AN HOUR WITH GOD. One hour with thee, my God, when daylight breaks, Over a world thy guardian care has kept, When the fresh soul from southing slumber wakes, To praise the love that watched me while I slept, When with new strength my blood is bounding free, The first, best, sweetest hour, I'll give to thee.

One hour with thee, when busy day begins Her never ceasing round of busiling care, When I must meet with toil and pain and sins,
And through them all thy cross again must bear;
O then, to arm me for the strife, to be Faithful to death, I'll kneel an hour to thee. One hour with thee, when rides the glorious sur High in mid-heaven, and panting nature feels Lifeless and overpowered, and man has done For one short hour with urging life's swith wheels In that deep pause my soul from care shall flee,

To make that hour of rest, one hour with thee. One hour with thee, when saddened twilight flings Her soothing charm o'er lawn and vale and grove, When there breathes up from all created things The sweet, enthrilling sense of thy deep love; nd when its softening power descends on me, My swelling heart shall spend an hour with thee

One hour with thee, my God, when softly night abs the high heaven with solemn step and slow, When thy sweet stars unutterably bright,
Are telling forth thy praise to men below;
O then, while far from earth my thoughts would flee,
Pil spend in prayer one joyful hour with thee!

With kindly words him safely to the summit, and without wait-"Sin-We perhaps owe you an apology ing for thanks, departed as he came. Here was a simple act, but mighty in its influence. -The mechanic was humbled, acknowledged the purity and power of that religion that could bear and forbear,' and has since that time never willingly provoked his friend.

A REVOLUTIONARY RELIC.—A week or two since, an unexploded bomb-shell was ploughed up in the field of Mr. Caleb Brinof a mile north of the village of Chad's Ford, and on the bloody battle ground of Sentemknaves, but blackguards also.
