THE ART OF LOVE MAKING.—The most extraorI dinary book of the Nineteenth Century!
THE BLISS OF MARRIAGE.
The way to the Altar, Matrimony made easy; or How to win a Lover. One volume of 160 pages, 32mo—Price One Dollar, 500,000 copies already issued. Thirteenth edition ready. Printed on the finest paper, and ilustrated in the first style of art.

Love ruces the court, the camp, the grove. For Love is Heaven, and Heaven is Love." So sang the Bard; yet thousands pine For love—of life the light divine—Who, did they know some gentle charm, The hearts of those they love to warm, Might live, might die, in bliss supreme, Possessing all of which they dream.
The road to wedlock would you know?
Delay not, but to Roynour go.
Time flies, and from his gloomy wings
A shadow fulls on living things;
Then seize the moments as they pass,
Ere fall the last sands through the glass;
At least the present is your own,
While all the future is unknown.
A happy marriage man or maid
Can now secure by Roynour's aid.

A Lecture on Love, or a Private Advice to Married Liddes and Géntlemen.

This is decidedly the most fascinating, interesting and really useful practical work on Courship, Matrimony, and the duties and delights of Married Life, that has ever been issued from the American press. The artificial social system, which in so many instances prevents a union of hearts, and sucrifices to conventionalism the happiness and even the lives of thousands of the young and hopeful si both sexes, is thoroughly analysed and exposed. Every one who contemplates merriage, and wishes for an infallible guide in the selection of a partner for life, should purchase this great text book of contubial felicity.

No one will ever regret the price paid-for such as invaluable secret.
