"You don't seem to have common sense or common decores coulch to live in this world, so the rollier you are killed off the betfer," Woldly replied Mr. Wissins, "I shall have the sale and risk the consequences."

And he vid according to his word. The med flag, in loss than a week, was unfurled from one of the windows of the handsome West End house, and the humbled and disecorolate Wigginses retired to a meaner abode, in a small street, the furniture of which corresponded much better with the condition of a man who could pay only forty dents on the dollar!

Wiggins himself was bonest at heart; but the Wiszinses in the mass were weak, vain and pretentious. The suddenness with which they fell from an extreme height sturmed and blinded them, and it was some time before a new end better life began to vitalize their acrons. It did, however, banks to the result to conduct of their head!

There is a lesson in the fall of the Wigginses, and a good "any lessons in the way 'iney managed to get along after their fall. With the reader's leave we may look in upon them again, at intervals. We think them worth observing.

Pipe and Cigar Smoking, &c. These are such nuisances to the fresh green creations of bone, muscle, and spirit, called "man ' er "woman," before they are we wonder not that all sorts of subterfages wrade the muisance of the smoke.

The smoker often so cooly proceeds, when Fou are shut united stage coach or a chamber stock as in the other departments of the with him, to turn you into this ham, and business, we can safely pronounce it comdoes it so politely, with, "I ber your parplete. Call at Haldeman's and judge for don," or "hope a cigar don't onend you," yourselves. that it is difficult to say but dislike it, and impossible to quarrel.

one who was striking the light, and screamed smith a tall. out, "Heavens! what would you do. Mon-"I would light my cigar." "What for? "Oh, don't smoke; please don't smoke," cried the anti-smoker, in increasing agony; "see that sack between my legs-it is powder I am taking contraband to my brotherin law!" "Diable," said the smoker, "you are a good man for telling us of it," and the alling the was extinguished, and the cigars returned to the pouches.

The smokers, however, were so indignant at being thus deprived of their eigars, that at the next station they called upon a policeman, and reported the contraband-powder man. The police began to arrest him, and to open his sack, in which were found nothing but chemisettes, hadkerchiefs, &c., &c .-The smokers, yet more indignant, reproached him for falsehood. His defence was, "Cigars them off. He was taken to the Hospital make me cruelly sick. If I had asked them not to smoke, because of my ill-health, they would have laughed at my effeminacy. My only protection was the powder ruse."

Some years since, on the Kanawha, (Va..) we were participant in a richer scene than this. Twelve of us, a hot summer morning, were put into a big stage coach to start for crossing the mountains. The old coach was recking with dead tobacen smoke. The sun was pouring down its rays in intense heat. Six eigars were lit, all of bad quality, and one rine. Every man, ashe began, "begged pardon" of his neighbor: "hoped smoke did not offend him:" but yet began, without Is a skunk about?" were common exclamations. At last, when the curiosity of all vacy. was piqued to the utmost, a very quiet man in the corner of the conch said very civilly. "I suppose it's my asafetida; I beg your parden, gentlemen: I hope it don't offend anybody: I should be very corry to be disagreeable to anybody." "Asafitida! Asa-"Getlemen, I am an Englishman, traveling in your beautiful country. The scenery stuff which so abounds in sensation weeklies, on the coast, and in a manner glutted the sull transly me is lewishing. Your takes Published by Epes Sargent, 289 Washington markets, and that in consequence of this the all around me is bewitching. Your tobacco kills me. I have been suffering intense agonies from nausea riding here with you. I did not complain, for I knew you would my asafetida.

"That's too good," exclaimed one, and New York -Express.

A lady asked a child how long it took | Company to Mr. John Bull. to build Rome, and was answered a night "How do you make that out?" She replied. "Because mamma told mr is was not built in a day."

ESOne of our exchanges speaks of a "finished scamp." We wish they were all finished.

EC. Why is a bank-note like a fish?-

"Friends at a pinch"-a pair of tight boots.

The world makes us talkers, but solitude makes us thinkers.

no. A hotel-keeper recently asked per mission of a nevel . Ceer to board his ressel.

leaves another in distress

The Columbia Spy.

A PENNSYLVANIA ENDEPENDENT JOURNAL

COLUMBIA, PA. SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1858.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS .- G. A. Leinau Guano: Murray, Young, & Co., New Books Haldeman's, Wall Paper; T. H. Pollock Lancaster Mercantile College; J. C. Pfahler For Sale; George Wilford, Justice of the Pence; Nathan W. Greene, Justice of the Pence; H. C. Fondersmith, New Goods; Geo. A. Brooks, Book Bindery; A. Gohn, $20,00 Reward: Smith. Whipper & Co., Dissolution of Co-partnership; A Country Residence for Sale or Rent.

We return our thanks to Messrs Shaeffer, of the Senate, and Roath and Jackman, of the House, for Legislative docu-

THE Sented Trabe.-With the mild weather foldes the renivakening of Business at off stores. The spring rush is about commencing, as shown by the advertisements of some of our merchants in to-day's Spy.

HALDEMAN'S. - At this establishment, in addition to the already large and beautiful stock of fich goods on hand, and displayed previously turned into bacon or ham, that in the windows, a new feature is advertised. Wall Papers in endless variety of style, patpri resorted to by the unsmoked, in order to tern and quality have been opened, and presunling that the same taste and judgment have been displayed in the selection of this

FONDERSMITH'S .- At/ Fondersmith's, new Spring Goods, at his accommodating prices, A Frenchman, however, we see by the are advertised, and customers are invited to Paris Parit, Lit upon a device to dodge be- view and purchase the fresh beauties: Fining smoked, which is original. A party of | dersmith understands the popular taste and six took places on the railroad from Havre his display is second to none in quality, and to Paris, and were put in one compartment. his stock is made up of every desirable arti- great parties of the country may be disap-As soon as they started, five of them, accele in his line: If our merchants generally cording to tisage, took from eight peuches open with the promptness and energy dis-Sigars, and began to light a match to kindle played at this store our business will soon them. A young man then look hold of the show thring-like brikeness. Give Fonder-

NEW BOOK BINDERY .- We desire to call sieur?" "You see, sir," was the cool reply, attention to the advertisement of Mr. George ly imported from Africa are at their daily H. Brooks, formerly a citizen of this place. what to do?" he added, in agony, apparently who has commenced the business of Book intenser. "Smoke," was the response. Binding at Harrisburg, and offers his ser- ry Hughes and some of his party now privices to his friends in Columbia. We can vately urge the labor immigration cordially recommend George as a thoroughgoing, clever fellow, and have no doubt that work entrusted to his care will be promptly and efficiently executed.

ment, not to open the supply of Africans.

further details. Some negroes are disemconveniences of Pearl river as channel for distribution, are not overlooked.

"The profits of the Mississippi slave-trade

some interesting details. They relate to the operations of the Mississippi slave trade, and are authenticated by operators. It need not be said in the first place that the bark engaged in the traffic to the South must be a fast sailer; for, this is indispensa-ble to the security of the officers and crew, the health of the cargo, and the rapidity of

must be a captain, supercargo, three mates three cooks, steward, and between twenty particularly desirable, but the most h

the same liberties as with the United State-corn meal, rice, and an abundance of vine than that are often carried; but whatever cargo will net $350,000. Freely allowing then, $150,000 for the entire expenses of the voyage, and all possible loss, the profits of must be a plentiful supply of functions of chaplain.

RATEROAD ACCIDENT .-- On Wednesday night Henderson Dougherty, a citizen of for landing and secreting cargoes, and the Columbia, conductor on a freight train on the Penna, Railroad, was killed on the road in West Philadelphia. He was walking by his cars, and to avoid a train stepped, as he thought, from the track, instead of which he crossed to that on which the train was approaching, and was knocked down, and died shortly afterwards. His remains were brought to Columbia in the Emigrant train on Thursday night.

WASHINGTON HOUSE STATION, P. R. R .-Washington House Station, P. R. R.— and thirty first-class seamen. The vessel By the persevering energy of Col. Herr, his must be well supplied with extra running hetel has been made a station on the Penn'a R. R., and our citizens are thus accommodoted with a more central depot than the present one. The trains that leave Black's full is now the French flag, because British at 8.30 A. M. and 12.30 and 7.35 P. M. cruisers will not verify the colors and take stop at the Washington House to take on passengers, and the same trains stop at the the very best, and their good will must be same place on arrival here. The Colonel carefully conciliated, because during the has built him a neat little four by six crib voyage a mutiny is disastrous; and after the stenen arese, when arrested everybody's attention, and which soon began to be insufferable. "What is it? What's the matter?— gers. Ladies can now procure their tickets the captain ought to keep a strict watch. from the hall, with every facility and pri-

> The trains of the Northern Central Rail-gar, red perper, pure water, and drugs. In way now run to the old depot, under the distributing that the greatest regularity is Spy office, stopping to put down and take of disease promptly treate it. As to the capacity of the superior officer, it may be safely said that a sharer requires in it more courage, talent, honesty, fidelity, skill, and fetida!" credained every other body; and number of this excellent juvenile magazine trade. Indeed, the captain and supercargo as everybody thought of asifetida. The public verdict in pronouncing it the period- naval officer, merchant and physician, diploquiet, cool, collected, significant, and half ical best adapted, mentally and morally, to laughing manner of the stranger, however, the wants of our children, among all Amersoon developed his intent and meaning; and ican publications devoted to the phasure he explained him-eif very politely, in say- and instruction of youth. It is pure in its tone and admirably calculated to wean the taste of its young readers from the trashy Published by Epes Sargent, 289 Washington st., Boston, Mass. Price $1.00 per year.

MLACKWOOD,---We have received from think me fastidious. Indeed, I thought I Lcontrd, Scott & Co., New York, Blackcould stand your smoke, if you could stand wood for February. Its contents are-The Condition of Women; What will be do with the number, none purchased should be over "Bat's too good," exclaimed one, and it—Part IN; People I have never Met: Lord twenty-five years of age. Seven hundred, then another; and the smokers, in the very St. Leonards' Handy Book on Property Law; at an average cost of thirty dollars a piece, will amount to $21,000, and their price in Law through the price of the price o then another; and the smokers, in the very best of temper, threw away their eigars, and Zanzibar, and Two Months in East Africa this country or Cuba will range from $450 — by Capt. Burton: Thorndale, or the Conto $1,200. But if sold for $300, say, the flict of Opinions; The Poorbeah Mutiny-No. II; A Familiar Epistle from Mr. John NOATH AMERICAN MEDICO CHIRURGICAL Review .- This valuable bi-monthly has been Review.—Thicaduable bi-monthly has been received from the publishers. J. B. Lippencott & Co., Philadelphia. To properly notice this work would require a medical knowledge which we do not rossess. From supply of African labor, because that is now knowledge which we do not possess. From the character of the talent employed on its pages, however, we can readily assume that the supply shall be so modified as to be legitimate, fair, regular, and estual." Because if you keep it two days it is likely it is of first class character, and ranks high with the profession.

> AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST .- This excellext agricultural monthly needs no recommendation at our hands-its merits are known and fully appreciated. We would, however, call attention to the very liberal ton, S. W. P. Boyd, Fulton, John Long, off r of the publisher, Orange Jade, A. M., Drumore, Wilkiam Idal, Martic, J. K. Man. to supply subwribers to his periodical with ning. Washington Bor., John A. Sheaff Lancaster city, Thomas Baumgardner, do. rere seed of grain, vegetables or flowers, Lancaster en

Reopening of the Slave Trade. THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION .-We find among our exchanges the follow- This body, which assembled at Harrisburg ing from the New Orleans Delta, accompa- on Wednesday of last week; adjourned or nied by editorial discussion and denuncia- the succeeding Friday, after having adopted tion of the scheme. Regarding with all a platform fully endorsing the Lecompton Northerners, and we believe a majority of policy of the President, by a vote of 111 the more reasonable citizens of our Southern layes to 1 nay-20 members declining to States, the re-opening of the revolting traffic vote. Hon. W. A. Porter, the present inin human beings as one of the beaviest mis; cumbent, was nominated with but little fortunes that could befall our country, we opposition for Judge of the Supreme Court, cannot wonder that the article of the Delta, and Westley Frost, of Fayette county, for spite of its very disreputable source, should Canal Commissioner. create excitement and call forth Edrapet op-Pelice Items. position on the part of leading journals. We BLACK SPIRITS AND WHITE .- Oa Saturday do not intend to discuss the question, but give the nitive's as what we believe to be a last a female of dobbtful morality, doubtful prodigious hoax, intended to beguile the color, but undoubtedly drunk, was brought before E-quire Welsh, charged with disoranti-tavery press into a waste of powder. lerly conduct and general desti- and prosti It will doubtless prove a very rich joke to tution. She was disgustingly filthy, and and took counsel of each other upon the the fire-enters to draw the fire of the Tribune rather uproarious, evincing a decided disin and its co-operators by a bogus cry of wolf, clination to a promenade upon the supportbut are there not a sufficient number of subing and protecting arm of Hollingsworth, jecta of irritating discussion between the two who only obtained the honor of the lady's sections of our country without the introduccompany in a social morning call on the tion of another firebrand which, whether Source by a deceptive inducement of whisreal or fictitious, must call forth from the key-a"ted" of that beverage being (motarabid of both parties an amount of angry hponeally) held up as a reward for good bedebate and recrimination certainly flot conhaviour. She gave her name as Mrs. Mary ducive to an increase of good feeling between Burroughs; stated that she was a boarder We copy the Della's magnificent canard: with Julia Miller, colored, of Tow Hill, and that she was a white woman; her present "Some startling and significant facts have come to our knowledge. We have hesitated to disclose them, but after inquiry, examiuncertainty of complexion being superin duced by an artificial stratum of dirt. Julia nation, and consultation, we are convinced that both duty and policy demand disclohad turned her out of doors, in default of a sure. The facts, we say, are startling; they are crucial. They will surprise and encoursnm alleged to be due from Mary for board. seizing and holding the effects-clothing, age many in our counting rooms and offices, jewelry, &c .- of the latter as collateral .and many on the plantations and in the towns, but most of all they will astound the Mrs. Burroughs accepted consolation in the Cabinets of Western Europe, and uninently assist to confirm between the genial French insidious shape of corn, and under the mollifving influence of that potent assuager of people and our own Norman and Hugenot grief wandered through the streets during outh, an unwritten but hearty, magnanithe bitter night of Friday. Next morning, mous and unconquerably league against the allied evarite and the Northern States. Alher condition becoming known, a good Samaritan gave her shelter and food, and contthough the foiled and furious enemies of our municated the fact to Justice Welsh; hence institutions may slocke up, uncork, and pour the arrest. The prisoner expressed a wilout on our battered brows the foaming vials of their wrath; although the President may linguess to go down below, (she referred to be shocked and embarrassed; although the Lancaster; not the other place,) and plend hard for a little stimulus. Mary confided to pointed and embrangled, let it go forth that Southerners have taken into their own hands the Justice a portion of her affecting history, the law, and opened the African slave trade and revealed the names of a number of her with the South: that Africans are now imadmirers, black and white. We suppress ported into Mississippi and other seashore States: that in Mississippi there is a market for African slaves, and on plantations in names out of respect for the feelings of the families of the colored gentlemen implicated. that freat and intrepid State negroes recent-Awaiting the departure of the cars for Lancaster, whither she was hanished to labor work. The authority on which we make this announcement is indisputable. We even have advices that in Mississippi, Henfor the public good, for thirty days, the light one was accommodated in the cellar.

BANISHED THE WARD .- On the same day Bill Brown (figured in last week's police report as dangerously stabled in the lip,) apbut to legitimate, moralize, regulate, and equalize the supply already opened, and impossible to be closed. We have some peared before Justice Welsh, questioning that Magistrate's authority to incarcerate the fair but frail Burroughs in the borough barked on the Atlantic coast and brought overland to the Mississippi cotton fields, but lock-un. The darkey magnificently offered the Mississippi seacost's peculiar facilities to pay the costs, and give any amount of security for the woman's good behavior .-The 'Squire's disgust and indignation, which Hill, here found a legitimate object for its height, and fixing the black man with a glance, thundered forth a decision unperalelled in legal record:

"Bill, I'll give you thirty minutes to leave the pecuniary returns. For a trip to the Mississippi coast to Africa and back, there thirty days." And William left.

Ward, and fix the Borough limits as the of our young ludy readers. boundary of the forbidden territory? We and standing rigging, and supernumary spars, ropes, topmasts, and suits of suils.

An assortment of flags of all nations will advocate banishment in its most compreiensive form.

LEF We call attention to the card of the Lancaster Mercantile College, in another column, which is about to enter upon its second year, surfounded with rapidly growing favor. Its graduates have given evidence of its merits, and its increasing patfurther palayer, to smoke, and smoke, and in one corner of his reading room, over the smoke. We had not journeyed far before a smoke. We had not journeyed far before a smoke and the smoke and smok > Proceedings of Council.--- A special March 8, 1858. Members present, Messrs. Black, Fraley, Murphy, Maxton, Pelan, Pusey, Pfahler and Bletz-President.

The President stated the object of the meeting to be, to elect a Supervisor for the discretion than any other ship in any other asafetida made everybody sieker and sieker, has peen received, and we only echo the must, between them, act as navigator and Waites, R. Binkly and A. Goodman. Counmatist and magistrate, not to mention the a majority of the votes, who was declared "As to the expenses and profits of the vovage, the latest advices were from the captain of a bark which sailed from one of the duly elected.

Georgia ports. He has quite recently re-turned, and reports that on account of vigi-lance of cruisers, agrees had accomulated price had fallen to under thirty dollars a head. The payment, however, must be in Road Committee, which was agreed to. Mr. Pusey moved that the chairman of any thing to report, which was agreed to.

On motion Council adjourned. WM. F. LLOYD, Clerk. Attest.

one round voyage will amount to $200,000 "Where the profits are so exorbitant, we can well understand why the business has been begun in the South! We can well un-A CURIOUS WEDDING .- Says the New York correspondent of the Charleston Courier.-An intesting wedding took place a few days since between a Mr. Hemly B. Melville and Mrs. Earah K. Seymour. The settled, and the great and absorbing question each have a family of seven children—those terly relaxed. of the gentleman comprising six daughters and a son, and those of the lady six sons and a daughter. The sons acted on the oc-WASHINGTON AND MARYLAND LINE RAIL casion as groomsmen to their future father. ROLD.—At an election held on the 1st inst., the following named gentlemen were elected and the daughters as bridesmaids to their officer President J. B. Haines, Fulton future mother. The fourteen children. twp.; Directors—J. J. Eckart, Port Deposit, Md., Joseph Ballance, Fulton, Jeremiah dressed alike, according to their sex, entered the church arm in arm, and ranged themseives on cither side of their parents, who are both remarkably hardsome, and looked supero. The bride is wealthy, and was richly dressed in a pearl colored moire antique, do., John C. Walton, do.

For the Columbia Spy. Philadelphia Correspondence. PHILADEEPHIA, March 10, 1858:

The last Mesalliance—The Laws on Murriage Contracts—English News—The Refugee Bill—The Queen's reply—City News. In that most veracious of clironicles "the osthumous papers of the Pichwick Club," t is recorded that on a certain fuggy afternoon, the adventurous partners in the highly respectable firm of "Sawyer (or Sawbones ccording to Mr. Sam Weller's reading) and Co., late Knockemorf, Surgeons and Physicians"—sat on tither side of a smoky grate in a little back parlor of their premises, and gloomily discussed the past success of their joint efforts to heal the sick, and repair the damages of the maimed, for the meagre consideration of a genteel professional living; propriety of longer maintaining a struggle against adverse fortune and strong competi-

After a pause of some minutes, Mr. Ben Allen, the junior partner in the cuncern, with a sudden flash of light through his mind: exclaimed to his friends. "I tell you what it is, Bob, you must do the only thing that can be done-possess yourself of Arabella, and her two thousand pound in the funds."

To which Mr. Robert Sawyer made an swer, that although having a perfect appreciation of the soundness of his friend's views, and the practical wisdom of his advice; there was one obstacle-probably the only one-to putting his advice into effect, and that was the decided aversion of Ara bella herself to the arrangement. "In point of fact, Den," soid let, with a dismal resignation, "your sister never did like me; ever from childhood she shunned me, and re jected my boyish mementoes of affection: on one occasion I remember giving her an apple which she declined, upon the ground that I had kept it so long in my pocket it was warm-when you and I, Ben, ate i together by alternate bites."

Under the influence of this affecting remi iscence, Mr. Benjamin Allen, with disorted features and wild gesticulation gave utterance to the following tremendous words, which deserved to be handed down to posterity-and accordingly they have een: "It's my opinion, Bob, that these girls don't know what they do want." The right worthy order of young lady know nothings, of which Miss Arabella may considered one of the early grand past mistresses, has been perpetuated even to our day, and has increased to a most alarming degree; multitudes of them have immigrated to our country, or sprung up indigenous plants on American soil.

The last case of a young damsel, "beau tiful, highly accomplished, amiable," and all that, but who lacked the one thing most useful to her sex, and in sober truth did "not know what she did want"-is related in a village newspaper of a Western State. had been with difficulty suppressed during She was the daughter of a nabob in an Eastare enormous. We have been so fortunate as to procure from undoubted authority Hill, here found a legitimate object for its time with a family of friends in the west, expression. He drew himself up to his full was captivated by the insinuating manners and ardent devotion of an Irish gardener; accordingly she walked off with him one day, and the two were made one for life .-Premising that the the story is true-and he Ward; if you're found above Locuststreet the latitude and longitude of the scene is in half an hour I'll send you down for not the very best prima facie evidence of its reality -- we have a few words to say on the 'Squire, why didn't you include the South subject, which may be worth the attention

> It may seem all right and proper to the narrator-or inventor, of this story to treat such a subject in his pert and flippant way, to be served up as a spicy ragout to tickle the palates of his village readers; but to the reflecting and considerate, there is something far from amusing in the wanton sacrifice of a beloved daughter and a tenderly should be thought of the surreptitious and fraudulent manner in which this connection was perfected?

A young girl leaves the home of her parents, on a visit to distant friends; she are dull and with a declining tendency.present year, after which the following leaves her home in all sincerity for a single Provisions were also dull. The London names were placed in nomination: Jesse purpose, and with the assurance that nt no Knerr, Jacob Crosby, David Evans, Sam'l remote period she will return as she left, the American securities were active, and had dutiful and confiding child of solicitous and slightly advanced. Consols closed at 971 editor of that paper has been at great labor cil then proceeded to an election of Supervi- affectionate parents. But suddenly she and 97g. sor, which resulted in David Evans receiving yields to a childish whim, or ephemeral passion, and commits the most important act in a woman's life; and this she does, of Mr. Black moved that the Supervisor be course, without receiving or seeking one employed for the present year, (Sundays word of counsel from parent er friend; with excepted) at $1.25 per day, which was infantile eagerness, and silly trust, she surrenders her life's happiness on the persua-Mr. Fraley moved that a bond be given to sion of one who, most probably, has no mogold or silver, as the head men will not, as formerly, barter for merchandise.

"We may estimate a cargo to number seven hundred negroes, although many more of the man agreed to.

"We may estimate a cargo to number seven hundred negroes, although many more of the man agreed to.

"The assets we found:

"The assets we fou Mr. Pusey moved that an order be drawn on the "holy estate of matrimony," to say particularly those of the women, gave the on the Treasurer for $500 in favor of the that the chief fault is with the parents of crowd a gay appearance. Many children of prudently, and judging the result only, with these showily dressed and attended by each committee be required to make report faithless disregard of their parental duties, nurses, were evidently of equient families. at every stated meeting, provided he has to permit their child to go away for weeks We took our places in the uppermost circle so peculiarly American. Children of either combats were to take place. sex do pretty much as they please; and what is

John Black, do., John C. Walton, do.—

John Black, do., John C. Walton, do.—

Jeremiah Brown, Jr., was duly elected Sectoris a man who here a man who have a occupying the place of parents; or if that to subside. A picador put his lance against consent is out of the question, time should the animal's forehead, but he shook it off be taken to consider the subject well, to and turned away. The chulos again came weigh objections, to decide with intelligence and without peril.

fling when compared with the deliberate wrong perpetrated by the miale actor in the scene, who had nothing to lose; and every thing to gain by almost any termination to his speculative venture; and there is little to choose between the sordid thief who steals child from her natural protectors, and the

But perhaps more culpable than any one accomplishment.

The latest news from England announces sins, doubtless rather from a feeling of national pride, because the suggestion comes from a foreign government, than from any is surely not very violative of "public liberty," to punish men who plan and attempt a nurder, whether of prince or peasant.

Victoria has been frequently accused of ntellectual weakness: indeed, her defamers sometimes hint at developments of mental aberration. But Her Majesty's reply to the petitions of her American Colonies who ask leave to consolidate their government into one great colonial empire, gives evidence of an intelligent benevolence and political wisdom which if possessed by one of her predecessors, might have put American affairs in a position somewhat different-though hardanswer was-and it seems much more like themstives."

Our city affairs present no item of interest this week, except the evidence of approachng fine weather in the genial sunshine which is running the snow into the river, not a whit faster than desirable, after the last fortnight of very bitter weather.

From Europe.

ater, by the arrival at New York, on Satur-Liverpool, with dates to the 20th. The British government was defeated in the House of Commons on the bill to amend the law relating to conspiracy to murder. upon an amendment offered by Milner Gibson, which censures the ministers for not replying to Walewski's despatch, but professes a readiness to amend the laws upon due investigation. The ministers were defeated by 19 majority. Lord Palmerston was granted leave to bring in the bill to alter the government of India, by a large majority. named Bernard, had been arrested in Lon-Belgium will both succumb to the French demands. Nothing later from China had that Canton was virtually in the possession heard that afterwards three more bulls and cherished sister; we say sacrifice, because of the British. A week's later news from six horses were killed, and that an addition in view of the circumstances of the case it India had been received. There is nothing had been made to the usual entertainments can be considered as nothing else. Leaving striking in the intelligence, although its of the plaza, with which the people were not out of question the difference of education general import is favorable to the English. well pleased. A class of combatants apbetween the parties, or admitting such a Sir Colin Campbell would soon march on consideration to be a mere fanciful matter, Lucknow. Gen Outram had twice defeated the bull by the horns, allowing him to toss meeting of the Town Council was held of not the slightest real importance—what the rebels. The Liverpool cotton market them in the air, and one of them was much considerably. But it subsequently became quiet and firm. On Friday, the 19th, Orleans middling quoted at 71d. Breadstuffs money market continues growing easier .-

> The Poet Bryant at a Bull Fight. Mr. Bryant, in a late letter from Spain to bull fight which he attended at Burgos:

the girl. It is true that they acted very im- various ages were among them, and some of or months among comparative strangers, under a narrow sort of roof, which sheltered beyond the pale of their control, or the ad- us from the sun; below us was range after vice of any friend. But this is only one of range of seats open to the sky, descending the evil fruits of that juvenile independence to the central circle, the arena in which the

"An alguazil, in black, first rode round in reality only a judicious parental control, the arena, proclaiming the regulations of is often regarded as tyrannical oppression, the day. He was followed by a procession which if for a moment put into practice, is of the performers, in their gay dresses; the parties have both been married before, and at the least remonstrance instantly and ut picadores glittering with gold and silver lace-on horseback, with their broad-brim-It is surely not assuming too much to say med hats and long lances; the chulos on foot. that parental counsel is absolutely essential with their red cloaks; the banderilleros, to the young and inexperienced woman just with their barbed shafts, wrapped in strips about to enter that condition of life which, of white paper; the maladores, with their as it may prove happy or miserable, will de- swords; and lastly, three mules, gaily catermine in all probability the eternal fate of parisoned, with strings of little bells on herself and of others yet unborn. As it is their necks, who were to drag out the slain certain that parents should have no coercive bulls. Loud shouts rose from the crowd. power to promote a union between unwil- and then a door was opened, and en enorling parties, so is it equally true that a mous bull, jet black, with massive chest and young female particularly, should under no glaring eyes, bounded into the arena. He circumstances contract a marriage without rar first at the chules, who shook their capering about him and trying to provoke him, but he pursued them only a few steps. Whatever may be the fault of the victim Then rese the cry of. 'Ah que es manso! que in this foolish sacrifice, it will appear tries manso! codarde! codarde!" (Ah, how tame he is! how tame he is! a coward! a coward!)

"Finally, the people began to call out for the dogs. 'Los perros!' los perros!' rose from a thousand throats. Three large dogs were brought, which barking loudly, flew at the bull with great fury. He took them one base villain who inflicts the single other after another on his horns, and threw them leeper wrong upon a woman's character and up in the air; one of them he caught in his fall, and tossed him again. The dogs tore his ears into strings, but they were soon r all of the actors in such a fraud, are the either disabled or cowed, and only attacked aws relating to the marriage contract, which him warily, while he kept them off by prerecognize as valid and binding the loosest senting to them first one horn and then the forms, and permit almost any one to witness other. Then the dogs were withdrawn and and ratify the ceremony. The laws in rela- the chulos tried him again, but he would tion to marriage should be framed to protect not chase them far; the picadores poked at a woman from fraud, and not to facilitate him with their lances, but he declined to her ruin under the flimsy guist of securing gore their horses. The crowd shouted vigher "rights:" and perhaps we shall have orously, 'Away with him! away with him!' such laws, when in some sections of our and at length the door by which the bull' country theft ceases to be regarded as a fun- had entered was set wide open that he ny peccadillo, and swindling as a shrewd might make his retreat. But the bull would not go; he was not minded either to fight or quit the field. 'Kill him! kill him!' exthe defeat of Lord Palmerston's bill for the claimed a thousand throats-and the signal rendition or nunishment of fugitive assas- was given, in obedience to which one of the matadores-the primera espada as the Spaniards call him, just as the Italians say prima donna-made his appearance; with a red reasonable objection to the bill itself; for it cloak on his left arm, and a long, glittering, straight sword in his right hand. He shook the cloak at the bull, who made a rush at it, while the matador at the same moment attempted to pierce the animal to the heart through the chine. Three times he sought to make the fatal pass; at the third he was successful, burying the blade up to the hilt. A torrent of blood flowed from the creature's mouth; he staggered and fell; a sound of little bells was heard: the three mules, harnessed abreast, came in, and dragged out the lifeless carcass.

"Another bull, of smaller size, but of more savage temper, was then let into the ly superior, to their present condition. Her arena. He ran fiercely at the chulos, chasing them into the places of shelter built for her own than that of her political counsel- them beside the barrier, and the crowd lors—that she "would be ruled in this mat- shouted, 'Ese muy brave! cee muy brave!' ter, entirely by the wishes of the Colonies A picador touched with his lance the forehead of the animal, who instantly rushed towards him, raised with his horns the horse he rode, and laid him on the ground, ripping open his bowels. I then perceived, with a sort of horror, that the horse had been blindfolded, in order that he might not get out of the way of the bull. The chulos came up with their red cloads, and diverted the attention of the bull from his victim, We have news from Europe one week while the picador, who had fallen under his horse, was assisted to rise. Four other day evening, of the steamship Europa, from horses were brought forth blindfolded in this manner, and their lives put between the pleador and the fury of the bull, and each was killed in its turn, amidst the shouts and applause of the crowd.

"One of the banderilleros now came forward, provoked the bull to rush at him, by shaking his cloak before his eyes, and leaping aside, planted one of his barbed shafts with its paper streamers, in each of the animals shoulders. Others followed his example, till the bleeding shoulders of the bull were garnished with five or six banderillos The trial of the directors of the Royal Brit- on each side. The creature, however, was ish Bank was in progress. A French refugee, evidently becoming tired, and the signal was given to finish him; a malador came don, charged with being implicated in the late forward and planted a sword in his heart, conspiracy to assassinate the Emperor Na- but he made a violent effort to keep his legs, poleon. It was stated that Sardinia and and even while falling, seemed disposed to rush at the chulos.

"I had now seen enough, and left the been received, but the details of the de- place amidst the thunders of applause which patches brought by the last steamer show the creature's full drew from the crowd. I opened unsettled and excited, and advanced hurt by his fall. 'It is a Portuguese innovation,' said my friend Don Pedro, rather innocently, as it seemed to me, and is a horrible sight for us Spaniards. We do not like to see a man tossed like a dog."

> ASSETS OF A NEBRASKA BANK.-The Macomb Eagle is some on "wild cats." The and expense in procuring the assets of a Nebraska bank, and thus speaks of it:

We have been to a vast amount of labor and expense in collecting an inventory of the New York Evening Post, thus describes the assets of a Nebraska bank. We will not mention the sum we have paid for the "We found the place, which they told us information given below, lest it should be was capable of containing six thousand per- considered apocryphal. It will be apparant sons, already full of people, impatiently that it entailed a great expense on us, and

> One wild cat. Two large wild cats. Seven young wild cats. Three fat wild cats. Two old wild cats. More wild cats. Thirteen small wild cats, Five hungry wild cats. Skin of wild cat stretched out to dry, A lot of wild cats. Nine wild cats tied together. One wild cat with his head shaved. Some more wild cats. Wild cats laying about loose. Nine very small wild cats tied up in a

> One patriarchal wild cat showing his Paws of defunct wild cat preserved in whisky. Scratches of wild cat on brandy cask,

Tails of three wild cats. Lock of hair of wild cat. WILD CATS.

188 If a negro be named Smith; does it ollow that he should be put dewn on the census as a blacksmith?

De-A great many drop a tear at the door of poverty, when they should drop a sic-