21 May-1y https://doi.org/10.1003/10.10 The Democratic Vote Coming Out-Republicans Changing to Greeley.

The Cincinnati Enquirer, of October 17, asks if there is any one who does not elleve that Horace Greeley will receive from the Republican party ten more votes in every township in Ohio than the Democratic Auditor General Wiley did for Secretary of State from that party? It is bot reasonable to so suppose? As there are two thousand townships, this would make a change of twenty thousand, which, taken from Wikoff, the Republican Secretary of State, and aded on to Greeley, would give us an adcantage of 40,000 over the October election. We may rely upon it that the Republican vote for Greeley in November is goling to be far heavier than it was for General Wiley in October. We hear on every hand of men who voted for the Republican State ticket now announcing that they will vote for Greeley. But says an objector, we don't doubt that dreeley will gain largely on Wiley from the Republicans, but won't he lose from the Democratic side of the house? We do not believe he will. There is among the rank and file of the Democracy the strongest fear that our Government will be destroyed if Grant is re-elected and the present reign of tyranny and corrup tion is continued for four years more. In addition, there is an aversion and dislike to Grant personally among the Democrats which excels their hostility to almost any other man in the country.-Morton, Simon Cameron and Butler are pot more generally hated and depised. No Democrat is going to vote or Grant. Democrats are loyal to their ganization, and, as it has pronounced for Mr. Greeley, and as he is Grant's only competitor, they will support him vith unanimity. The Presidential vote will bring thousands of Democrats out who have not been out since 1868. So. increased Republican vote for Mr. Greeley, a much larger Democratic vote than was thrown in October. If there are any Democrats so foolish as to refuse to support Mr. Greeley, they absenteed themelves in October in order to do him an injury. VOL 59-NO. 21.

Correspondence of the Washington Patria.) PHILADELPHIA, October 9, 1872.—The result of the election has probably been a surprise to you almost as great as to those here who thought themselves well posted. But the result can be easily explained by those who were here and watched the voting.

Your correspondent, during the day, visited the precincts of the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Fourteenth and Fifteenth wards, and in nearly every one of these, at two o'clock.

BUCKALEW HAD RUN LARGELY AHEAD badly acratched by his own party. In the Eleventh ward a gang of twenty-four New York repeaters visited precinct after precinct and voted on the names of Democrats whose votes had not been polled. In many cases the Democratic canvassers challenged them, but were compelled to allow their votes to go in under threats of arrest and closing of the polls by the nolice.

The Fourth ward, a Democratic stronghold, was a mere market place, the Republicans openly offering from five to fifteen dollars for a vote: the result is seen in the Democratic majority being only 800, when it should have been at least 2,000. It was, and now is, openly charged that ALDERMAN MCMULLIN AND SAM'L JOSEPHS had received a large sum, and the pardon of one of their gang, named Bob Lister, as, a consideration for the sale of their men to the Republicans. M'Mullin was: attacked on the street, and barely escaped by the aid of those whom he paid to vote the Republican ticket. Josephs nominated on the Democratic ticket, was, at the last moment, placed on the Republican ticket, and received the votes of that party and an election to the legislature as a consideration for his services. And this, after every Republican pape n' Philadelphia had over and over agair lenounced him as a rascal. So in suother case. Captain Bach, an honest Re bublican, was forced off the ticket, and Democrat, John Welch, placed on it.

Welch was elected by a large majority. The law makes it compulsory upo the election officers to read the vote every hour. Not forty preclucts in the city did: this, and after two o'clock not as could be told.

A Ventriloquist's Joke-

We recently took a walk on to the wharf with a friend who is a good ventriloquist.

The hands of one of our steamers were engaged in rolling off a cask, when to the consternation and surprise of the persons engaged in performing that operation, a voice was heard within the cask.

"Roll it easy, these plaguey nails hurt. I'd rather pay my passage than stand all this." Holding up their hands, their visuals expanding to the size of two saucers. he two laborers exclaimed:

. "That beats the dickens?" The mate coming up at this moment, menced cursing them for their dilatoriness, when from within the cask the voice came forth:

"You're nobody; let me out of this cask."

"What's that?" said the mate. "Why, it's me," said the voice; "I want to get out; I won't stand this any longer."

Up end the cask," said the mate. "Oh, don't! You'll kill me," said the voice. "Oh, how these nails prick, Look out-don't!" again said the casedup individual, as the men were turning it over.

'Cooper," said the mate, "head that cask and take out that man," ask and take out that man,?

As the adze sundered the hoops, and the head was coming out, the voice again broke forth:

Be easy now; is there any one about? don't want to be caught."
Quite a crowd had, now gathered around the seen of action, when a loud gutteral laugh broke forth which made our hair stand on end, and the cask was

"What does it mean," says one. "It beats my time," said the mate.
We enjoyed the joke too well to blow" as we walked off arm in arm with the ventriloquist and magician.

AMERICAN MECHANICS.

At this moment Birmingham is losing its old market. A few years ago it used to supply the United States largely with edged tools, farm implements and various ten of them did it. At that time, so far, smaller wares. It does so no longer; nor is the cause to be sought merely in the American' tariff. It is found that the manufacturers of America actually supersede us, not only in their own, but in . foreign markets and in our own colonies. and the Birmingham chamber has the sagacity to discover, and the courage to declare, that this is owing to the engarty ority of American goods. High as are the wages of, and English artisan, those of an American artisan are higher still, and yet the manufacturers of the United States can import from and work up the metal by highly paid labo and beat us out of the market after all with the manufactured articles. How is that to be explained?

The Americans succeed in supplanting us by novelty of construction and excellence of make. They do not attempt to undersell us in the mere matter of 'price.' Our goods may still be the cheapest; but they are no longer the best, and in the country where an axe, for instance, is an indispensable implement, the best article is the cheapest, whatever it may cost. Settlers and emigrants soon find this out. and they have found it out to the prejudice of Birmingham trade.-London! Times.
