AUMERS, March 13, 1855.

GENTS:—My wife has long suffered from a female weakness. Her stomash was very weak, and it was with difficulty she could draw a long breath, for each effort was accompanied by a sharp pain at the pit of the stomach; her appetite and general health have been very poot for a long time. But your "Bach's American Companied" has entirely curred her. A weak back, with constant pain in the small of the back, was mother difficulty my wife suffered from your medicine is giving her so much strength, that this is last disappearing. I have great reason to be have your "Bach's American Compound" the most powerful and effective medicine for this and other diseases I have ever known.

Yours respectfully, GEO, W. CRAY.
