

Rev. J. P. Robbins will preach in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow (Sabbath) morning. Service to commence at 10 1/2 o'clock.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Henry Wisler, Milk; Smith & Brauer, Dissolution of Partnership.

CHANCE OR HOPE.—On Monday next the train of the Penn'a Railroad will run by a new schedule. The only change affecting the passenger trains at this point is in the time of starting the Altoona Way Train, which now leaves at 2:45 P. M.; it will, on and after that date, leave at 12:35.

BUY YOUR TICKETS, OR PAY EXTRA FARE IN THE CARS.—Such is the warning posted upon the ticket office of the Penn'a Railroad Company, and we would call attention to the regulation, as it may save trouble, and ten cents, to some of our readers.

POLICE ITEMS.—Complaint was made before Justice Welsh, on Saturday last, by William Hunter, colored, Tow Hill, charging his step sons, Charley Williams and Joe Stiles, with violent assault and battery, committed on the paternal person, at his home near the corner of Willow Lane and Chestnut street.

GOBY FOR FEBRUARY.—Godey, the ladies favorite, has reached us, with its "sweet" patterns, "heavenly" fashions, "loves of bonnet," and thousand and one entrancing novelties, calculated to make wives wishful and husbands shake in their shoes. The number is an attractive one, and will be sought after by its many beauties.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The first annual meeting of the "Agricultural, Historical and Mechanics' Institute" was held on the 4th inst., at Sprecher's Hotel, East King street. There was a large attendance from the city and county, and all present manifested a deep interest in the objects of the meeting.

ON MOTION OF EDW. C. DARLINGTON, Esq., John Wise, Esq. was elected temporary Chairman. The charter was read and accepted, and the meeting proceeded under the same to the election of permanent officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President.—Hon. Thaddeus Stevens.

ON MONDAY last, a young woman residing on Chestnut Hill, near the borough, was arrested by deputy Patton, and brought before Esquire Welsh, on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. It was alleged that she had defrauded the proprietor of a shoe store, in Front street, of three pairs of small shoes, by representing herself as in the employ of one of our citizens, by whom she also stated, she had been sent for the shoes for the purpose of trying them on a child, she pairs not fitting to be returned.

THE business of the firm will be continued by the undersigned, in the old place, would respectfully solicit a continuance of public patronage. B. F. AFFOLD.

LETTERS received at St. Louis from Fort Kenney, says that Col. Cook and his command were all safe, but the grass had been burnt by the Mormons, and the animals were dying at the rate of a 100 a day.—The Mormons were fortifying all the passes. The reported massacre is untrue.

LETTERS received at St. Louis from Fort Kenney, says that Col. Cook and his command were all safe, but the grass had been burnt by the Mormons, and the animals were dying at the rate of a 100 a day.—The Mormons were fortifying all the passes. The reported massacre is untrue.

LETTERS received at St. Louis from Fort Kenney, says that Col. Cook and his command were all safe, but the grass had been burnt by the Mormons, and the animals were dying at the rate of a 100 a day.—The Mormons were fortifying all the passes. The reported massacre is untrue.

THE CONTESTED ELECTION CASE.—The contested election case, between Messrs. Carpenter and Martin, was decided on Tuesday last, by the Court, in favor of Mr. Carpenter, he being elected by a majority of 13 votes. The length of the decision prevents our giving it in full, which we regret, as it bears evidence of being the result of a patient and impartial examination of the testimony, and must convince even the political opponents of the successful party of the justice of the award.

MEDICO-CHIRURGICAL REVIEW.—We have received from J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, the January number of their Medical Quarterly, the North American Medico-Chirurgical Review. This number commences a second volume, and its contents are able and valuable papers from eminent medical writers and practitioners. The subscription price is five dollars per annum.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.—Graham for February is received; a capital number. Graham grows in grace, and let us hope in circulation, for the magazine improves with each issue. It is a favorite with the public, and Mr. Leland, the editor, by his pleasant gossip gains for it hosts of friends.

ARTHER'S HOME MAGAZINE.—The February number of this pleasant magazine has been received from the publisher, T. S. Arthur, Philadelphia. It is a monthly that is calculated to win favor in the home circle, and to be welcomed on its periodical visits. The present number is filled with the usual variety, the patterns of ladies' work being a prominent feature.

GOBY FOR FEBRUARY.—Godey, the ladies favorite, has reached us, with its "sweet" patterns, "heavenly" fashions, "loves of bonnet," and thousand and one entrancing novelties, calculated to make wives wishful and husbands shake in their shoes. The number is an attractive one, and will be sought after by its many beauties.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The first annual meeting of the "Agricultural, Historical and Mechanics' Institute" was held on the 4th inst., at Sprecher's Hotel, East King street. There was a large attendance from the city and county, and all present manifested a deep interest in the objects of the meeting.

ON MOTION OF EDW. C. DARLINGTON, Esq., John Wise, Esq. was elected temporary Chairman. The charter was read and accepted, and the meeting proceeded under the same to the election of permanent officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President.—Hon. Thaddeus Stevens.

ON MONDAY last, a young woman residing on Chestnut Hill, near the borough, was arrested by deputy Patton, and brought before Esquire Welsh, on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. It was alleged that she had defrauded the proprietor of a shoe store, in Front street, of three pairs of small shoes, by representing herself as in the employ of one of our citizens, by whom she also stated, she had been sent for the shoes for the purpose of trying them on a child, she pairs not fitting to be returned.

THE business of the firm will be continued by the undersigned, in the old place, would respectfully solicit a continuance of public patronage. B. F. AFFOLD.

LETTERS received at St. Louis from Fort Kenney, says that Col. Cook and his command were all safe, but the grass had been burnt by the Mormons, and the animals were dying at the rate of a 100 a day.—The Mormons were fortifying all the passes. The reported massacre is untrue.

LETTERS received at St. Louis from Fort Kenney, says that Col. Cook and his command were all safe, but the grass had been burnt by the Mormons, and the animals were dying at the rate of a 100 a day.—The Mormons were fortifying all the passes. The reported massacre is untrue.

LETTERS received at St. Louis from Fort Kenney, says that Col. Cook and his command were all safe, but the grass had been burnt by the Mormons, and the animals were dying at the rate of a 100 a day.—The Mormons were fortifying all the passes. The reported massacre is untrue.

LETTERS received at St. Louis from Fort Kenney, says that Col. Cook and his command were all safe, but the grass had been burnt by the Mormons, and the animals were dying at the rate of a 100 a day.—The Mormons were fortifying all the passes. The reported massacre is untrue.

IN THE HOUSE, a resolution to print 5000 extra copies of the Coast Survey Report was rejected. Leave was refused for the introduction of a bill providing for the increase of the army by establishing four additional regiments. The House went into Committee on the President's message, and Mr. Grosbeck, of Ohio, defended the views of the President relative to Walker and Nicaragua.

THURSDAY, JAN. 7th.—The Senate received a message from the Governor, announcing his signature of the following bills since the adjournment of the last legislature: Supplement to the charter of the Delaware River Railroad Company; Supplement to the acts consolidating the wards of Pittsburg for educational purposes; to change the name of the Bank of New Castle, and to incorporate the Bank of Fayette County.—Also, that the following bills had become laws without his signature: To charter the Monongahela and McKean County Banks, the Bank of Phenixville and Milton Savings Bank, and a supplement to the charter of the Easton Bank.

IN THE HOUSE, Mr. Dolner offered a resolution calling upon the State Treasurer to report where the money of the Commonwealth is deposited, which was debated; the House refusing to suspend the rules for its adoption. The death of J. B. Buckhous, member of the House from Allegheny county, was announced in both Houses.

MONDAY, JAN. 11th.—The Speaker of the Senate announced the appointment of Standing Committees. A settlement of the accounts of the Girard Trust was presented. Also, the returns of the last State election for Governor, and on the amendment to the constitution. Bills were read to repeal the supplement to the act relative to the establishment of two district attorneys in Philadelphia; to establish a general banking law; to confirm the charter of the Metropolitan Saving Fund and Loan Association; to remove the disabilities of witnesses, on account of religious belief. The bill to extend the operation of the stay law was taken up, debated, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. Resolutions were adopted to meet in the Hall of Representatives on Tuesday, to hear read the returns of the State election.

THE following are the Standing Committees announced by the Speaker of the Senate: Committee on Finance.—Messrs. Bucklaw, Coffey, Wright, Souther and Fetter. Committee on the Judiciary.—Messrs. Wilkins, Finney, Bell, Cresswell, Schofield, Finney, Bell, Coffey, Marselis. Committee on Corporations.—Messrs. Wright, Souther, Steel, Schell, Shaeffer. Committee on Railroads.—Messrs. Ingram, Gazzam, Cresswell, Turner, Rutherford. Committee on Education.—Messrs. Brewer, Hurris, Wilkins, Gregg and Miller. Chairman on Committee on Accounts.—Mr. Evans.

ON ESTATES and Executives.—Mr. Bell. ON PENSIONS.—Mr. Gregg. ON LIBRARY.—Mr. Marshall. ON CANALS, &c.—Mr. Ely. ON ELECTION DISTRICTS.—Mr. Schofield. ON RETRENCHMENT and Reform.—Mr. Steele. ON AGRICULTURE, &c.—Mr. Knox. ON ROADS, &c.—Mr. Laubach. ON VICE and Immorality.—Mr. Miller. ON CLAIMS, &c.—Mr. Schell. ON PRINTING.—Mr. Gazzam. ON BUILDINGS.—Mr. Marselis. ON NEW COUNTIES.—Mr. Craig.

IN THE HOUSE a committee of thirteen was ordered to be appointed to divide the city of Philadelphia into election districts. TUESDAY, JAN. 12.—An extract with J. Haldeman, for the publication of the Daily Legislative Record, was reported and adopted. A report was made adverse to the Governor's recommendation of the erection of an Executive Mansion, accompanied with a bill appropriating $11,000 for the purchase of a house and lot on Front street, for the Governor's residence, which was passed without opposition. A bill was read enacting the Bank of Pennsylvania to make an assignment, and transfer its charter to new parties. A special committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Brewer, Gregg and Craig, was appointed to escort the Governor east to the capital, on Tuesday next.

IN THE HOUSE the Speaker announced the following Standing Committees: Ways and Means.—Messrs. Calloun, Jackson, Struthers, Smith, of Cambria; Crawford, Turner, Rhodes and Imbrie. Judiciary.—Messrs. Goepf, Nill, Chase, Jenkins, Smith, of Berks; Lawrence, Owen, Calloun and McClure. Corporations.—Messrs. Yearsley, Hamill, Ent and McDonald. Railroads.—Messrs. Westbrook, Jackson, Lawrence, Lauman, Wilcox, Williams, Shaw, Mellor, Smith, of Wyoming; Donnaway, Pownall, Askins and Benson.

A bill was read to repeal the act consolidating the Lebanon Valley and Reading Railroad Companies. A number of other bills of no general interest were read. A joint convention of the two Houses met to count the votes cast on the proposed amendments to the Constitution. WEDNESDAY, JAN. 13th.—In the Senate, the Speaker presented the annual reports of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund and Auditor General.

IN THE HOUSE the report of the State Treasurer, showing where the money of the Commonwealth is deposited, was presented and read. It shows that of the balance in hand, $709,141, the amount of $487,003, is deposited in banks, and $165,051 is cash in the treasury.

MONDAY, JAN. 11th.—In the Senate a report was received from the War Department, of the surveys of the rivers and harbors on the lakes in the State of New York. Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, who was entitled to the floor on the Kansas question, declined speaking at present, on account of the unsettled position of affairs. Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire obtained the floor, and will speak on Monday next. A joint resolution was passed giving the President power to nominate for restoration to their former positions on the gay list any of the dropped, retired, or furloughed officers.

THE President's special message on the capture of Walker, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

IN THE HOUSE, a resolution to print 5000 extra copies of the Coast Survey Report was rejected. Leave was refused for the introduction of a bill providing for the increase of the army by establishing four additional regiments. The House went into Committee on the President's message, and Mr. Grosbeck, of Ohio, defended the views of the President relative to Walker and Nicaragua.

THURSDAY, JAN. 7th.—The Senate received a message from the Governor, announcing his signature of the following bills since the adjournment of the last legislature: Supplement to the charter of the Delaware River Railroad Company; Supplement to the acts consolidating the wards of Pittsburg for educational purposes; to change the name of the Bank of New Castle, and to incorporate the Bank of Fayette County.—Also, that the following bills had become laws without his signature: To charter the Monongahela and McKean County Banks, the Bank of Phenixville and Milton Savings Bank, and a supplement to the charter of the Easton Bank.

IN THE HOUSE, Mr. Dolner offered a resolution calling upon the State Treasurer to report where the money of the Commonwealth is deposited, which was debated; the House refusing to suspend the rules for its adoption. The death of J. B. Buckhous, member of the House from Allegheny county, was announced in both Houses.

MONDAY, JAN. 11th.—The Speaker of the Senate announced the appointment of Standing Committees. A settlement of the accounts of the Girard Trust was presented. Also, the returns of the last State election for Governor, and on the amendment to the constitution. Bills were read to repeal the supplement to the act relative to the establishment of two district attorneys in Philadelphia; to establish a general banking law; to confirm the charter of the Metropolitan Saving Fund and Loan Association; to remove the disabilities of witnesses, on account of religious belief. The bill to extend the operation of the stay law was taken up, debated, and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. Resolutions were adopted to meet in the Hall of Representatives on Tuesday, to hear read the returns of the State election.

THE following are the Standing Committees announced by the Speaker of the Senate: Committee on Finance.—Messrs. Bucklaw, Coffey, Wright, Souther and Fetter. Committee on the Judiciary.—Messrs. Wilkins, Finney, Bell, Cresswell, Schofield, Finney, Bell, Coffey, Marselis. Committee on Corporations.—Messrs. Wright, Souther, Steel, Schell, Shaeffer. Committee on Railroads.—Messrs. Ingram, Gazzam, Cresswell, Turner, Rutherford. Committee on Education.—Messrs. Brewer, Hurris, Wilkins, Gregg and Miller. Chairman on Committee on Accounts.—Mr. Evans.

ON ESTATES and Executives.—Mr. Bell. ON PENSIONS.—Mr. Gregg. ON LIBRARY.—Mr. Marshall. ON CANALS, &c.—Mr. Ely. ON ELECTION DISTRICTS.—Mr. Schofield. ON RETRENCHMENT and Reform.—Mr. Steele. ON AGRICULTURE, &c.—Mr. Knox. ON ROADS, &c.—Mr. Laubach. ON VICE and Immorality.—Mr. Miller. ON CLAIMS, &c.—Mr. Schell. ON PRINTING.—Mr. Gazzam. ON BUILDINGS.—Mr. Marselis. ON NEW COUNTIES.—Mr. Craig.

IN THE HOUSE a committee of thirteen was ordered to be appointed to divide the city of Philadelphia into election districts. TUESDAY, JAN. 12.—An extract with J. Haldeman, for the publication of the Daily Legislative Record, was reported and adopted. A report was made adverse to the Governor's recommendation of the erection of an Executive Mansion, accompanied with a bill appropriating $11,000 for the purchase of a house and lot on Front street, for the Governor's residence, which was passed without opposition. A bill was read enacting the Bank of Pennsylvania to make an assignment, and transfer its charter to new parties. A special committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Brewer, Gregg and Craig, was appointed to escort the Governor east to the capital, on Tuesday next.

IN THE HOUSE the Speaker announced the following Standing Committees: Ways and Means.—Messrs. Calloun, Jackson, Struthers, Smith, of Cambria; Crawford, Turner, Rhodes and Imbrie. Judiciary.—Messrs. Goepf, Nill, Chase, Jenkins, Smith, of Berks; Lawrence, Owen, Calloun and McClure. Corporations.—Messrs. Yearsley, Hamill, Ent and McDonald. Railroads.—Messrs. Westbrook, Jackson, Lawrence, Lauman, Wilcox, Williams, Shaw, Mellor, Smith, of Wyoming; Donnaway, Pownall, Askins and Benson.

A bill was read to repeal the act consolidating the Lebanon Valley and Reading Railroad Companies. A number of other bills of no general interest were read. A joint convention of the two Houses met to count the votes cast on the proposed amendments to the Constitution. WEDNESDAY, JAN. 13th.—In the Senate, the Speaker presented the annual reports of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund and Auditor General.

IN THE HOUSE the report of the State Treasurer, showing where the money of the Commonwealth is deposited, was presented and read. It shows that of the balance in hand, $709,141, the amount of $487,003, is deposited in banks, and $165,051 is cash in the treasury.

MONDAY, JAN. 11th.—In the Senate a report was received from the War Department, of the surveys of the rivers and harbors on the lakes in the State of New York. Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, who was entitled to the floor on the Kansas question, declined speaking at present, on account of the unsettled position of affairs. Mr. Hale, of New Hampshire obtained the floor, and will speak on Monday next. A joint resolution was passed giving the President power to nominate for restoration to their former positions on the gay list any of the dropped, retired, or furloughed officers.

HE has fulsome dedications, and is obliged to buy innumerable copies of stupid books, as he knows well enough that the dedication is written for no other object. He has his town house and his country house, his carriage horses and his riding horses, besides hunting horses for his friends and his grooms, and favorite dogs, every one of which is a source of endless anxiety to him. With his possessions increase his cares.

HE has relations without end constantly springing up, and they clamor at his gates, and demand relief as boldly as paupers knocking at an union work house. He must not question a tradesman's account, but submit gracefully to every imposition, inasmuch as he has plenty of money, and can well afford to pay for it.

HE is expected, from his exalted position, to set an example to others; so vote to him if he is not regular in his attendance at church, and still greater vote to him if he should happen during an apocalyptic sermon, to fall asleep; vote to him if he attempts to sneak off a jury, or tries to get himself excused from attending at an inquest; vote to him if he refuses to serve as church warden; vote to him if he is diffident about examining charity children, or delicate about the distribution of tracts or soup tickets; and everlasting vote to him, if he fail in running about with all the benevolent old women of the neighborhood in catechizing, relieving, and visiting the queerest people in the queerest places.

LEAVES FROM A CHRISTMAS TREE, OR THOUGHTS THAT HANG ON PLAYTHINGS.—Pleasure is but a ball that a child runs after so long as it keeps rolling, but which he kicks away from him the moment it stops. The character that has holes pierced in it isn't worth a pin, and you can say the same of a child's dream.

THE child takes pleasure in blowing its trumpet. What is music to itself is discord to others; and yet it will persevere for hours. The man becomes often as great a nuisance when he allows his vanity to be incessantly pushing him before others to blow his own trumpet.

WE generally make the most of any little danger. We shrink one moment and laugh at our fears the next, like young ladies pulling loubon crackers. Most apprehensions have a ridiculous or a pleasant termination. The end is generally a motto or a sweatment. A good book is like traveling. The memory is sure to make some agreeable passage. The doll that speaks frequently ends badly. The possession of its gift is the cause of its destruction. To find out the secret of its inspiration it is picked to pieces. It is the fate of genius all over.

IT is pleasant to see a green old age, like a Christmas tree, comfortably boxed in at home. It is pleasant to see its trunk, bent beneath the weight of riches, surrounded by a host of happy children. It is pleasant to see it stretching out its hospitable arms to all, as though it were anxious to embrace the entire party. It is pleasant to see it blossoming with generous things, and shedding a cheerful light on the gay circle it delights in drawing around it. And it is pleasant to see it distributing with a lavish hand the treasures it has accumulated on all branches, and to notice its head rising higher every time it parts with a fresh gift.

THE SHOPS OF SHANGHAI.—Some of the best shops of Shanghai city open upon the tea-gardens; some resound with the buzz of imprisoned insects and the song of caged birds, there are "curio" shops, where are to be seen antiquities of dynasties long anterior to the Christian era, carefully wrought by living hands; there are caricatures of the English barbarians, one of which I cannot refrain from buying; there are carvings in bamboo, very inferior to Canton; there are shops for fans, and embroideries and silks, decidedly inferior to Ningpo. There is also the studio of a portrait painter, not probably a dangerous rival of Lampon, of Macao. There is loud talking in that studio. A Yankee Captain is inspecting a portrait of himself, which has been painted at a contract price of some $20. The Yankee is a man about forty, with streaks of gray in his bushy hair and beard, with a slight defect in one eye, a large nose, and a peck marked face. Yet, withal, thanks to his influence of hair and an expression of jaunty determination and devil-may-care good-nature, he is a manly looking fellow. He is looking ruefully, however, at this counterfeit representation of himself which is to go on to the girl of his heart at New York. It is a most laugher moving caricature of all the salient points of his physiognomy. The Yankee swears that it is no more like him than hickory nuts are like thunder. The artist has produced a small looking glass, which he places beside the portrait, and pointing to the gray hair and squinting eye and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got? Hab got? Hab got? How can make handsome man's nose go not handsome face?" Let us leave these parties, for there seems likelihood of a hot dispute, and the peck-mark of the portrait, and then to the present originals from which they were copied, says triumphantly at each verification, "Hab got?