At all events Armand drove to the Porte du Bel Air for the third time on the 'affair of honor,' and the adversaries were about to be placed in position, when a carriage drove radidly up, and a man leaped from it and ran up to the group.

'Monsieur,' said the intruder, addressing Armand's adversary, 'do you recognize

'I do!'

'Do you know what brings me here?' 'I think I can conjecture.'

All's right.' He turned around now to Armand, and, saluting him with a great deal of politeness,
