FIXED FACTS IN AGRICULTURE.

Somebody has got up the following list of "fixed facts" in agriculture, and for once, in a condensation of the sort, has hit the right mail on the head, in most of them. They are for an eastern latitude, and no western farmer need trouble himself about what is said of manufactured manure, at least till he has learned to use his stock furnished from the barnyard.—Prairie Farmer.

1. All lands on which clover or the grasses are grown must either lave lime in them naturally, or that mineral must be artificially supplied. It matters but little whether it be supplied in the form of stone lime, oyster lime, or marl.

2. All permanent improvement of lands must look to lime as its basis.

6. All highly concentrated animal manures are increased in value, and their benefits prolonged by admixture with plaster; salt, or with pulverized charcoal. 7. Deep plowing greatly improves the productive powers of every variety of soil that is 8. Subsoiling sound land, that is, land that is not wer, is also eminently conducive to increased production. 9. All wet land should be drained. 10. All grain crops should be harvested before the grain is thoroughly ripe. 11. Clover, as well as the grasses, intended better than water.

13. The chopping or grinding of grain to be fed to stock operates as a saving of at least twenty-five per cent. 14. Draining of wet lands and marshes adds to their value by making them produce more, and by improving the health of 15. To manure or lime wet lands is to throw manure, Hose and labor away. 16. Shallow plowing operates to impoverish the soil, while it decreases production.

17. By stabling and shedding stock through the winter, a saving of one-fourth the food may be effected; that is, one-fourth less food will answer, than when the stock may be exposed to the inclemencies of the weather. 18. A bushol of plaster per acre, sown broadcast over clover, will add one hundred ductiveness it is necessary to harrow them every second autumn, apply top dressing, and roll them up. 23. All stiff clays are benefitted by fall and winter plowing; but should never be plowed when wet. If at such plowings the furrow be materially deepened, lime, marl or ashes should be supplied. 24. Young stock should be moderately fed with grain in winter, and receive generous supplies of long provender, it being essential to keep them in a fair condition in order that the formation of muscle, bones, &c., may be encouraged and continuously

WAR WITH THE FEEJEE ISLANDS. The U. S. sloop of war John Adams sailed from Panama, on the 3d of July last, for the which American valor was, of course, victorious. Five of the largest of the native towns were entirely burned to ashes. Under the influence of this chastisement the king of the islands, Tui Vite, or Thokambau. made a treaty of peace and friendship with Commander Boutwell, who acted as the representative of the United States. The part ticulars of this treaty are not mentioned, bumand indemnity for the plunder of several American ships trading and fishing in the Feejean Archipelago, it is to be presumed that point was not neglected. The John Adams returned to Panama on the 3d ult.

A FAITHFUL EXPRESS MAN.-The New York and Albany banks have presented the sum of $225 to Mr. J.hn Upton, express messenger, who was on board the Hudson River Railroad cars at the time of the Spayten Duyvil Creek accident, with a million of dollars under his care, which he refused to leave for seven hours during the inclement night, although his leg was broken and his car was nearly submerged.

DEATH OF MRS. CAROLINE LEE HENTZ.-The telegraph brings us intelligence of the death of this popular authoress, whose numerous tales are well known to the reading public. Among her writings may be specially recalled the "Mob Cap," which was the first of her writings that attracted public attention, and established her literary GENTLEREN-We take pleasure in recommend your Salamander Sales to Merchants and other papers, &c., from fire, as the one we purchased from you shout seven months since has preserved our books, papers, and cash in as good a condition as they were when put into it, before the great fire of the morning, which destroyed the entire block of buildings, corner of Chesmus and Fitth streets. The above sufe was in use in our office, on the second floor of our building, from which place it fell into the cellar, and transined there until the fire was out. The affe was then removed and opened in the presence of at least 1,000 persons, who wincesed the good condition of the contents. Will you please to have the Safe and Locks repaired, as we intend to put it in use again, having perfect confidence in its fre-proof qualities.

Yours, Respectfully.
