THE soft weather continues, and the snow is disappearing rapidly.

SEVERAL bummers (male and female,) were arrested by our police, on Tuesday, for improper conduct on the street, and remanded to jail.

W. P. STUART, of South Middleton twp., will sell at his residence, Thursday, Jan. 23d, 2 extra fresh cows, Heifer, 2 year colt, good family carriage, buggy, sleighs, harness, Household and Kitchen furniture. ts.

FIENDISH ACT.—The express train from Hagerstown, which is due in Shippensburg, at 1:37 P. M., was nearly wrecked at 12:45, on Friday, at a point between Chambersburg and Marion Station, about six miles south of Chambersburg. The scoundrels who attempted to injure the train—for the purpose of revenge, most likely—had placed a heavy oak rail in a cow hole, and left it stick up about four feet. The fog was dense at that point, but the engineer, Mr. John Roney, observed the "trap," and whistled "down brakes," and reversed his engine, avoided striking the object under full headway; but the rail, nevertheless, was dragged about 100 yards, and became entangled in the snow-plow. No delay was caused to the train—News.

A PLEASANT PARTY.—On Wednesday evening last, the sleighing being excellent, a number of gentlemen of our town, at the suggestion of our clever mercantile friend, L. T. Greenfield, got up a party, (about thirty in all,) to proceed to Mount Holly. About 6½ o'clock, therefore, four large sleighs halted in front of the VOLUNTEER office (our business room being open,) where the company had assembled. The company was composed of married and single gentlemen; and was, in all respects, a congenial and pleasant party. Arriving at Mullin's Hotel, Mt. Holly, dancing and games were at once resorted to, in order to put in the time and make all feel comfortable. At 11 o'clock supper was announced, and a better supper we never have seen spread outside our large cities. It was, indeed, most excellent, and highly creditable to the Messrs. Mullin. After having done ample justice to the sumptuous repast, short and appropriate speeches were made in the order we mention—by J. B. Bratton, Dr. Kieffer, Dr. Hall, Jos. Ritner, Esq., J. P. Hassler, George Zinn, J. C. Kirtslayer, (civil engineer,) Mr. M'Tague, of the H. & P. R. R., and N. B. Moore. At an early hour the company returned home, well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

"Carlisle Gentlemen's Gallantry."

Mr. Editor:—As a friend to the gentlemen of Carlisle, I reply to the article published in the Herald a week ago, under the above caption.

Firstly.—We will not admit that the young men of our town are a first-class imposition. The gentlemen this winter have manifested an exceedingly surprising amount of gallantry in behalf of our young ladies. It would be an utter impossibility for them to take us all out; so of course those bordering on the verge of "spinsterism" must relinquish their claim to the younger set, when, were it done in a friendly and generous manner, would be indicative of the old but thoughtful saying, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Secondly.—If they would retaliate for injuries of by-gone days, would it not be just? Do we not have a minute reminiscense of the past when our "College and Garrison" were in a flourishing condition? Ladies, if there is not a prevarication in the article, would not some be willing to say that we are receiving our just deserts."

Thirdly.—We go to our neighboring towns, there the gentlemen have always been treated with due appreciation, and, as a matter of course they must cheerfully endeavor to get up "hops, suppers and surprise parties" for the enjoyment of the ladies.

Another prominent feature is, that in our neighboring towns they do not exert themselves to keep up an aristocracy composed of a few families; then they all mingle and have a delightful time; but in Carlisle, if one person is invited to a party, whose grandfather was not just the ideal of the majority, then the party is broken up. Ladies do not reflect upon the gentlemen, for all this is cursed by your own insinuations. We have not got an aristocracy in America if some of us were to look back a century or two, we would bow our heads and remain silent.

We must give the young men a few encouraging words—the year (1872) you know was "leap year," so according to the meaning attached to it. The ladies were bound to furnish the refreshments at the party spoken of. The sleighing is excellent. When we pass along the street, do we not see many a happy couple, enjoying the pleasant afternoon by taking a sleigh-ride? Who takes them? Our gallant young gentlemen.

Gentlemen, do not think I am a "poor discousolate," but believe me, I am a "spinster," who is willing to resign her claim to the younger set, and feel perfectly reconciled to say "adieu" to the bachelors, and conclude to open an establishment called "Old Maid's Hall." Some day I may come out, but it is very doubtful, as I am becoming very feeble. Consequently, if you never see me, consider that this is written by a true friend, who is ever willing to defend you when you are unjustly blamed. X.

THIEF CAPTURED.—The Chambersburg Valley Spirit says: On Tuesday of last week a policeman arrived in our town from Harrisburg, in search of Frank Wilson, one of our African citizens, charged with having robbed a shoe store in that city. He succeeded in bagging his game somewhere on the outskirts of the town, and lodged him in our jail for safe keeping until he could be taken to Harrisburg the next day. A warrant having been issued for his arrest in this county, for stealing a wagon, about a year ago, our authorities refused to give him up, and the officer was compelled to go back without his man.

WE were surprised to learn, says the York Press, that there is a gentleman about thirty years of age, residing within six or seven miles of this borough, in Hellam township, that has never been inside of a church. Had not our informant been a gentleman of veracity, we could scarcely have believed that it was possible that there resided in that staid old township, such an unnatural being, among a people so proverbial for their regular attendance at church, and their strict religious duties. The individual referred to has, during his whole lifetime, resided only about a mile from Kreutz Creek Church. What commentary for reflection.

THE LAST VICTIM—Fatal Coal Oil Accident.—The following we take from the Allentown Democrat of last week: "That coal oil is a very excellent thing in its way, we will all admit. But that its way is into the domestic circle, the contemplation of the long list of its victims prevents us from saying. We write with the full hope of seeing it banished from every household in the town and the land—and we do so with just such feelings as we entertain when applauding the slayer of the rattlesnake, a mad bull, or a tiger at large in the highway. Every victim to its use only hastens, in a melancholy manner, the good time coming when we can chronicle its banishment. Not the last nor the least argument in favor of this consummation will be found in the fact that since last fall we had in this county some six or seven deaths, resulting from the explosion of kerosene lamps. The last fatal occurrence of the kind transpired at the residence of Mr. Dan'l Kershner, a well-known citizen of Wennersville, in South Whitehall township. Whilst his wife was sitting up late on Thursday night, operating a sewing machine, the remainder of the family having gone to bed, a kerosene lamp on the side of the machine exploded, throwing its flaming contents upon the breast of the unfortunate woman and instantly setting her wearing apparel on fire. Her husband heard the report of the explosion, and hastening from bed to see the result thereof, was horror-struck to find his bosom partner in flames and vainly trying to outen them. With great presence of mind he at once tore up the carpet and enveloped her therein, and then took her out doors and turned her in the snow, but by this time the clothing was almost all burned from her body, and the skin blackened and scarred by the flames. She was removed to bed, and Dr. Seiple, of Guthsville brought to hand, but no efforts could save her, and after lingering in great agony until Saturday morning death put an end to her sufferings. She leaves a mourning husband and a five year old child. Mr. Kershner, immediately after the accident, and after having outened the flames, ran a distance of several squares, barefooted and in his night clothes, for assistance. He was so badly burnt in his efforts to save his wife that he is yet laid up from the injuries sustained.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of the Union Fire Company, held in their hall, on the 1st inst., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, death has again entered our midst and taken from among us one of our oldest and most respected members, Jacob Squires.

Resolved, That while bowing in all humble submission to the will of the great I Am, we recognize in the death of our respected member the departure of a pure and upright citizen, whose only aim in life appeared to be "to do unto others as he would have them do unto him."

Resolved, That we hereby tender our earnest sympathy to the widow and friends of the deceased.

Resolved, That we inscribe a page on our minute book, and that our hall be draped in mourning for sixty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the widow and friends of the deceased, and be published in our town papers.

DIRECTORS' AND TEACHERS' CONVENTION.—In accordance with a resolution passed at the last Teachers' Institute, a Convention of Directors and Teachers convened in the Court House, Carlisle, January 7th, 1873, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of considering the propriety of adopting a uniform series of text books for the county.

Superintendent D. E. Kast called the convention to order and stated the object of the meeting.

An organization was effected by the election of J. P. Rhoads President; D. E. Kast Vice President; S. P. Goodyear Secretary, and J. L. Henry Assistant Secretary.

The following delegates were then reported:

Lower Allen—G. W. Mumper, David Miller, W. E. Zinn.

Carlisle—Jas. Hamilton, H. Newsham, David son Eckels.

Dickinson—Jacob Hollinger, Jno. Shenk, Laura V. Fleming.

Frankford—John Drawbaugh, Geo. Gillespie, A. H. Graham.

Hampton—C. Deitz, J. M. Best, W. B. Logan.

Hopewell—L. Bashore, D. Heberlig, A. Shullenberger.

Mechanicsburg—Amos Hicks, C. B. Neisley, W. M. Leech.

North Middleton—Jno. Kitch, R. P. Henderson, W. Eppley.

South Middleton—Dr. Mower, W. P. Stuart, Geo. Swartz.

Middlesex—A. Whitmer, G. W. Jacobs, George O'Hara.

Mifflin—S. Christleib, W. Ruth, S. T. Conner.

Monroe—J. Shaffner, P. Zeigler, S. P. Goodyear, Newburg—C. Stovick, W. Lusk, John Hefflinger.

Newton—P. D. M'Coy, W. M'Cullough, Philip Koontz.

Newville—Thomas Slough, J. P. Rhoads, S. B. Shearer.

Penn—W. Brandt, John Reep, J. L. Henry.

East Pennsboro—W. Sadler, M. Brinton, A. Quigley.

West Pennsboro—John Brindle, Capt. Elliott, G. W. Tarush.

Silver Spring—Dr. Crain, Dr. Hoover, G. M. D. Eckels.

Southampton—Capt. Delhi, Levi Strohm, Miss Wright.

On motion, it was agreed that the delegates present prepare a list of books now used in their several districts and report the same during the afternoon session.

Mr. C. B. Neisley moved that this convention recommend the adoption of a uniform series of text books for the county.

Messrs Neisly, Hamilton, Zinn, Logan, Hench, Crain, Hefflelfinger and Rhoads favored the motion, holding that if such a step were taken the great expense for school books, (which now falls so heavily upon those least able to bear it,) would be very much lessened.

H. Newsham, Esq., and Prof. Swartz thought the movement premature, that much evil would result from its adoption at this time, favored deliberate action, and believed that if time were allowed for consideration, a plan more effective and less beset with difficulties than the one proposed, would be developed. Pending the discussion the convention adjourned until 1 o'clock, P. M.

Afternoon Session.

Pres. Rhoads in the chair. Mr. Neisley's motion was again taken up and further discussed by Messrs. Davidson Eckels, Neisley, Newsham and Crain.

H. Newsham, Esq., moved the following amendment—That we recommend to the consideration of the directors of the county the propriety of adopting a uniform series of text books. Not agreed to. The original motion was then passed by a vote of 45 to 4.

Dr. Crain offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the different boards of directors of this county appoint one director and one teacher from their respective districts who shall constitute a committee, of which the County Superintendent shall be chairman, whose duty it shall be to prepare a list of text books for the various branches taught in the Common Schools of the county, and report the same for adoption to a convention of all the directors of the county to be held at this place, on Friday, May 22d, 1873, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

After an animated discussion the resolution was adopted. Convention adjourned.

MARTINO TROUPE.—Prof. Martino and company will make their first appearance at Rheem's Hall, on Monday evening next, continuing Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, with a Matinee on Wednesday afternoon.

The Detroit, Michigan, Daily Post of a recent date, in speaking of Martino says:

For five successive evenings this great illusionist and ventriloquist has performed at the opera house before the largest audience ever assembled there. The receipts the last five evenings amounted to nearly $8,000. Everybody is delighted with the performance and with the fair and impartial distribution of the presents.

REPORT OF THE MANAGERS OF THE FEMALE BENEVOLENT SOCIETY FOR 1871-72.—The Treasurer of the Society being unavoidably absent at the close of the late fiscal year, no report was rendered. The managers now offer a condensed report of the past two years, 1871-72. The balance in the treasury in 1871 being $62.57, was owing to most of the coal bills not having been presented for payment at the close of the year, and thus were thrown into the ensuing year of 1872. The prevalence of the small-pox called for a greater outlay of money than usual. It can easily be seen that the whole amount collected when divided among fifty families, during two years—being only about $10 per annum for each family—does not suffice to purchase enough fuel or other necessaries. Consequently, they are but scantly supplied.

TEMPERANCE COUNTY CONVENTION.—The following circular has been addressed to the ministers of this county:

Dear Sir—If the friends of Temperance ever wish to see that era inaugurated, when God's law will not be set at defiance by licensing one class of men to destroy their followers, they must act; for, "faith without works is dead."

To this end, this organization, known as the "Silver Spring Temperance Association," after consultation with many friends of the cause of Temperance, issue a call for a County Temperance Convention, to meet in the Court House, Carlisle, Feb. 4, 1873.

We earnestly ask your hearty co-operation, and request that your congregation at once elect one or more delegates to said Convention.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an inquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and form the great Burlington route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Carlisle, on their way Westward, cannot do better than to take the Burlington Route.

This line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa.

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE.—The Government endorsement, which legalizes the sale of Plantation Bitters, is not the only stamp affixed to that famous Vegetable Tonic. It bears, in addition to that official sanction, the still more valuable stamp of public approbation. This inestimable voucher of its rare properties as a, Tonic, Corrective and Alterative, is of much earlier date than the Government credential; for millions of sick persons had pronounced it the Grand Specific of the Age long before Congress thought of taxing proprietary medicines. It is unnecessary to repeat, in detail, the properties of this wonderful Vegetable Invigorant. The best reference that can be offered to those who desire the full particulars of its virtues, is the General Public. Ask those who have tried it as a remedy for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, intermittent fevers, nervous debility, rheumatism, sea sickness, low spirits, or loss of vital power, what Plantation Bitters has done for them, and be governed by the response they make to your inquiries.

THE GEM OF THE TOILET the world says is Sozodont. It renders the teeth pearly white, gives to the breath a fragrant odor, extinguishing the ill-humors which usually flow from a bad and neglected set of teeth. Sozodont is so convenient, and produces a sensation at once so delightful that it makes it a pleasure to use it.

AN Essential of Loveliness.—To be entirely beautiful the hair should be abundant and lustrous. This is absolutely essential to complete loveliness. The most regular features, the most brilliant complexion and pearliest teeth fail of their due effect if the hair be thin dry, or harsh. On the contrary the plainest face, if it be but surmounted by luxuriant and silken tresses, is apt to impress the beholder with a sense of actual beauty. That crowning ornament of her sex is, happily, within the reach of lovely woman, and being as discriminating as she is lovely, she long ago discovered that Lyon's Kathairon was the sure means of securing it. No preparation for the Hair ever enjoyed a tithe of its popularity, and no wonder, since it produces such gratifying results. Applied to the waste and barren places of the scalp, it fructifies and enriches them with a new and ample growth. It is not, of course, pretended that it will do this if the capacity for reproduction is extinct, but so long as it remains that wonderful rehabitant will assuredly propagate the germ of the hair into life and activity.

AN article that is at once teeth preserver and breath purifier, and yet so pleasant and convenient to use, its exceeding popularity does not surprise any one. Time has fully established the fact that the SOZODONT possesses these excellent qualities in an eminent degree. It has legimately acquired the right to a position upon every toilet table.

IN MEMORIAM.

The subject of this notice was of a very amiable, gentle and kind disposition. He was generally beloved by his associates, and esteemed by all his acquaintances. It is the testimony of his father: "I cannot recall a single instance in which I considered it a parental duty to reprove him except in an advisory way, and at such times advice was always received with a smile." During his sickness of more than four months, he was uncomplaining, gentle and resigned. He expressed a desire to live if it was God's will, as life had been full of pleasure to him, but hoped that such desire was not sinful. He calmly contemplated the prospect of his change as that which was probable if not certain, and assured his pastor from time to time that he was committing his all to Jesus, the friend of sinners.

When death approached he requested his mother to be called to his bedside, and told her his end was fast nearing—that he was dying, and that if it was God's will to take him he was read; to go. The only regret he expressed was that of parting with his father and mother, bereaved of so many sons, and the objects of his fondest affection; and so on Tuesday morning—the last day of the old year—without a pain or a struggle, he fell asleep, as we trust, in the full assurance of a blessed immortality.

We cannot close this slight memorial of friendship and affection without noticing the remarkable fatality which has broken in upon this honored household with "breach upon breach." Robert H., the subject of this notice, was the last of four sons, all the victims of this fell-destroyer consumption. The type of the disease varied in some unimportant particulars; but in each case it was a swift and sure decline, that medical skill and assiduous parental care were powerless to arrest. These young men departed this life in the following order:

James on the 7th September, 1862, aged 19 yrs.;
David G. on the 11th February, 1864, aged 21 yrs.
Samuel G. on the 11th May, 1872, aged 21 years
Robert H. on the 31st December, 1872, aged 17

It is worthy of mention that both the parents seem to be entirely free from any taint of this insidious disease, and the record shows a long line of ancestors on both sides of unusual longevity, for they have sprung from that hardy race, the Scotch-Irish; on the paternal side the Steels, Moores and Givens; on the maternal side the Gibsons and Armstrongs from Virginia, and the Hopkins of Pennsylvania. On the paternal side many of his ancestry have been citizens of our ancient borough for generations; one, the Rev. John Steel, of revolutionary memories, was pastor of the Presbyterian church, of this place, over one hundred years ago.

In their great affliction our friends have the unfeigned sympathy of the whole community. At such a time, the recollection that these gracious boys were all amiable, gentle and true will, to their surviving friends, outdeepen the sense of their great loss; but even when "sore broken" the people of God are enabled to say: "Will not the Judge of all the earth do right? It is the Lord, let Him do what seemeth to Him good; though He slay me, yet will I trust in Him." G. N.
