theum.

They to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula,

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Render, I peddled over a thousand bottles of this in the vicinity of Boston. I know the effect of it in every case. So sure as water will extinguish fire, so sure will this cure humor. I sever sold a bottle of it but that I sold another, after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appear to me surprising, first that it grows in our pas

J. R. STAFFORD'S OLIVE TAR. A GREAT ELECTRICAL REMEDY FOR PREVENTING AND CURING DISEASES. Stafford's Olive Tur Cures all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

Throat and Lungs.

OLIVE TAR is applied and inhaled, and is not taken.

DIRECTIONS—Apply by rubbing where pain or disease exists, then cover the parts with a plaster made of olded silk, to which stitch a that layer of cotton batting; then cover the batting with this mustin. Cotton or woolen flamed may be used instead of the oiled silk plaster, but the operations of the remedy will not be as speedy, nor a effective.

For INMALING—Place a Saucer over a bowl of how water, tand keep it hot.) pour into the saucer enough Olive Tar to cover the tottom; the apartment will soon be filled with its odor, affording to the patient an atmosphere impregnated with the delignful, blended aroms of THE OLIVE AND OF THE PINE.

IIIT Renew the Olive Tar daily for inhaling by the above method. aroma of THE OLIVE AND OF THE PINE.

[If Renew the Olive Tar dualy for inhaling by the above method.

Another method of inhaling is to put Olive Tar, on the Oiled Silk Plaster, which deing worn upon the chest, the heat of the body will cause the Olive Tar to evaporate gradually, and as it rises it will be inhalid. The Oiled Silk Plaster should be medicated with fresh Olive Tar every other day. In acute cases or in those of long standing, both of the above methods of inhalation should be used.

Ity adhering to the above directions, the very worst forms of discusers of the Throat or Lunga, if not speedily cured, will be greatly releved; while temporary colds, Sore Throats, Inflamed Lungs, Catarth, Croup. Coughs, &c., &c., will yield at once to its combined curative powers.

Stafford's Olive Tar softens and penetrates the skin; therefore in all Chronic or Active Inflammations it will be found highly beardiesal, as it acts directly apon the Nervee, the Muscles, and the Joints, OLIVE TAR OINTMENT is made by mixing Olive Tar and Mutton Tallow in equal parts. Bordentown Female College—We know of no location in the country where the health of the student can be so promoted as here; while the air of heauty and romance which surrounds the place must tend in so small decree to the refinement and elevation of taste and feeling.

Of the literary advantages we need not speak; the name of Rev. J. 11. Brakeley, as President, is a sufficient guarantee for them. Of stern integrity and mortal worth—in his deportagent mid, yet firm at demoved, and endowed with superior educational qualifications—he cannot fail to exercise a most healthful and emobiling influence upon all who are under his influence.—Bordentown Register.
