TOR Which Congress has so liberally appropriated. It is a book every American can be proud off every intelligent American should possess a copy. Its interest is unpartifeled, and it is embellished with about 300 fine steel cigravings, taken from sketches by the author. Every person that has not received a copy from the travelling agent, should call at the Cheap Book Store and procure one. We have special arrangements with the agent for this object, and have them in quantities.

The Court of Napoleon, or Society under the first Empire—with Portraits of its Beauties, Wissand Herolies, The plan of this work is to present in one-view the passage of French society, from the confusion into which it was thrown by the revolution, to a regular and normal situation under the dictatorship of Napoleon. The various periods treated of are libitationed by their remarkable women; the Reign of Terror by its Heroines.

The illustrations are superb. The paper and type the very best. We have but a specimen copy on hand, which we mytte all to call and see, and subscribe for it if desired. As a Gitt Book for the Holidays it will be the finest of the scason.

Dr. HANNAH BOSLEY'S Gintment cannot be recommended too highly for the cure of coras &c. as my case will fully testify. It gives me pleasure to add my certificate to the fact that one Box of Dr. Hannah Bosley's Outment has cured me completely of a tamor in the breast; and I cheerfully recommend it to those similarly afflicted.

Professor Haminh Bosley, I can obserfully recommend as an operator upon those troublesome things called corns. She is skilled in her manipulations, taking them sif rapidly and without pain. To the suitering I would say, give her a trial Dr. V. S. McCORKLIL Columbia, Sant 20, 1873.

Columbia, Sept. 50, 1856.

Having been sub-ring from a severe attack of dysentery for two weeks, hast, and having tried Hamanh Bosley's, "Spiced Liquor," which effected a cure in twelve hours. I take great pleasure in recommending her preparation to the public as fully competent to perform all she promises.

P. S.—Persons calling at the residence of Mrs. Bosley, need not be surprised at finding her a colored woman, as this is an undeniable fact, but she trusts it will not have effect on the curative powers of her medicines.
