

TO THE READERS OF THE SPY.

My connection with the Columbia Spy, as editor and proprietor, terminates this week. To all who have befriended me and aided in its advancement, I offer my heartfelt thanks. I think I am grateful. If I have in any editorial capacity, offended any one, I am very sorry for it and ask pardon. If any one has offended me, he has my forgiveness without hesitation or reluctance. It is impossible to please every one in a position of the character occupied by the undersigned; but I can assure all that I have had in view their prosperity and happiness, and by my humble efforts tried to advance them. If I have failed in this, I regret it exceedingly. My enemies will do me the justice to say that I never willingly wronged one; and that although I was ready to "strike back," when it was necessary, I was equally willing to extend the right hand of fellowship to the first favorable opportunity. Good bye, kind friends, and good health and happiness attend you through life. To my brethren of the press, a kind and earnest acknowledgment for favors rendered and hearty thanks for the same, are tendered. Those of you with whom I have had intercourse, I have believed gentlemen of the finest kind. Good bye.

Good bye to you, correspondents, who have so generously lent your aid to the Spy since my superintendence over it. I thank you, and wish each and all a kind farewell. To those in the office with whom I have had daily communion, I present my warmest regards. They have been true to me, and I appreciate their fidelity. Good bye to you.

Good bye to all, good bye. My successor, whose name will be announced next week, is a gentleman of education, intelligence and capacity, and I have not the least hesitation in assuring you that you will all be pleased with him as an editor and as a man. I bespeak for him your efforts towards sustaining the Spy—earnestly urge you to give him every encouragement, and to strive to INCREASE the interests of the paper.

"The best of friends must part."—I part from you all with great sorrow. I feel sad that it must be so, but so it must be—and I say in conclusion to each one— "If forever, still forever Fare ye well."

COLEMAN J. BULL.

COLUMBIA, Pa., March 28, 1857.

A fatal accident occurred at a ball at Sanson's Hall, Philadelphia, on Monday night. Among the participants was a young man named William Owens, a carpenter, who was accompanied by his wife and child. About midnight, Owens raised one of the windows on the east side of the Hall, and sat down upon the window sill. By some mischance he fell out and struck upon the pavement in a side alley, a distance of about 50 feet, breaking his neck and fracturing his skull. The hall was broken up as soon as the fatal occurrence was known, and the family of the deceased was taken home in a chaise. Mrs. Owens was not informed of the sad termination of the affair until after she had reached home.

UNION STATE TICKET.—The following is the ticket as placed in nomination by the Union State Convention just assembled at Harrisburg: GOVERNOR—David Willmot, Bradford. CANAL COMMISSIONER—Wm. Millward Philadelphia. JUDGES SUPREME COURT—James Verel, Fayette; Joseph J. Lewis, Chester.

DR. LEVERNE'S YOFORY SHOULDER BRACE.—The Agent for this article is now in town, stopping at the Bellevue House. To those persons who are round-shouldered, or have the least tendency to stooping, we would say that this article is highly recommended to remedy the evil. The dire consequences of deformed and sunken chests are too apparent to leave untried any practical means of prevention. The Agent will call upon our citizens, and show them the advantages of the Shoulder-Brace, and we trust they will give it a trial.

ANOTHER SEARCH FOR FRANKLIN.—The New York Journal of Commerce states that letters received from England, convey intelligence that the government having decided against sending out another expedition in search of Sir John Franklin, Lady Franklin has determined to fit out one from her own private means—leaving the remains of the lost navigator, or additional traces of the expedition. The qualities of heart and mind which prompt the act, command admiration; whatever may be said of the wisdom of the measure.

ENCOUNTER WITH FLORIDA INDIANS.—The Charleston Courier has the following account of a late encounter of United States troops with Indians in Florida: Reports from Fort Myers of the 9th inst., report a skirmish with a small band of Indians and Lieut. Freeman, U. S. A., with sixty men. Lieut. Freeman himself was wounded. Four others were wounded, four killed, and four drummer boys missing.—This includes three different engagements with Indians on the part of Lieut. Freeman. Twenty Indians were seen at one time and it is supposed there were one hundred in all at that place, and resolved on desperate fighting. Capt. Stevenson, from Fort Keys, set out on the 10th, and would be joined soon by Gen. Hartney and resort, to seek the Indians in their camps. Additional details are anxiously expected, as it is believed the hiding places have been discovered.

TAVEN CLAUDE.—We understand that Mr. Henry Mitchell, of this place, intends taking the Falgout House, near the Railroad, Lancaster, Pa., and Mr. Bear, formerly proprietor of the Falgout, will take the Mount Zion House, now occupied by Mr. Min-

PROCEEDINGS OF COUNCIL.—COUNCIL CHAMBER, MARCH 25, 1857.—Council met. Members present, Messrs. Black, Murphy, Blutz, Tyson, Maxton and Hess, President. Minutes of the last meeting read and approved. Communications were read from Joshua Vaughan & Co., and Samuel Wright, Administrator of J. L. Wright, deceased, representing that from the accumulation of sand and mud in front of their wharves, has rendered them entirely useless for landing and drawing lumber; they therefore respectfully petition the Authorities to fix according to law a line for wharves upon the Susquehanna river, at such a distance beyond the present obstruction.

On motion, a committee of two was appointed by the President to wait on the wharf owners, in relation to fixing a wharf line. The following bills were presented, approved and ordered to be paid: Samuel Wain, $29.37; N. Binehour, $10; J. H. Black, $2.33; Philip Shreiner, $15; Lihbart & Shuman, $51.70; a bill was presented from Philip Shreiner, for $40, which was referred to the Street Committee, and said Committee, to notify P. Shreiner to repair the culvert at Walnut and Commerce streets. On motion of Mr. Black, the following resolution was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That on and after Saturday, April 4, the markets will be held in the morning at any time the farmers see fit to sell.

The committee appointed to settle the claim of Messrs. Minich and Collins reported progress. Council adjourned.

Attest, J. S. DELLETT, Clerk.

THREE MEN DROWNED IN THE SUSQUEHANNA AT McCall's Ferry.—A most melancholy accident occurred in the Susquehanna, near McCall's ferry, which resulted in the death of three men and the narrow escape of the fourth who was in the party. The facts are substantially these:

Four men named Abner Reese, William Patton, Henry Shultz and Horatio Dunkle, having discovered the whereabouts of one of the cables of the York Furnace bridge, which was swept away by the late freshet, started up the river in a small boat for the purpose of securing it. They succeeded in loading the cable in the boat, which being very heavy made the managing of the boat a somewhat difficult matter. They succeeded, however in descending the stream in safety, until they came opposite Idal's Island, when the boat struck a breaker, capsized, filled and instantly sunk. Reese, Patton and Shultz were drowned, but their companion, being a good swimmer, succeeded in reaching the Lancaster shore in safety. Abner Reese, who resides in Providence-twp., leaves a wife and family to mourn his untimely loss. He was highly esteemed as a citizen in the neighborhood where he resided, and general surprise is expressed, by all who knew him, that he should have risked his life in such an expedition.

Henry Shultz resided in Marie-twp., and had no family, having separated from his wife some years since.

Wm. Patton was a single man and a laborer or special jobber about the river.

The cable which they had in the boat when the fatal occurrence took place, was very valuable, and had been used in the construction of the false-works of the bridge.

The Border Rover, by Emerson Bennett, published by T. B. Peterson, 102 Chesnut street, Phila., complete in one volume bound in cloth, for $1.25; or in two volumes, paper cover, for $1.00. We have received a copy of this book, which is got up in the good style that characterizes Mr. Peterson's publications. By a critic the Border Rover is said to be "one of Emerson Bennett's best productions, and will be sure to delight all readers who were pleased with the Prairie Flower and Clara Moreland, to which it may be considered a companion;—the scenes and incidents being something similar, yet the story totally unlike either of the others, the scene of the Border Rover is in the territory of Kansas, beginning at Independence, Missouri, and extending all over the plains or prairies to the Rocky Mountains. It is full of thrilling adventures, and hair breadth escapes, love, romance, and humor, and the characters are trappers, traders, hunters, travelers, guides, Indians, &c. &c. Furthermore, the scenes are geographically correct, the incidents of actual occurrence, and those who wish to see Kansas as it was a few years since, will find in this most exciting story some very accurate and valuable information."

Vivia, or the Secret of Power, by Mrs. Emma D. N. Southworth, also published by T. B. Peterson, complete in one volume bound in cloth for $1.25, or in two volumes, paper covers for $1.00. This work is one of the most interesting from Mrs. Southworth's pen. We can hardly give a fair idea of its character. In the first chapter the interest of the reader in "Vivia," the heroine, is powerfully aroused, and it is kept lively alive to the close of the volume.

Both of the above books are for sale at Saylor & McDonald's Headquarters and News Depot, Front street, Columbia, at publisher's prices.

Copies of either edition of the above works will be sent to any one, to any part of the United States, free of postage, on the person wishing it remitting the price of the edition they wish to the publisher, in a letter.

DAVID MITCHELL, Esq.—It gives especial pleasure to notice the recent action of the Canal Board, in the appointment of David Mitchell, Esq., as superintendent of the Columbia Railroad, in place of Col. Joseph B. Baker, who goes into the custom-house at Philadelphia. Mr. Mitchell is known to the people of Pennsylvania, as a gentleman possessed of rare qualifications to discharge the duties of the office to which he has been appointed.—Besides being a practical engineer, with a high reputation earned in his profession, he has business qualifications that are not excelled by any man in the State; and to crown all, is a gentleman who, while he is mild and courteous in demeanor, is, at the same time, a very Caesar when the sterner qualities of his nature are called into requisition.—Keystone.

The Commissioners of this county, announce that they are prepared to pay the interest on loans, at any time called for, on or before the first day of April.

Gov. Geary, who has resigned the Governorship of Kansas territory, as before announced, arrived in Harrisburg, on the 20th inst., direct from Kansas, and during his short stay, was called upon by a large number of the citizens and members of the legislature, who were cordially received by him, and to whom he related the condition of affairs in Kansas, which he represents as deplorable. The Government, he says, is entirely in the hands of the Border Ruffians, and no power but the military arm of the General Government can control them. The legislature is wholly pro-slavery, and every act of theirs looks to the permanent establishment of slavery in the territory, regardless of the rights and wishes of the majority of the people. He has no doubt, he says, that if a fair expression of the opinion of the actual bona fide settlers could be had, two-thirds would be found favorable to the territory being free. But this fair expression of the voice of the people cannot be had. The election that is to come off in April, will not be participated in by the free State men, for the reason that under the laws, and the manner in which they are administered, they could not have a fair expression of their opinion. The territory is already swarming with Border Ruffians, who have been colonized along the Missouri border with the express purpose of voting and carrying the election for slavery. There is no hope for the free State men unless the General Government or Congress, will secure to them their rights. The adoption of the Slave Constitution at the approaching election, he thinks, is inevitable under the circumstances.

The Telegraph says that the Governor is accompanied by his Private Secretary, John Gilon, of Philadelphia, who has been constantly by his side, and he gives also a most deplorable account of the state of affairs in Kansas.

Mr. Gilon says that every man hailing from a free State is considered an Abolitionist; and even Richard M. Allison, celebrated for his slave-catching proclivities when in Illinois, is classed by the Border Ruffians as a rank Abolitionist and Free State Man!

Gov. Geary was in Washington on Monday last, and on that day expected to have an interview with the President, but was unable to do so in consequence of the appointments occupying the time of the President and Cabinet.

He had a consultation with Gen. Cass on Saturday, to whom he related a succinct account of affairs in Kansas up to the period of his departure. He says that in all his conduct he aimed only for the peace and welfare of the people, and that in the administration of his duties, all classes were treated with the strictest impartiality. The Governor reiterates the opinion that the population of the Territory is still too small for its admission as a State, and considers it best that it should remain as at present until its numbers shall increase sufficiently to send a Representative to Congress.

The North American, of Thursday, has an article on Kansas affairs, and the difficulties the administration will have to contend with in that Territory, in which it is said—Gov. Geary has resigned his post. At first it was believed that he would be sent back. But the Governor is rather too keen a man to be twice victimized. To prevent such a consummation he published a farrow address, and communicated to various Republican newspapers such statements concerning the outrageous condition of affairs as he knew would be sure to prevent his return. Moreover he so timed his resignation as that it should go into effect before he could reach Washington, and thus he cannot withdraw if he would.

In fact, the Governor has grown sick of such an empty honor. Like Reeder and Shannon, he fancied before going to Kansas that he was really to be Governor, but a brief experience was sufficient to teach him that the national appointee is a mere man of straw. David R. Atchison is, and has been as much the Governor of Kansas as Brigham Young is of Utah, and like him, too, in defiance of all law, of civil regulations. There is a fictitious show of a territorial government maintained at Leecompton, but the capital is located at Platte City, Missouri, from whence emanate all orders, laws, writs of arrest, &c., for the subjugation of the refractory people of Kansas.

DEATH OF ELLIOTT E. LANE.—We have the unwelcome duty of announcing the death of Elliott E. Lane, brother of Mrs. Harriet Lane, and nephew of President Buchanan and of the late John N. Lane, of this city. He died suddenly and unexpectedly, about half past nine o'clock, Thursday morning, of inflammation of the bowels. He had been unwell for a day or two, having taken a slight cold while planting some trees at Wheatland; but nothing serious was apprehended from it, either by the family or his physician; and no alarm was felt until a very short time before his death, and then it suddenly became apparent that all efforts to save him from the grasp of the "grim messenger" would be useless. Mr. Lane was a young man possessing excellent and commendable traits of character, and his death is not only a severe shock to his relatives and intimate friends, but will be generally lamented by our citizens. The receipt of his intelligence at the White House, in Washington, was an unexpected scene there from joy to mourning, as the electric spark that carried it. Mr. Lane was considered the favorite nephew of Mr. Buchanan, and as principally possessing his confidence and regard; and his death will therefore be the more keenly felt, from the fact that no intelligence of his being ill had been communicated to his sister or the President—and the first information that reached them was that of his sudden and unexpected departure.—Inland Daily.

A girl was horribly burned in Pittsburg on Monday night, by the explosion of a fluid can while she was in the act of filling a lamp while burning. She is not expected to survive. Another warning!—A little child came to his death at the same place in the following manner: His mother, in preparing supper, had set the tea-pot filled with scalding water near where the child was sitting, when he caught hold of it, spilling the contents over his breast, abdomen and thighs, scalding him in such a frightful manner that he died on Sunday evening.

EDITORIAL GELANINGS.

An EDITRESS WITHOUT A WARDROBE.—Mrs. Prewett, the editress of the Yugo City (Miss.) American Banner, recently visited New Orleans, where she met with a sad mishap—nothing more serious, however, than the loss of her trunk, containing her wardrobe, jewelry, &c. She says in her paper: "I request that if this notice falls under the eye of any steamboat officer or any body else, that knows anything of my strayed property, I hope he will advise me of its whereabouts, as I am much inconvenienced and distressed at its loss. My name, H. P. Hewett, is printed on one end, so there can be no mistake about its ownership. If any thief has got it, I can only say that he must have kept, indeed, to rob an editor of a Mississippi newspaper. No human nature is bad enough God knows, but there can be no one mean enough for that! If, however, any one has taken it by mistake, let him send it back, and no questions will be asked."

GOOD ADVICE BADLY RECEIVED.—Governor Gardner, of Massachusetts, in his recent proclamation for the annual State Fair, made the following excellent suggestions to the clergy: "May those called to minister at God's altar, impressed with the truth that national transgressions can only be corrected by removing individual sin, abstain from political discussions and secular considerations."

It should be a Western man. All the other candidates upon our State Ticket have been taken from the East, and it would be an act of simple justice to turn the West to give this section of the State the candidate for this office.

It should be a party man. All the other candidates upon our State Ticket have been taken from the East, and it would be an act of simple justice to turn the West to give this section of the State the candidate for this office.

It should be a man of ability, and a lawyer of reputation.

It should be a man of an age at which his judgment is mature, and he should be of that age when his faculties are in any degree impaired.

In all these essentials, Mr. Stokes has been eminently favored. As a lawyer, he stands among the highest of the profession in Pennsylvania. His mind is strong and active, and a ready discriminating judgment points him out as the proper man for the position. As an orator, he has heard his superior.

With a chaste and easy speech, a smooth and pleasant manner, and a convincing power of reason, he is, indeed, a model orator. As a party man, those who heard and read his address, will be able to quote from distinguished Agricultural Journals in regard to the Columbia Guano they advertise.

"This article is gradually coming into use among farmers, who are already establishing a favorable reputation, gaining decided success as a prominent fertilizer. Agriculturists in Maryland and adjoining States, who have given it a trial, speak most favorably of the practical results. An especial desideratum, its cheapness when compared with Peruvian Guano, and its more lasting effect upon soils. The nutritious or fertilizing ingredients of this fertilizer cannot be sufficiently convincing and efficacious to warrant its future use. We have seen highly satisfactory analyses of this Guano by distinguished Chemists, among whom are Dr. Snowdon, Piggot and David Stewart, of Baltimore; A. A. Hayes, of Boston; J. A. Chilton, of New York; James C. Booth and F. A. Genb, of Philadelphia; but it is not our province to give details.

MAJ CUT IN TWO.—The town of Benton, Indiana, a few days since was thrown into great excitement by a furious and fatal attack made by a man named Thomas E. Brake upon a worthless fellow who had been loafing about Brake's wagon shop. Being hasty and hot of temper, Brake became provoked at the loafer, and taking up a broad axe, literally chopped him in two. The murderer was arrested at once.

RIGHTS OF TEACHERS.—In the Supreme Court at Portland, on Tuesday, Geo. B. Elden, keeper of a high school at Windham, was tried for assaulting a pupil. Judge Davis charged that the master in a school acted in the same capacity as a parent at home, and had the right to enforce obedience to school rules by proper punishment, and left the jury to decide whether this right was exceeded in this case. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The case was tried previously before a justice of the peace, and the teacher was fined $5, and appealed.

HEAVY PROFITS.—While all of our pork operators here have done well this season, some of them have realized very heavy profits. We learn that one house has cleared no less than $300,000; another shows $200,000 on the right side of the balance sheet, while the profits of yet another amount to $150,000, and several others loom up to $50,000 and $100,000.—Louisville Courier.

RAILROAD SUITS.—Two suits were tried in Madison county, New York, last week, against the New York Central Railroad, they were brought by the representatives of Mr. and Mrs. Keller, who were run over by an express train about three years ago. The verdicts were for the plaintiffs—$1500 in one case and $1700 in the other.

A sect of religious fanatics has arisen in England calling themselves the disciples. They believe that Christ will appear in 1864, and that the Russians will triumph over the Turks, and the Jews over the Russians, and finally the Jews will become again a nation in the Holy Land. Christians are to sleep eternally.

The Richmond Dispatch says there is no doubt that the cars will run through the Blue Ridge Tunnel by the 1st of July. The tunnel is nearly completed. This tunnel is about one-half the length of the proposed Hoosick Tunnel, and has required over four years for its excavation.

The following are the summer rates for freight on the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburg and Philadelphia and Baltimore: Flour, 75 cents per barrel; Pork in barrels and loose, 50 cents per 100 lbs.; all fourth-class articles, 40 cents.

James Taber, residing near Flemingsburg, Ky., was murdered by one of his slaves a few days since. The murderer was arrested, convicted and sentenced to be hung on the 14th prox.

The most reliable accounts from every section of the country give very encouraging hopes for a bountiful harvest. The growing crops from one end of the country to the other are represented as looking remarkably fine.

The King of Bavaria, who is a Roman Catholic, has authorized the Protestant pastors in his Kingdom to raise subscriptions for a monument, which is about to be erected to the memory of Martin Luther, at Worms.

Lang Hastings, aged 57, committed suicide at Bangor, Me., on the 15th inst., having become insane from spiritualism, or become a spiritualist from insanity.

W. A. STOKES, Esq.—The subject article, taken from the Philadelphia Pennsylvaniaian, and which originally appeared in the Greensburg Democrat, will be of interest to our Democratic friends. The Pennsylvaniaian says:—Mr. Stokes spent the first years of his professional life at the Philadelphia Bar, and is familiar with the practice of our Courts here. He is a native of Philadelphia, and his talents are known among us better than those of any lawyer or judge out of the city? "By the appointment of Judge Black to the office of Chief Justice, a vacancy has been created upon the Supreme Bench of this State, which will be filled by Governor Pollock until the election. It will be necessary for the Democratic State Convention to nominate a candidate to be nominated a candidate for that position.

In looking over the list of gentlemen named in connection with that nomination, we find one name, who, notwithstanding, in our opinion, would be so desirable as that of a distinguished citizen of our own county: we allude to Wm. A. Stokes, Esq.

In our opinion, there are several requisites for an available candidate for that vacancy. 1st. The candidate should be taken from the Bar. In other words, he should be one who has not forgotten the difficulties of the profession.

2d. He should be a Western man. All the other candidates upon our State Ticket have been taken from the East, and it would be an act of simple justice to turn the West to give this section of the State the candidate for this office.

3d. He should be a party man. All the other candidates upon our State Ticket have been taken from the East, and it would be an act of simple justice to turn the West to give this section of the State the candidate for this office.

4th. He should be a man of ability, and a lawyer of reputation.

5th. He should be of an age at which his judgment is mature, and he should be of that age when his faculties are in any degree impaired.

In all these essentials, Mr. Stokes has been eminently favored. As a lawyer, he stands among the highest of the profession in Pennsylvania. His mind is strong and active, and a ready discriminating judgment points him out as the proper man for the position. As an orator, he has heard his superior.

With a chaste and easy speech, a smooth and pleasant manner, and a convincing power of reason, he is, indeed, a model orator. As a party man, those who heard and read his address, will be able to quote from distinguished Agricultural Journals in regard to the Columbia Guano they advertise.

"This article is gradually coming into use among farmers, who are already establishing a favorable reputation, gaining decided success as a prominent fertilizer. Agriculturists in Maryland and adjoining States, who have given it a trial, speak most favorably of the practical results. An especial desideratum, its cheapness when compared with Peruvian Guano, and its more lasting effect upon soils. The nutritious or fertilizing ingredients of this fertilizer cannot be sufficiently convincing and efficacious to warrant its future use. We have seen highly satisfactory analyses of this Guano by distinguished Chemists, among whom are Dr. Snowdon, Piggot and David Stewart, of Baltimore; A. A. Hayes, of Boston; J. A. Chilton, of New York; James C. Booth and F. A. Genb, of Philadelphia; but it is not our province to give details.

MAJ CUT IN TWO.—The town of Benton, Indiana, a few days since was thrown into great excitement by a furious and fatal attack made by a man named Thomas E. Brake upon a worthless fellow who had been loafing about Brake's wagon shop. Being hasty and hot of temper, Brake became provoked at the loafer, and taking up a broad axe, literally chopped him in two. The murderer was arrested at once.

RIGHTS OF TEACHERS.—In the Supreme Court at Portland, on Tuesday, Geo. B. Elden, keeper of a high school at Windham, was tried for assaulting a pupil. Judge Davis charged that the master in a school acted in the same capacity as a parent at home, and had the right to enforce obedience to school rules by proper punishment, and left the jury to decide whether this right was exceeded in this case. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. The case was tried previously before a justice of the peace, and the teacher was fined $5, and appealed.

HEAVY PROFITS.—While all of our pork operators here have done well this season, some of them have realized very heavy profits. We learn that one house has cleared no less than $300,000; another shows $200,000 on the right side of the balance sheet, while the profits of yet another amount to $150,000, and several others loom up to $50,000 and $100,000.—Louisville Courier.

RAILROAD SUITS.—Two suits were tried in Madison county, New York, last week, against the New York Central Railroad, they were brought by the representatives of Mr. and Mrs. Keller, who were run over by an express train about three years ago. The verdicts were for the plaintiffs—$1500 in one case and $1700 in the other.

A sect of religious fanatics has arisen in England calling themselves the disciples. They believe that Christ will appear in 1864, and that the Russians will triumph over the Turks, and the Jews over the Russians, and finally the Jews will become again a nation in the Holy Land. Christians are to sleep eternally.

The Richmond Dispatch says there is no doubt that the cars will run through the Blue Ridge Tunnel by the 1st of July. The tunnel is nearly completed. This tunnel is about one-half the length of the proposed Hoosick Tunnel, and has required over four years for its excavation.

The following are the summer rates for freight on the Pennsylvania Railroad, between Pittsburg and Philadelphia and Baltimore: Flour, 75 cents per barrel; Pork in barrels and loose, 50 cents per 100 lbs.; all fourth-class articles, 40 cents.

James Taber, residing near Flemingsburg, Ky., was murdered by one of his slaves a few days since. The murderer was arrested, convicted and sentenced to be hung on the 14th prox.

The most reliable accounts from every section of the country give very encouraging hopes for a bountiful harvest. The growing crops from one end of the country to the other are represented as looking remarkably fine.

The King of Bavaria, who is a Roman Catholic, has authorized the Protestant pastors in his Kingdom to raise subscriptions for a monument, which is about to be erected to the memory of Martin Luther, at Worms.

Lang Hastings, aged 57, committed suicide at Bangor, Me., on the 15th inst., having become insane from spiritualism, or become a spiritualist from insanity.

There are 324,000 free persons and 203,197 slaves in Louisiana, and since 1850, while the increase of the free population has been nearly 51 per cent., that of the slave population has been but 8 per cent. The emigration to Texas and Arkansas has probably had some influence in producing this unexpected result.

"WONDERFUL CURE"—A pomade for beautifying the hair, highly perfumed, superior to any French article imported, and for half the price. For dressing the hair, and giving it a beautiful glossy appearance. It causes the hair to grow in the most natural manner. It removes dandruff, always gives the hair the appearance of fresh young hair. Price only 50 cents. None genuine unless signed by J. BRUNER, & Co., N. York. Proprietors of the "Hall of a Thousand Flowers." For sale by all Druggists. Feb. 21—50—1857.

MARRIED.—On the 23d instant, by the Rev. J. H. Meigs, Mr. T. J. Kizer to Miss Sarah M. Kizer, both of Columbia. In Lancaster, on Tuesday, the 28th instant, by the Rev. James N. King, William H. Sams, Esq., of Chambersburg, to Miss Abigail H. Sams, daughter of Dr. South. In Harrisburg, on Wednesday evening, the 21st instant, by the Rev. J. H. Meigs, Mr. J. C. Dickson, of the Philadelphia Conference, to Atty. Gen. A. A. Vincent, eldest daughter of Mr. A. Winchester, Philadelphia.

DIED.—In Lancaster, on Sunday evening last, Mrs. Catharine, widow of Mr. John S. Gable, aged 44 years. In Paradise township, on Saturday evening, the 21st instant, LARA HUNTON, in the 91st year of her age. In this county, on Wednesday afternoon, the 27th inst., a young son of Luther Richards, in the 14th year of age.

Columbia Fire Company.—A STATEMENT of the property of the said Company, as taken on the 1st of APRIL, 1857, at 7 o'clock, at which a full attendance of members is requested, for the transaction of business. ISAAC PUSEY, Secretary. Columbia, March 25, 1857.

LOST.—A BOAT six weeks ago, near the Old Fellows' Hall, on the WHOLESALE MARKET. The owner will be rewarded on leaving it at this office. Columbia, March 25, 1857.

BOAT FOR SALE.—A FIRST-RATE, new, well-finished SKIFF, with Oars and Pole, for sale low. Apply to J. BRUNER & CO., No. 101 South Second Street, Philadelphia. Columbia, March 25, 1857.

PUBLIC SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Lancaster county, the undersigned will sell at public sale, at the Washington House, in the city of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 1st DAY OF APRIL NEXT, at 7 o'clock A. M., the undivided half of that LOT OR PIECE OF GROUND, situate in said county, on the north side of Walnut street, between Second and Third streets, containing in front on Walnut street 25 feet, and extending in depth 130 feet, having thereon erected a newly-built two-story dwelling house, with a garden.

DWELLING HOUSE.—And Shop, with all the necessary conveniences, and the usual attachments. Terms—Cash. SAMUEL TRUSCOTT, Guardian of the minor children of J. C. McKissick.

The other undivided half of the above property will be sold on the 8th inst. at the same place. Columbia, March 25, 1857.

MUSIC.—J. H. SHEPARD, Teacher of Music—Vocal and Instrumental—will resume the duties of his profession, MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1857. Instrumental, including Piano, Violin and Violoncello. Terms—$1.00 per lesson for tuning and repairing Pianos, Violins, and other Musical Instruments in general. Will receive prompt attention. Columbia, March 7, 1857.

Our Flag Still Waves Against all Monopolies!—NEW YORK AND PHILADELPHIA! We are now ready to show our friends the public generally, our First Stock of Spring Goods, which will be sold at Philadelphia, at a low price, and we are sure to be the cheapest stock in New York and Philadelphia; among which will be found all the latest styles of—Cottons, Linens, Silks and Wool Goods;—Ginghams, Lawns, Satins, and all the latest styles of—Dresses, Shawls, and all the latest styles of—Hats, Caps, and all the latest styles of—Boots, Shoes, and all the latest styles of—Furniture, and all the latest styles of—Groceries, and all the latest styles of—Dry Goods, and all the latest styles of—Hardware, and all the latest styles of—Tools, and all the latest styles of—Books, and all the latest styles of—Stationery, and all the latest styles of—Toys, and all the latest styles of—Candy, and all the latest styles of—Confectionery, and all the latest styles of—Flour, and all the latest styles of—Sugar, and all the latest styles of—Tea, and all the latest styles of—Coffee, and all the latest styles of—Spices, and all the latest styles of—Oils, and all the latest styles of—Wines, and all the latest styles of—Liquors, and all the latest styles of—Fruit, and all the latest styles of—Vegetables, and all the latest styles of—Meats, and all the latest styles of—Dairy, and all the latest styles of—Seafood, and all the latest styles of—Miscellaneous, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Goods, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest styles of—Merchandise, and all the latest styles of—Commodities, and all the latest styles of—Produce, and all the latest styles of—Manufactures, and all the latest styles of—Articles, and all the latest