders must not be interfered with.

You would think that queer. Yes, but if I were to accept that horse you would think that queer; but if I were to appoint that man to a judgeship, you would think that was business from the beginning. Now, suppose that was to occur four times in my office, how many votes do you think I'would get in Jeffersonville after having received those gifts and rewarded the donors?"

Mr. Buckalew, in one of his late speeches, said that in the event of his election as Governor, he would act for the people and not for a party; that the times required more patriotism, honesty and attention to the people's wants, and less partisan-

"The desperate scheme of the treasur ring to procure a pardon for Yerkes conditional on a denial of his affidavit conditional on a denial of his affidavit was consummated on Friday, and Yerkes with his confederate, Marcer, was released from the peatlentlary. For months the most strenuous efforts had been made to procure the pardon of Yerkes, but nothing could be done in his behalf without a withdrawal of this crushing affidavit—a fact which demonstrates with startling clearness the hold which the Ring possesses on Governor Geary. On Thursday last Cameron, Hartranft, Mackey, Erret, Swope and other members of the Ring were gathered in Philadelphia. The occasion was deemed of such importance that Grant's presence was also obtained. On the next day Swope was sent to On the next day Swope was sent to Harrisburg, and returned at once with the governor's private secretary and the pardons. Yerkes first act as a pardoned convict is to retract the affidavit made perfore the walls of the penitentiary closed on him. That this recantation the prison and as a condition of pardon, there is not a doubt. All the facts, the partisan interest involved, the approaching election, the parties concerned, unmistakably betray the nature of this plot. What is most humility and disrraceful is that the principle tool of his conspiracy is the Governor of the commonwealth.

Commonwealth.

Against the sworn circumstantial statement of Yerkes, showing the nature of Hartranft's transactions with the public money, appears his simple card denying the genuineness of the affidavit. Having published his card he retires with a hope that he will not again be drawn from the retirement which he seeks. But this hope will be a vain one. The affidavit is most singularly corroborated in its most important particular by the testimony of E. M. Lewis, president of the Farmer's and Mechanics' Bank, concerning the date of the purchase of bonds for the sinking fund. Against this his statement will have no weight, above all when the manner in which it was wronched from him isgiven to the public. It is not strange that Yerkes did not dare to fortify this statement with an affidavit. The conspirators could not push him to the point of perjury, and were compelled, in the exigencies of the case, to accept his simple denial in return for a pardon."
