"Speak," said I "speak; Madame can hear whatever you have to say."

'Andre then produced a letter and a vial, with a bank bill of a thousand francs. The letter, enclosing one bank note, promised him another if he would contrive to pour three or four drops of the contents of the wiel into my coffee. Andre, frightened to death, had hastened to make his confession to me.

'I took the letter; the handwriting was disguised, but the money was good, so was McTague & Bro., New Goods; Columbia the poison; for, having administered it to my wife's lap dog, it expired almost instantly. "I did not know I had an enemy," said I, calmly, "but I have, and I thank you, Andre, for your truth; and as a good action deserves as great a reward as a bad one, here is a bank note for another thousand france."

Scarcely had Andre left the room, before Mad. de Nerac, throwing herself into my arms, burst into tears, and, straining me to her heart, overwhelmed me with caresses: we never alluded to the note or the poison, Lut I know her suspicions pointed to M. de since.

'M. de Mœuris! a man of honor! a soldier! attempt such a crime! No wonder your wife, even at this distance of time, refuses to be allied to his family; no wonder she hated de Mœuris; he richly deserved it.'

gine that de Mœuris wanted to poison me?" "Enven't you just said so?" 'No: I said my wife suspected him.'

"Who wrote the note, then?" I did, to be sure. Their romantic exclamations suggested it; it cost me my wife's lap-dog and two thousand francs, but it wasn't dear at that price, I assure you."

rest on the memory of an honest man. For been intoxicated at the time. shame!

'I never accused him, and, after all, he happy, and I have ceased to be jealous. I years, and have even lost the key."

At this juncture the door again opened, and Madame de Nerae again entered, but she was pale and agitated; her face had lost all its brightness.

'So soon returned!' exclaimed her husband.

"I have not been to the opera,' she said; give my consent.' 'You give your consent, Aurelie? What can have changed your mind so suddenly?' long. 'It is but justice,' replied Aurelie, draw ing coldly away from her husband; 'it is the only reparation now in my power.'

'Reparation!' exclaimed her husband. 'Here is a key you have lost for some years, M. de Nerac,' said Aurelie.

M. de Nerac took it without comment; it was the key of his secret passage-his wife Meantime his friend, laying aside the nerghile, took his leave, and closed the door. Mad, de Nerac sunk into a chair, and put her handkerchief to her eyes.

'That was a deuced clever trick,' murmured the friend as he left the house, 'but it's mighty lucky for de Nerne, I take it, fine women still.

A Nip of Punch.

TIVE WORDS TO THE WITTE-Never joke with stupid people.

$ Lodgin :- House Savings .- (Mostly in Use Amongst the Lodging-House Keepers at Watering Places.)-Every key has its double.

A slice off a joint is not missed. An open tea-caddy is good for an old soul Meat and bread make the cheeks red.

Half a leg is better than no leg. A trip to the sea-side makes one acquainted with strange bed-fellows.

You may take the gin-bottle to the pump until it gets broken. Five fingers hold more than two forks.

It's the last pot of marmelade that breaks the cats back.

Lodgers find the bacon, and lodging-keepers cabbage. Stranger's meat is the greatest treat. The faster you bone the richer your flesh will be. Don't be like the drayman's horse, that draws beer and drinks water.

rolling pin gathers no crust.

Trafalgar Square, its National Gallery, its seventy thousand testifies. contemptible fountains, its ugly monuments. its architectural deformities, is decidedly, as rapasured by Paris, or other capitals, a CAPITAL OFFENCE.

The Boston Post perpetrates the following: "It is said of Eugene Sue that, 'though a professed socialist, he lived like a prince.' In the same way some of our people, though professed Christians, live like the devil."

A late religious writer stigmatizes portrait on steel of John T. Irving. the authors of the yellow-covered novels as "literary scorpions who sting virtue to death with their tales."

it cannot be denied that in spring it "turns over a new leaf."

while your's Young.

The Columbia Spy.

PENNSYLVANIA INDEPENDENT JOURNAL.

COLUMBIA, PA. SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1857.

Rey. William Barnes will preach in the Columbia M. E. Church, next Sabbath afternoon, at 3 o'clock, one of the series of anything of the kind; but what is a newssermons on the great day of judgement. * NEW ADVERTISEMENTS .- Joseph Shoch, Islands for Sale; Thomas Groom, Livery foreshadowed this awful catastrophe. You Stable for Sale; D. C. Wann & Chas. J. Pusey, Hiawatha for Sale; J. B. Garber, $5 Reward; Columbia P. O., List of Letters; face. But, exert your memory! go back

Bank Election Notice. PRINCIPAL OF THE WASHINGTON INSTITUTE. -Mr. Butt having declined the situation to of the same. No one could then see the prowhich he was elected by the Board of Managers of this institution, Mr Josoph D. Nichols, of Strasburg, has been chosen in his place. Mr. Nichols, we are informed, is in every respect a good man for the place, and a teacher of extended experience. The favorable auspices, and let us hope that it clean and easy shaves. We received then of the present month.

ville, was drowned on Monday last, in the Susquebanna. He was engaged on the repairs of the dam and fell from one of the timbers into the water below; he was caught Deserved it! What, do you really ima-in the reaction and drowned in spite of all efforts to save him. His brother jumped into the breakers after him, but was unable to render him any assistance, and was himself rescued with difficulty.

On Tuesday, Jim Merriman, a negro, employel on a flat boat, assisting in the repairs of the bridge piers, was knocked into the water by a canal boat which run into the But you have allowed this imputation to flat, and was drowned. He is said to have HUEY'S SHINGLE MACHINE .- We yesterthought me abominably in his way; and if day witnessed, with a number of our citizens, his desperate love justified his proceedings, a trial of one of these machines, just finishmy desperate jealousy justified mine. We led and about to be sent away to a purchaser. have never, my wife and I, alluded to this It worked admirably and turned out the little episode for years; we have been very smoothest and best shingles we have ever seen got up by any mode of manufacture. haven't been in my secret hiding-place for Mr. Huey has met with a ready sale for his machines, and Mr. Lewis Tredenick has un-'So, then, this is the secret of your wife's dertaken the sale of the patent, and will canopposition to the marriage. Your daughter's vass the country for that purpose. A more happiness will be the price of your treach- able and efficient agent the proprietors could and Vondersmith affair, the Savings' Instinot have, and we recommend both him and tute arrangement, the Lancaster Bank nonthe Shingle Machine to the public, as first- arrangement, and even the Hertzog catasrate rate articles in their line.

MELANCHOLY Suspension .- Second only ter side of her scales high in air, and to the suspension of specie payment by the employed one of the angels on the Lutheran banks, is the distressing temporary suspen-church to blow a final horn, heralding a sion of gas by the Columbia gas works. We financial judgment on that moral, but unfor-'I have changed my mind. I have been may reasonably expect an improvement af- tunate, city. Frantic dives into one or the thinking over this proposed marriage, and I ter the necessary repairs causing the stop other of the banks, on the part of country page are completed, but in the name of depositors and note holders, having appacomfort Colonel, don't make us expect too rent faith in the efficacy of personal appeal Persons desirous of visiting the York County Fair, on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of next week can procure tickets at the office of the N. C. Railway, tage ground of the court house steps, calmly weary, anxious, troubled faces as in the passing them over the road both ways, and admitting them to the fair grounds for the sum of One Dollar and twelve cents.

ATTENTION AGEATICS .- We call partienlar attention to the advertisement in to-day's paper of four share, in the yacht "Hiawatha," for sale. She is well known on the river, and we have no doubt that puchasers will readily be found for the offered shares.

JUNIOR SONS OF AMERICA. - At a stated that de Mœuris is dead, for Aurelie is a meeting of Washington Camp No. 27, J. S. of A., held September 30, 1857, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing quarter:

P. P .- James B. Goodman. P.-Arnott D. Collins. V. P .- James W. Hunter, R. S .- Charles J. Pusey, A. R. S .- Edward M. Shreiner,

M. of F. d. C .- George W. Miles,

T.-Wm. F. Lloyd, F. S .- J. A. Meyers,

C .- Jno. L. Miles.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.-Harper for October has been received. Of the general charactand more filling at the price. Thoroughly frolic as does his mistress. ter of this publication it is unnecessary to disgusted with the company we found ourspeak; of the particular number now offered selves in, we secured a dollar relief note in us, it is sufficient to say that it is of the a remote pocket and snored indifference and same varied and interesting character as its | defiance to banks and their misfortunes. predecessors. The leading illustrated articles are, The Ship of the Desert, A Winter crisis, the rates of money, &c., the sole in the South, and The National Assembly; foundation for cheerful converse, in Philathe lighter portion of the contents is most delphia, we need not say. We tired of asexcellent, and the Editor's Drawer overflows suring anxious enquirers that Columbia with humor. We can honestly recommend this monthly up a theatrical start of surprise when into those who desire a readable periodical, formed that it commanded the same modest THE LONDON COOK'S COMPLAINT (at this and one which will please every member of discount, with the brokers, as other country time of the year) to HER FAITHITE ZI .- The a family. The publishers have succeeded funds. entirely in suiting the popular taste, as

> KNICKERBOCKER.—The October number of down, in imitation of its city and country be granted as follows: this magazine has been received. It is a cotemporaries. We will take its notes in thing of course to praise the Knickerbocker: every number is filled, from table of contents | tions to the Spy. to the last word of the Editor's Table, with a strictly mathematical course of reading.—
> the country will go to the devil or survive
> The property to trustees, for the creditors.
> The following gentlemen were suggested The present number is illustrated with a

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST .- We have re ceived the October number of this agricultural periodical, and recommend it to our farmers. It is published by Orange Judd, A. Whatever the wind may do in winter, M., 191 Water st., N. Y., at the very moderate price of one dellar per annum.

A secret has been admirably defined Morro for the Governor of Utan .- Go as "anything made known to everyhody in confidence that they have been mainly ina whisper."

But Governor Pollock has called together The Suspension. the legislature, and if that sapient body Don't now, my dear friends, don't turn loes not ease up the country, there is an end way in disgust! We know perfectly that to our faith in human wisdom. On Tuesday you are tired of the subject, and have enough next they convene, and we sincerely hope uncurrent funds on hand, one and all, to hat, because of the first class opportunities make you feel sick and faint at the bare for outside remuneration, the members will name of banks. But consider, dearly benot neglect to draw a liberal per diem from loved! must not the Spy exclaim, "We told upon prophets.

in country moncy.

consciousness of having little to lose, we left

We could not entirely escape, however .-

ating. Two mournful crowds surrounded upon those institutions, which had its reflec-multitude. Solid and prosperous citizens, who had held up their heads under the Ford trophe, looked as if the figure of justice on the new court house had found the Lancastook place momentarily; and the magical facial changes, from do-or-die determination

Rowe (who knows what our mutual relation

Returning to the railroad in high spirits, bank officers from the western part of the gence, telegraphic and otherwise, gathered we first noticed the melancholy effect of the crisis upon trade, and the poorer classes .-

Not one of the Presidents, Cashiers, &c.

bought peaches from the hucksters, but all contented themselves with pea-nuts, cheaper

How we found suspension, and crash, and money was as good as gold, and of getting

Not having been present on the eventful unlimited amounts in payment of subscrip-

We shall not speculate upon the probable

Of course "there is unnecessary alarm!"

"all that is wanted is confidence!" "there is add, we don't much care.

may yet beil.

amiss.

you so! Have we not all along predicted the state coffers, for their valuable services. this panie?" &c., &c? Not that the Spy did PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26, 1857. I did not expect to write to you from this paper without miraculous foresight, and the noisy, bustling, troubled city, but money is gift of prophecy? We maintain that we too scarce to go shopping, and Aunt and have, in the general tone of our editorial, Julia are consulting over last fall's wardrobe, and devising ways and means to make cannot remember! No, of course not! Not last another season; so I have the mornbody expects you to go deeper than the suring to myself. Yesterday Julia and I were out; we had no idea till then what a comsome months, to one fine Saturday morning, motion there was in the business world .when our community was electrified by the Men, and even women were hurrying towards announcement in the Spy, of a dire murder the banks, which were crowded; people in Bank alley, with minute pictorial details waiting in files for their turn to hasten the very thing they were all afraid of. I was found allegorical significance of the article. right glad to hear Philip'say when he came Now, of course, it must evident to the most in, "I passed by --- as I came obtuse, that what excited the ire of the antihome; all I have ever earned is there: it canine authorities, was really a (we admit must sink or swim with the bank; I won't rather obscure) intimation of the probable melancholy fate of the bank; a fact not un- help to push her under water." I was School will now certainly open under most derstood at that institution, luckily for our proud to think he was not like a gentleman we met running to the Girard, with a one may receive from Columbia the support re- no word of commendation or encouragement | hundred dollar note, as the his life depended quired to keep it a first class school. It is in our independent and outspoken course in on it, when he would not have missed it if expected that the Institute will be prepared regard to the money monster, and we shall he had lost every cent of it, which he did Mouris, for she never saw him again, so the never saw him again. We stopped to see a said we have been perfectly happy ever saw him again. We stopped to see a munity entirely ignores our claims. We mother and daughter who had for the last bow in meek submission to the inexorable three years been putting money in a Savings' Drowned,—James Wilson, of Wrights- law which regulates the bestowal of honor Institution, to pay off a mortgage on a house they had purchased with their own earnings: A brief summary of some of the leading they were very anxious as you may suppose, events attending the "pull back" of the but said the mother, "If we lose it we will banks on Saturday last, (not carefully com- be just where we were before, we have piled from our cotemporaries) may not be always had to work and can do so still. I pity those ladies who have always had sylvania. Knowing (of course) the inevitable result | enough to support them without labor; what here, of the run on the Philadelphia banks, can the poor things do." "Yes indeed," > that was sure to come, and, with a pleasant others will now need work themselves." Women can't be blamed for all this now; our deluded fellow citizens hugging their if they have wasted hundreds on dress, men charged. Columbia fives, with unshaken confidence have squandered hundreds of thousands in speculation. Last week a lady bought goods to the amount of five hundred dollars at I morbid curiosity, like the irresistible in- Levy's; the next day she found, to her great clination to assist at a hanging or a dog surprise, that her husband had failed, so fight, drove us, while in Lancaster, into East | she returned the articles with a note re-King street. The scene was most exhiliar- questing Levy to take them back, as she was unaware of the state of her husband's affairs the County, and Farmers' Banks, and a when she made the purchase. It is not at all dense blue haze seemed to have settled down strange that woman should be extravagant -if it deserves that name. When their hustion in the countenances of the wrathful bands and fathers place them in a station which requires them to keep up a certain style, it is natural to suppose they can afford it. There is a friend of mine whose husband lost everything he was worth, and it was a week before she knew that the very we could not resolve to look upon the grief said the daughter, "for those who employed chairs they sat on did not belong to them. Judge Bowlie and his family have returned from Europe: it was to meet them I came to Philadelphia. We are going home the last of next week. Philip is as devoted to Nannic as ever. He is getting into a very good practice. I wonder, by the way, if these times will not be good for lawyers-sharks among the breakers. Dear old Woodville? won't it be delightful when we are all there again? It seems to me so strange any one would prefer the city to the country; a to suicidal despair, were studies for an artist. farmer's life may be laborious, but is noth- El Dorado encountered no one at sea. (We omit the illustrations out of respect for | ing to the head work of the merchant. In the feelings of the parties.) From the van- the very busiest time I have never seen such viewing the tumult below, beamed the be- city. When the body is weary then comes nevolent countenance of Sheriff Martin .- sleep, as "nature's sweet restorer;" but the He looked compassionate, but determined; mind works on even in dreams, so that "rest and we saw many shuddering glances thrown doth not comfort them, nor their couch ease from nervous looking individuals, who evi- their complaint."

dently, in their minds' car heard the inexora-We have not always lived in the country ble descent of his hammer, and his cheery -but I will not awaken old recollections; going-going-gone! We made him a re- these times have stirred them up, let them spectful and propitiatory bow, which he en- turn over and go to sleep again. To-morrow tirely overlooked, so we passed on and af- is the rest of the Sabbath. I wonder how earth it is impossible to see the gold of Mississippi. we took our seat in the train for Philadelphia. We found it loaded exclusively with heaven.

state, highly encouraged with the intelli- count to settle with you for slandering my on their way to Salt Lake. Colonel Hoffponey-drowses indeed! no, sir, he browses man had seized five hundred kegs of powder during their brief stop at Lancaster. Here on the tufts of grass, and dainty bits of in a Mormon train, and a returned Califortwigs, that grow amid the broken stones in nia party which passed through Utah says, the hall at Fernstone. I would not have that the Mormons were making open prepyou or any one to suppose he was an old arations for war. sleepy pony. No indeed! he is as brisk as The U. S. mail steamer Daniel Webster, arbottled alc, and as dearly loves a romp and rived on Wednesday at New Orleans. She

MARY WOODVILLE. SAFE HARBOR IRON WORKS .- A meeting of the creditors of Reeves Abbot & Co., proprictors of the Safe Harbor Iron Works, belonging to the firm will be continued in now four days overduc. operation as heretofore. A written exhibit of the affairs of the firm was submitted and referred to a Committee:

After examination of the liabilities and own institution did, after sustaining an un- interest, if a reasonable time be granted interrupted run of twenty minutes, shut them; and recommended that an extension

The liabilities to be divided into eight equal payments, the first to be made in den the heart, had better confine himself to whether money will be tight or easy, whether mortgages or judgements on the Safe Harbor vet a little while, and, we may tranquilly by the Committee as trustees in the mort gages or judgements:-Christopher Hager amuel Shoch, Thos. E. Franklin, William L. Peiper and Bartram A. Shaeffer. WHITE TEETH, PREFUNED BERATH AND BEAUTIF no lack of specie currency!" "things must improve in a few days!" &c., &c., all of which, and much more to the same effect can be found in the city dailies, which, and much more to the same effect writing up a panic, are now engaged in soothing process, imploring a return of the confidence that they have been mainly instrumental in banishing.

White Tekin, Pragumen Bekath and Brattler and Computation—can be acquired by using the "Balon of Thousand Flowers" which were a mainly ender a would remain under the would not only render a section of the confidence that they have been mainly instrumental in banishing.

Items of News. On Monday the officers of the Philadelphia banks resolved: To suspend the payment of specie on otes of all denominations.

To issue their notes in payment of checks and deposits as heretofore. To increase their line of discounts as is may be consistent with prudence.

It was also agreed that the Bank of Penn sylvania should be placed on its former footin regard to the other banks, and that its notes should be received on deposit or in payment, as heretofore.

The suspension in Philadelphia is therefore now complete.

As far as heard from, the suspension includes---

All the banks in Pennsylvania. All the Maryland banks,

All the Rhode Island banks, All the banks in the District of Columbia nd most of those in Virginia. The position of the New England banks, generally, is in great doubt, with the probability strongly in favor of a general suspen-There is little or no doubt that the southern and western banks will all be obliged to suspend. the banks may safely weather the storm, is

New York. The Bergen County Bank, N. J., recently suspended, has resumed payment again.

The Suffolk Bank, of Boston, which is the bank for the redemption of country notes for New England, has refused to fulfil its usual functions by redeeming these notes.

All the money ($100,000) paid in on the capital stock of the new Union Bank, of Reading, was deposited in the Bank of Penn-

The Reading, Pa., Cotton Factory has suspended operations, cotton being high and goods not in demand. All new work in the shops of the Rending Railway Company has also been stopped, and 155 men dis-

We have news of the potato rot in many sections of country.

The western railway companies are holding a meeting at Columbus, Ohio, to consider the propriety of reducing the speed of trains, increasing the rates of fare, and oth-

Two companies of artillery have arrived at New Orleans, on their way to Kansas .--They were ordered from Florida.

Gen. Henderson, ex-senator from the State of Mississippi, died on the 16th inst.

The work on the Tehuantepec road has been again suspended. We learn by telegraph of the failure of the Delaware, Luckawana & Western Rail-

We learn the arrival at Boston of the schooner which passed under the stern of the unfortunate Central America, concerning which various statements have been made by the survivors of the calamity. She is called the El Dorado, Capt. Stone. It was hoped she might have been instrumental in saving some of the unfortunate passengers of the steamer. This, however, is not the case, and very little hope remains that the missing ones will ever be heard of. The

At a meeting of the Bank Presidents of Baston, held on Wednesday morning, it was resolved to increase the discounts three millions of dollars before Monday next.

At St. Louis, on Tuesday, there was a determined run upon the banks. Every dollar demanded being promptly paid, the run terminated as suddenly as it commenced, and confidence took the place of distrust.

The steamship Tennessee, which sailed on Wednesday from New York for New Orleans, is suspected to have taken out the fectionately squeezed the hand of deputy many will remember Him who says, "They arms and ammunition for Wulker's new filwho honor me I will honor," or call to mind libuster expedition, notwithstanding all the that "godliness hath the promise of this paper vigilance of the national authorities. world as well as that which is to come;" but The steamer will take on board the remainhopeful of getting rid of the money topic, when one gets their eyes full of the dust of der of the expedition off the mouth of the Part of the troops belonging to the Utah And now, Mr. Editor, I have a little ne- expedition have arrived at Fort Kearney, waited three days at Key West, for the Callifornia mails and treasure per Star of the West, from Aspinwall. As the Star of the West did not arrive, the Daniel Webster brings no later intelligence from California was held at Philadelphia on Thursday of than has already been received. The delast week. By the following extract from tention of the former vessel following so seen that the extensive iron establishment occasioning some little anxiety—she being

FOREIGN.

By the arrival at St. John. New Bruns wick, of the Cunard screw steamer Jura from Cork, Ireland, on the 29th instant, we assets, the Committee reported that the firm have three days later news from Europe, the A Capital Offense.—London, with its their immense edition of one hundred and day we cannot be expected to relate how our have ample property to pay all claims with dates being to the 18th from London. Cholera is raging fatally at Stockholm, Hamburg and other places. The Bank of Holland has increased its rates, and it is anticipated that most of the German banks will be compelled to follow suit. The new elections in Moleight months from this date, and one every davia have resulted favorably to the Union three months there-after; the last being in of the Principalities. Further news have sparkling original matter; and he who cannot find between the leaden blue covers of the least idea whether our the old favorite, samething to warm or gladden the heart, had better confine himself to whether money will be tight or easy, whether dred of the British troops. Fresh bodies of mutinous Sepoys had reached Delhi. We have later news from Havana by the arrival at New York of the steamship Philadelphia. Several fresh cargoes of slaves from Africa have been landed on the north side of Cuba, and two Spanish slave vessels have been seized, as have several persons implicated.

OXYGENATED BITTEERS .- This compound possesses much real merit. The cures it is effecting on every side are without precedent. Dyspeptics who have suffered years have been entirely relieved by a few bottles.

The Markets.

COLUMBIA LUMBER MARKET.

WHOLESALE PRICES.
Common Cull Boards & Grub Plank, $10 00 Culling 2d Common lst Common do Pannel Hemlock Boards and Scantling, do long lengths, 13 00 15 00 Pine Scantling, $2 00@ 3 00 Plaster Lath, PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

FLOUR.—The market for Flour in depres-sed and dull; standard shipping brands are offered at $5,50 $ bbl, without finding buyers, and sales are limited to some 300@400 bbls., at from $6,25 to $7,25 for good and fancy extra, including a small lot at a higher figure; there is little or no demand for export; the home trade are buying more freely within the range of $5,75@$7,50 P bbl. for common to choice brands and extra according to quality. Rye Flour is dull at $4,37\frac{1}{2} and a small sale is reported at $4,25

GRAIN.-There is not much Wheat offering, and most holders, in the absence of a demand, are storing, sales only reaching some 2000 bus, in small lots at 120@125 cts. for common to prime red, 130 cts. for choice Kentucky do., and 130@135 cts. for white. Rye steady, with further small sales at 75 cts. Corn remains about stationary, and sales of 3(2,4000 bus. are reported ary, and sales of 3(2,4000 bus. are reported are reported ary, and sales of 3(2,4000 bus. are reported are rep mostly southern yellow, at 74@76 cts. chiefly at 75 cts. afloat. Oats are unchanged and prices range at 34@36 cts. for fair to prime southern, and but few offering. Whiskey is selling slowly at 24@25 cts.

for bbls., and 23@24 cts. for Drudge.-N. Read the following-it needs no

Read the following-it needs no Comment.

Mansville, Jefferson co., N. Y., June 4, 1855.

P. V. R. Coventry & Co.:—Gents—My daughter's affliction with alcerated throat and stomach, palpitts toon of the heart, and nervous debility, in fact a complete derangement of the system, rendered her case almost hopeless, indeed, I have tried every syrup, balsam, and nostrum prescribed, with no avail, until a friend learned her case and sent her some of your "Bach's American Compound" by her brother. He was very confident that it would cure her. She very relucimily tried it for a few days, but thinking it made her worse, because her stomach and throat smarted so, she send she would not take it for it herr ther, and luid it aside with her other medicines, until her friend (who knew of similar cases cured with the Compound) wrote her saying if she would follow directions strictly for one month, and it did not cure her he would forleit a small furm. Well, she said she would give it a fair trial, for she was sure of the farm. Well, she used it faithfully for a formight, when she said she must give up the farm, for her throat and stomach had got well. The palpitation left her, in fact she was well. For the past three months she has continued to gun strength, and has not enjoyed better health in eight years.

You may make what use you please of this for the benefit of like compound in other cases, and I truly think too much cannot be said in its praise for all increases. Yours, with respect, may make what use you please of this for the benefit of like compound in other cases, and I truly think too much cannot be said in its praise for all increases. While the benefit of like compound in other cases, and I truly think too much cannot be said in its praise for all increases. While the properties of the vegetables which compose it. It contains a Compound Fluid Extractof Beach Prop or Cancer Root," now first given to the Public, but long krown to the Indians as a never failing care for Scroulas, Consumption, I fumors of the Blood, an

October 3, 1857.

PT-Holloway's Pills have been placed, by the common consent of mankind, at the head of internal remedies. To say that in warin climates they save thousands upon thousands of persons annually from falling a sacrifice to dyspepsia, dysantery, durrhem, constipation. Hier complaint, general debility, remittent fever, etc., is simply to retake a five intested by crowds of witnesses. No sufferer from scorbutic affections has ever failed to experience relief from them, and they are guaranteed to cure chronic discases of the internal organs, which have previously buffled the skill of the most successful practitioners.

October 3, 1857.

October 3, 1637.

IT There are plenty of young gentlemen as well a plenty of old ones, whose beards are turning gray, whice gives the former a great deal of uncessness, and expose the age of the latter. To avoid these hitle perplexitie we advise such of our readers to use Prof. Wood's Hai Restorative, which will, in the course of a few weeks change the hair to its natural color. It does not dye the hair hiether most of the hair restoratives, but produces; gradual change of color from the roots of the hair to the final end, and gives a it a fine and glossy appearance—We have seen many persons who have used it success fully, and pronounced it the only invention which in We have seen many persons who have used it successfully, and pronounced it the only invention which has come up to their idea of a "cure for gray heads". We commenced using it about two months since, and if we are any judge of age and beauty, it has made us at least ten years younger, in fact we are beginning to look quite young, and feel very much like getting a young wife. The charge is miraculous, and it would be as difficult to find a gray hair now as it would be to find an in the head of the Duke of Buckingham. We know several old made and some young widows, whose locks are just beginning to assume a silvery luce, and who have been talking seriously about resorting to this remedy, and we advise them not to delay any longer. It never links.—Si Louis Herald.

September 20, 1257-21

IT-EQUALITY TO ALL'—Uniformity of Prices' A New Feature in Business! Every one his own-sulesman.—Jones & Co., of the Greecent One Price Clothing Store," No. 200 Market street, above Sixth, Philndelphia, in addation to having the largest, most varied and fushionable stock of clothing in Philadelphia, unde expressly for retail sales, have consultated made expressly for retail sales, have constituted [IIII] undersigned is delivering Stove and Egg Cont. every one has own salesman, by having marked in figures, on each article, the very lowest price it can tous of 2000 lbs, at $3.50, $3.75, $4.00, $4.25 and $4.50, be sold for, so they cannot possibly vary—all must delivered in any part of the town without extra charge.

the soin 1015 to the James property and prepared and great pains taken with the making, so that all can buy with the full assurance of getting a good article at the very lowest price.

Remember the Crescent, in Market, above Sixth, No. 200

JONES & CO. June 13, 1857-1 y

The Fall of the Wear—The fall of the year has its charm; to the dwellers in the country the changing foliage is beautiful; to cutteens the cool art is healthy and bracing; to the merchant the fall trade has great merit; but exceeding in attractiveness almost all other seasonable charms is the splendid Fall Clothing for gentlemen and youths, offered for a death the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockful & Wisson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia. September 12, 1857 Im

MARRIED.

At York, on the 27th ult, by the Rev. Mr Miller, Mr Jacob S. Dellerr to Miss Mary J. Hubley, both o

SS REWARD WILL be paid to any person who will VV give information, that will lead to conviction the thief who took some 40 or 50 locustrailroad tier om off my farm, near "Hoover's crossing."
Octuber 3, 1867-2:
JACOB GARBER.

COLUMBIA BANK ELECTION. N ELECTION for Directors of the Columbia Bank, will be held on WEDNESDAY, THI ELEVENTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1857, at the BLEVENTH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1857, at the lanking louse, in Columbia, between ten and three o'clock.

Columbia, October 3, 1857 6;

[Thancaster Weekly Times. Wrightsville Star and North American & U. S. Gazette, will publish the above weekly until the election, and charge advertiser.

NOTICE. Lipersons indebted, on the Books of the Livery Stable, to the undersigned, are requested to make immediate payment, and those having claims will present them for settlement, as he is desirous of closing his business without delay.

Oct. 3, 1857-if THOMAS GROOM.

LIVERY STABLE FOR SALE. FINE undersigned offers for sale, all the of the old established and well known Lavery Stablish the borough of Columbia, on Walnut street, but twent Front and Commerce streets. The STOCK OF HORSES, HIAWATHA.

Columbia, October 3, 1857:

FOR SALE, FOUR SHARES OF STOCK IN HIA-Apply to CHAS. J. PUSEY, D. C. WANN. Oct. 3, 1956-11

NOW UNPACKING! READY-MADE CLOTHING, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS AND CAPS AT MCTAGUE & BROTHER'S, Front Street, opposite the Columbia Bridge.

ISLANDS FOR SALE. ON SATURDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1857. By will be sold at public sale, atthe hotel of G. E. Schner, in the borough of Washington, the following described valuable real estime, the property of the late Dr. A. Bitner, deceased, viz: Sundry Islands in the Susquehams river, Iying opposite said borough of Washington, known as the

"ISLANDS OF PROMISE." "ISLANDS OF PROMISE."

The land is of an excellent quality for farming purposes, and produces good crops every year.

No. 1. "House Island"—containing 25 seres, more or less. The improvements are a two-story FRAME DWELLING HOUSE,

Which a winded a Frame Rang 26 by 41

FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, and Kitchen attached, a Frame Barn, 36 by 41 feet, with Stable and Shed attached, Corn Crib, Hog Pen, and other outbuildings—sleo a well of water near the door.

Pen, and other outbuildings—siles a wen or water near the door.

No. 2 Known as "Middle Island," containing 24 acres, more or less.

No. 3. "Big 1-land," containing 34½ acres, more or less. The improvements on this island are a Frame Barn, with threshing floor and one mow.

No. 4. "Spice 1 siand." containing about 8 acres.

No. 5. "Hickary, or Four Acre Island," containing four acres, more or less.

No. 6. "small 1 shand, containing about 49 perches." acres, more or less.
o. 6. A small Island, containing about 49 perchess

No. 9. "Polecat Island," containing about 14 acres. No. 10. "Sheep Island," containing 14 acres, more riess.
No. 11. "Latchem's Island," containing about I acre.
No. 12. "Village, or Thoroughfare Island," comain-ing 5 acres, more or less. No. 13, "Muple Island," containing 1 acre, more or leas.

The above mentioned Islands will be sold separately, and possession will be given on the first day of April next.

Sale to commence at 1 o'clock P. M., of said day, when terms of sale will be made known by

JOSEPH SHOCH,
Ex'r and Test'y Trustee of Dr. A. Bitner, dec'd.
October 3, 1257-12

FALL AND WINTER DRY GOODS NOW UNPACKING AT McTAGUE & BROTHER'S,

Cheap Cash Store, Front Street. THESE Goods having been purchased for cash, at I the time of the Bank pressure, in Philadelphia and New York, and having been well selected, will be sold at unusually low prices.

P. S.—The Notes of suspended Banks taken at par, but it will be expected that persons will make the change when in their power to do so.

October 3, 1857.

LIST OF LETTERS. REMAINING in the Post Office at Columbia, September 30 11857.
Persons inquiring for letters will please mention if

Mayes Samuel F Merrimen James Morning Jacob Mason Elizabeth Mann Levi Miller John B Murphy Ann Miles L H Nater Horatio Neifer Henry Polman John H Promner Nichael Phillips Joseph Rehkerger J G Rees Cyrus Ramne George Reise Sarah Stoll John Adam Schlin C 2 Schlitt C 2 Sackett R H Shultz Hannak Shultz Hannah Swartz H B Snyder John Stewart John Sohen Levi Schlegelmich John Sohen Levi
Schlegelmilch Jol
Schroyer Conrad
Stanley M
Smith Sebastian
Smith John R
Snyder William
Surtori A
Seal John Q
Schneider Bartle
Stelles John Tubbis Nathan
Ullman L. S
Worten J. C
Wilson Henry
Whipper Harriett
Whier Adam
Weaver Hannah
Wolf John B
Wade T. M
Weish Sarah
Welsh Sarah

A. S. MODERWELL, P M Columbia, Oct. 3, 1857 Columbia Manufacturing Company. ILE Stockholders of the Columbia Manu-I facturing Company, are hereby notified that a third in-talment of Five Bollars on each share of the stock of said Company, has been declared due by the Board of Managers, and they are requested to pay in the same to the "freaturer, on or before the Board day of Obtober, 1857. By Order of the Board, GEORGE BOGLE, Treasurer, Columbia, September 28, 1857-29.

SALESMAN WANTED. ONE WHO HAS HAD EXPERIENCE, AND IS thoroughly competent, can obtain a permanent situation, with fur compensation, by applying at once, with references, at HALDEMAN'S

HALDEMAN'S
Dry Goods Store, Columbia, Pa.
September 26, 1857. NOTICE.

THE Books of Sawville & Bear have been placed to the hands of J. H. Hunter, Esq., for neutement. Persons knowing themselves indebted, are requested to make immediate payment to him. Those having to make immediate payment to him. Those havin claims against the firm will present them for paymen SAWVILLE & BEAR. Columbia, September 26, 1857-3t

Sept. 26, 1857-3m

FRESH DRUGS, MEDICINES, PERFUMERY, &C. THE subscriber having taken the Drug

A store formerly occupied by J. II. Haldeman, in Wolf's Row, Front street, Columbia, calls the attention of the public to his complete stock of every article in his line. He has on hand a supply of pure DRUGS AND MEDICINES, and a carefully selected assortment of PERFUMERY, TOILET SOAPS AND FAN-

PERFUMERY, TOILET SOAPS AND FANCY ARTICLES, generally, which he offers upon reasonable terms.—He will frequently renew his stock, and endeavor to keep it of the freshest and best. Prescriptions will be carefully compounded, and a strict personal attention to the business be given. A share of public patronage is re-pectfully solicited.

Co'umbia, September 26, 1857.

Fever and Ague. Tever and Ague.
NO CURE. NO PAY. Call at the Family Medicine
N Store and get a bottle of Ague Mixture—the money will be returned if the cure is not perfect.
McCORKLE & DELLETT.
Columbia, Sept. 26, 1857.

FALL STYLE OF HATS just re-Ceived at JAMES D. GRIFFITH'S, Adjoining Washington House, Front st., Columbia. September 26, 1857.

CORN Starch, Farina, Rice Flour, Tapioca, Sago, Oat Meal, Arrow Root, &c., at the FAMILY MEDICINE STORE, Sept 26, '57. Odd Fellows' Hall.

FOR SALE: 2000 TONS Pittsburg Gas Coal, 400 tons Apply to Balt Company White Ash Lump Coal,
B. F. APPOLD & CO.,
Nos. 1, 2 & 6, Canal Basis.
Columbia, September 26, 1857.

CARTER'S ORE WASHER. THE undersigned is the only manufacturer in this county, of these celebrated Machines—They can be obtained at his place of businesse, corner of Walnut and Gay streets. He can be found on enquiry at the Railroad Hotel, upper station.

ROBERT DUNN.

Sept. 26, 1957-6m Marietta, Lancaster et New Publications Just Received. MOBMONISM, its Leaders and Designers;

by Elder Hyde.
American Genilemen's Guide to Polite ness and on, &c. &c.; Marion Harland, author of "Alose" he "Hidden Path." and the "Hidden Path"

Boat Lifein Expri and Nubia; by William C. Prime.
Wisconsin and its Resources with Lake Superior, its Commerce and Navigation; Constitution of the State, Maps, its Railroads, &c; by James S. Ritchie, Nehool Days at Rugby, by an Old Boy. Republished from a late English edition, by Ticknor &
Fields, of Boston.

The nestical maches of Marketing Processing Proce

Fields, of Boston.

The poetical works of Leigh Hunt, 2 vols. in Blue and Gold. The poets in blue and gold are the most elegant and tasty of any in print.

The Guide to the Orcles, or the Bible Student's vade-mecum, by Alfred Nevin, D. D. Published by blurray, Young & Co.

It has the parts of the Bible compressed into a most in the parts of the Bible shool Teachment of the Bible should have a copy. er and Student of the Bible should have a copy.
Sept. 26, 1867.
MURRAY, YOUNG & CO.

V D MATC JUST received a supply of Rit-uary 7, 1857. The Trues we believe to be superior to any now in use; they are more readily applied, and casy to be worn. All those who are wearing the old common Trues, would do well to call and get one of the above, at the Family Medicine Store. WE have just received a supply of Rit-