The Nile.

Of all the rivers which enter the Mediterranean, the Nile is beyond doubt the most wonderful: scarcely should we err in calling it the mast wonderful in the world. The St. Lawrence, from the volume of water which it pours through inland seas and forests, and over cataracts and rapids unrivalled in grandeur, comes closest to it in the comparison. But the latter river is wanting in those marvellous monuments of ancient empire which have hallowed the Nile to all succeeding ages, and which we are still disinterring and decyphering for those who come after us. Its waters, while reflecting those great monuments as they flow through Egypt, give exuberant fertility to a country which would else have been a portion of the adjoining desert. The line to which they reach in their annual flood, abruptly divides a sterile sand from the most profuse and vigorous vegetation; and Seneca in no wise exaggerates in saying that to the Nile Egypt owes not merely it fertility of soil, but the soil itself. (Nat. Quæst. lib. iv.) Though somewat beside our subject, we could willingly descant on various other peculiarities of this majestic river; such as its singular parallelism to the prolonged gulf of the Red Sea;-its flow of 1200 miles through Nubia and Egypt, without the addition of a single stream to its waters, which thereby actually decrease in volume as they descend to the sea;-the wonderful persistence and uniformity of that vast periodical flood, which, coming from unknown sources, has, for at least four thousand years, preserved the same times of rise and fall;-the equal steadiness of that old Etesian wind (the Etesia flabra) which meets and stems the descending watersand, above all, the mysterious problem, still unsolved, as to the origin and true fountains of this great river. Recent research, ap proaching within four degrees of the equator, has made it almost certain that they are to be sought for near to, or even south National Safety Trust Company. of this line; but whether in mountains of perpetual snow, or in a high region of lakes and swamps, is a question still open to the enterprise of the traveler. That the discov ery will be made within the next few years, we hold to be certain, seeing the zeal and new appliances directed towards it. The man who accomplishes the discovery will perpetuate his name to all future time, even though he do but confirm that statement of Ptolmey, to which modern discovery is every day lending fresh weight .- Edinturgh Re-

WHAT BECOMES OF OLD BOOTS.-The New York Shoe and Leather Reporter contains the following solution of the great mystery -where the old boots go to:

"Since the rise in leather there has been a greatly increased demand through the country for old boot legs, and mystericus nedlars of an antiquarian cast of countenance have cleared out all the garrets of New Jersey, to the extreme wonder and delight of the unsophisticated natives. For the last six months the importations of old leather by the Jersey City ferry boat have been positively immense, and we recommend to the early attention of the collector these untaxed arrivals of dutiable merchandise from a foreign port. Now boots which are considered old in Jersey would be regarded as miracles of age in any other country, and the specimens of legs which these traveling antiquarians bring to the Bowery for sale are so impregnant with red clay, and so utterly destitate of back bone, that the severest Spartans could not hesitate to acknowledge that they had 'outlived their usefulness.' Nevertheless these legs are taken in quantities from retail shops, by the shoemakers of Mulberry street and vicinity, and after being submitted to certain reviv fying currying processes, are manufactured and returned in the shape of 'Oxford ties.' We examined a few of these shoes in the hands of the operator, and found them a serviceable looking articl

Holloways Puls.—Persons of billows habit, or who are liable to attacks of dyspepsia, should fortify their systems against the relaxating heat of summer by a course of this mild aperient and alterative in the spring. It not only regulates the secretions, and removes obstructions from the bowels, but braces and re-vitalizes the digestive powers, when awakened by indulgence, or rendered torpid by a sedentary life. The testimony of invalues of both sexes and all upes in every part of the globe, demonstrates beyond question that all internal diseases not resulting from malformation are capable of being cured by this great remedy.

THE WONDER OF THE AGE! M. LINDSEY'S Great Medical Discovery which is a purely regetable preparation, for the burdying of the blood, giving vigor to the liver, sto much and bewels, and expelling from the system a norbid matter, and substituting in its stead a health all activity through all the functions of life.

ful activity through all the functions of life.

HOW IT WAS DISCOVERED!

In the full of 1854 a daughter of Mr. Lindsey was uffering from a malignant attack of Cancrum Oris (Canker of the mout). She had previously been prostrated by the attacks of Pysentery, Inflammation of the Lungs and Hectic Fever, successively, which resulted in the above named disease in its worst form. Her condition was most deplorable—her mouth and check were literally rotten—the attending physician pronounced the case a hopeless one. Everything indicated a speedy and horrible death—the death of rotting out of life! At this critical juncture, Mr. Lindsey prepared a compound for the purpose of allewaining, if passible, the pains of the little sufferer. She was made to use if freely, and in a short time to his most delichtful activities and in the result of which with the prepared a compound for the purpose of allewaining in passible, the pains of the little sufferer. She was made to use if freely, and in a short time to his most delichtful activities and healthy appearance—the foul breath became sweet—the appetite was restored, and the child seemed to partake of a new and fresh life.

Hope was in-pired, and the use of the compound was furthfully continued, the result of which, with the blessing of God, was her complete restoration. She is now perfectly healthy! From this circumstance, Mr. Lindsey was led to prepare with greater care and exactness, what had so a stonishingly cured his child, and continued his experimental efforts until he succeeded in bringing to perfection his great Great Remedy for Blood Imparity—rince which time its effects have been anatched from an untimely grave and restored to the sweets of health and the endearments of friends. The young and old have tested its saving powers and sing aloud its virtues. Say they—"after using Lindsey's Improved Blood Searcher, we left as if a new life was stirring our venus, and under God we owe to it more than words can express."

But there from their own lips and then judge of its v HOW IT WAS DISCOVERED! can express."

Mr. J. M. Lindsky-Dear Sir-I was severely afficied with rheumatism for a whole year—nine months of which time I was not able to leave my bed—when hearing of the wonderful effects of your Improved Blood Scarcher. I determined to procure some of it and give it a fair trial. After using three bottles I was able to walk around again as usual, and am now wholly cured. I can recommend it to all who are smillarly afflicted, and believe it it all it claims to be. Yours, truly, JOHN SIIAFFER.

A Desperate case of Tetter and Barber's Itch, cured by the use of Lindsey's Blood Scarcher. I, the undersigned, some time in last March, was severely afficied with what was pronounced by my physicians to be a certain kind of Tetter and Barber's Itch. My condition was one of the greatest meety: my face was almost constantly running with the foul corruption that e-caped from the tubercies, by which a walnost constantly running with the foul corruption that e-caped from the tubercies, by which a walnost constantly running with the foul corruption that e-caped from the tubercies, by which a walnost constantly running with the foul corruption that e-caped from the tubercies, by which a walnost constantly running with the foul corruption that e-caped from the tubercies, by which a walnost constantly running with the foul corruption that e-caped from the tubercies, by which a walnost constantly running with the foul corruption that e-caped from the tubercies, by which a walnost constantly running with the foul corruption to the capety tried whitever was recommended as a core. Such was my wretchedness that I ever made a trial of the dangerous experiment of pouring pure erecote on my face and neck, but all to populos—the Blood Searcher was the first and only thing that did me any good. As a blood purther it is uncupalled; and I have great recon to b of the invaluable medicine, it should be in "very tand)—none should be without it. As a purifier of blood it is beyond all price.

Holliday shurg, Pa., March 19, 1857.

Dr. J. M. Lindeley.—Dear Sir-I have been using your improved Blood Searcher since some time last-summer, and I deem it to be a matter of duty to bear my testimony to its invigorating, blood testorative virtues. I have been for a tumber of years, severity troubled with crysipelas and general debility, but-meet I put my-elf under the influence of your Improved Blood searcher, I find a very decided inprovement. Indeed, my acquaintances trequently remark, that I look so fat and hearty; and know of not other cause than the use of your improved Blood Searcher, Lidging from my own experience, I believe that this is one of the most valuable medicines that woman can use, especially those who are or have entered upon the decime of life. (From 40 to 50 years of age) I feel that it would have been above ingratuade on my part to have withheld this testimony, and in this consenting to appear as a withess before the public, I have been at tuated solely with reference to the voice of con-releace and duty. You are at the betty to make wheney.

My appeare was completely goine, and when, in order to preserve the, I would force myself to swallow a mouthful of food, the stomach would immediately louthe it, and cast it forth with the sprite. I had air-o been suffering with the Ague; each attack lasting about time months out of the twelve, so that, with the Ague and Dyspepsia, I was reduced as I thought beyond recovery. I thought I must die, my physician could do use no good. Such was my condition, when Mr. Lindsey supplied me with a bottle of his Improved Blood Searcher, assuring me it would work a cure. I commenced its use with but little confidence; but, in one week's time—to great was its restorative powers—I found my apperite to return, my stomach received a new time, so that I could eat anything without the slightest meonivemence, and before its healing touch the ague fied as from a charm; nor have I been troubled with ague or dyspepsia since. I enjoy a better state of health than I had done for fiften years before; I am strong and hearry, and I feel confident that, under the blessing or God, I owe all to the invuluable improved Blood Searcher is properly used. HVING just received their Fall Stock of Books, Stationery 20

HIAM JUST FECTIVE IREIT FAIL MOCK of Books, Stationery, &c., are now prepared to hold out inducements to the public, such as have never been offered in the history of Lancater Book Stores. The liberal encouragement extended by the public, since we are in business, has spurred us to renewed energy. To sell books as low as the lowest, and as good as the best, is now our aim. In consequence of the stringency in the Money Market, and the extraordinary low prices at which Books, Stationery, &c., sold at the late Trade Sales in Philadelphia and New York, Teachers of Public Schools will find it greatly to their advantage to call on us before selecting their books, &c. to their advantage to can be seen that we employ no books, &c.

We would here distinctly say that we employ no Country Agents, preferring to remain at home, and giving the purchaser the benefit of any expense which would thereby occur by selling our Books, &c, at a larger finite.

would thereby occur by sening the lower figure.

We have all the school books now in use in the County of Lancaster, all of which, we are prepared to self wholesale or retail, making the most liberal deduction to tenchers.

Our Stock of Miscellaneous Books, is unusually large this season, and much lower in price than heretofore. The Reading Public will please hear this facility mind, when they select their books for the winter.

MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS of the country, both English and German, which will be mailed to all parts of the United States.
In our stock of Foolecap, Letter, Note, and all other papers, we defy competition, as we pay particular attention to this branch of the business.
We have the most varied assortinent of Gold Pens for Ladies and Gentiemen, and take great pleasure in making the public acquainted with Our Own Pen, the "Scribatus," and only ask an impartial trial of it, by those who can judge of the qualities of an "A No 1.
Commercial Pen," feeling assured that it is just the thing that has been wanted to make writing a pleasant task.

OUR STOCK OF FANCY GOODS, OUR STOCK OF FANCY GOODS, such as Port-monnaies, Purses, Card Cases, &c., &c., is as usual, rich and extensive, and we invue the especial attention of the ladies to the same. We have also a very fine stock of Albums, Portfolios, Writing Desks, &c. We keep constantly on hand a great variety of Moulding for Pietre Frances, and are prepared to frame pictures of any size, at the shoriest notice and a very low price. Our receipts of goods by Express are almost daily, so that we are embled to supply anything not on hand, when ordered, in a most incredibly short time. In conclusion, we earnestly solicit a continuance of public patronage, with the assurance that no effort will be wanting on our part, to give general sati-faction, and preserve for our establishment the name of the "People's Book Store," 33 North Queen street, Lancaster.

CURE OF A MALIGNANT LUMBAR ABSCESS. Auburn, May 20, 1856, No man knows the amount of suffering I have en-dured for several years past. My complaint was first to lad condition of the stomach, which give me the Piles. At the end of a year I had two large gather Piles. At the end of a year. I had two large gatherings or sores come out may my groin, covering a space as large as my hand. They discharged sometimes a pint of instance at day, no one thought I could like—att the doctors in this county know my case and have given me medicine but none of them cored me. I hen commenced using patent medicines but with no good tilect. In January, 1-55 I tiled Buch's American Compound, and two bottles cared me. I am really to show my scars—and prove to any situated as I was, that their salvation rests with the Compound. Signied.

PROF O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir.—After reading the advertisement in one of the New York Journals of your celebrated Hair Restorative. I procured a half part tentie, and was so much pleased with it that continued it use for two months, and am satisfied it is decidedly the best preparation before the public. It at once removed all the dandraff and amplessant inching from the scalp, and has restored my hair naturally, and. I have no doubt, permanetty so.

You have permission to refer to me, all who entertain any doubt of its performing all that is claimed for it.

Sinte of Illinois, Carlisle, June 27, 1855. I have used Professor O J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought premiturely gray, but by the use of the "Restorative," it has resumed its original color and, I have no doubt, permanently so. SIDNEX BRUESE, Ex-Senator United States From the Washington Star.

Among the many preparations now in use for the restoring, preserving and beautifying the hair, there are none that we can recommend with more confidence than Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, now in general use throughout the States. This preparation possesses the most invigorating qualities, and never fields in producing the most happy results when applied according to directions. We refer our renders to the advertisement for a few of the amounterfule plied according to directions. We refer our readers to the advertisement for a few of the immomerable certificates which have been sent by parties, who have been benefitted by it, and who feel happy in giving testimony to its wonderful effects produced or
