Mansville, Jefferson co., N. Y., June 4, 1856.

P. V. R. Coventry & Co.:—Gents—My daughter's affliction with ulcerated throat and stomach, palpitation of the heart, and nervous debility, in fact a complete derangement of the system, rendered her case almost hopeless, indeed, I have tried every syrup, balsam, and nostrum prescribed, with no avail, until a friend learned her case and sent her some of your "Bach's American Compound" by her brother. He was very confident that it would cure her. She very reluctantly tried it for a few days, but thinking it made her worse, because her stomach and throat smarted so, she said she would not take it for it hurt her, and laid it aside with her other medicines, until her friend (who knew of similar cases cured with the Compound) wrote her saying if she would follow directions strictly for one month, and it did not cure her he would forfeit a small farm. Well, she said she would give it a fair trial, for she was sure of the farm. Well, she used it faithfully for a fortnight, when she said she must give up the farm, for her throat and stomach had got well. The palpitation left her, in fact she was well. For the past three months she has continued to gain strength, and has not enjoyed better health in eight years.

You may make what use you please of this for the benefit of like complaints. I have since seen the good effects of this Compound in other cases, and I truly think too much cannot be said in its praise for all nervous and scrofula diseases. Yours, with respect,

MRS. MIRIAM PARISH.

Mrs. Parish will be happy to answer any communication about her daughter's case.

Bach's American Compound owes its success to the intrinsic curative properties of the vegetables which compose it. It contains a Compound Fluid Extract of Beach Drop or Cancer Root," now first given to the Public, but long known to the Indians as a never failing cure for Scrofula, Consumption, Humors of the Blood, and chronic diseases in any part of the system. This medicine can now be had of all reliable dealers in the United States and Canada. See advertisement in another column.

PEOPLE'S' BOOK STORE.

THE OLDEST STAND. NEWEST STOCK.

J. J. SPRENGER. W. M. WESTHAEFFER.

HAVING just received their Fall Stock of Books, Stationery, &c., are now prepared to hold out inducements to the public, such as have never been offered in the history of Lancaster Book Stores.

The liberal encouragement extended by the public, since we are in business, has spurred us to renewed energy. To sell books as low as the lowest, and as good as the best, is now our aim. In consequence of the stringency in the Money Market, and the extraordinary low prices at which Books, Stationery, &c., sold at the late Trade Sales in Philadelphia and New York, Teachers of Public Schools will find it greatly to their advantage to call on us before selecting their books, &c.

We would here distinctly say that we employ no County Agents, preferring to remain at home, and giving the purchaser the benefit of any expense which would thereby occur by selling our Books, &c., at a lower figure.

We have all the school books now in use in the County of Lancaster, all of which, we are prepared to sell wholesale or retail, making the most liberal deduction to teachers.

Our Stock of Miscellaneous Books, is unusually large this season, and much lower in price than heretofore. The Reading Public will please bear this fact in mind, when they select their books for the winter. We have also all the best of the country, both English and German, which will be mailed to all parts of the United States.

In our stock of Foolscap, Letter, Note, and all other papers, we defy competition, as we pay particular attention to this branch of the business.

We have also the most varied assortment of Gold Pens for Ladies and Gentlemen, and take great pleasure in making the public acquainted with Our Own Pen, the "Scribatus," and only ask an impartial trial of it, by those who can judge of the qualities of an "A No 1, Commercial Pen," feeling assured that it is just the thing that has been wanted to make writing a pleasant task such as Port-monnaies, Purses, Card Cases, &c., &c., is as usual, rich and extensive, and we invite the especial attention of the ladies to the same. We have also a very fine stock of Albums, Portfolios, Writing Desks, &c. We keep constantly on hand a great variety of Moulding for Picture Frames, and are prepared to frame pictures of any size, at the shortest notice and a very low price. Our receipts of goods by Express are almost daily, so that we are enabled to supply anything not on hand, when ordered, in a most incredibly short time. In conclusion, we earnestly solicit a continuance of public patronage, with the assurance that no effort will be wanting on our part to give general satisfaction, and preserve to our establishment the name of the "People's Book Store."

OUR STOCK OF FANCY GOODS,
