Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews. L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicale, via: The London Quarterly (Consecuation)

The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)

The North British Review (Free Church.)

The Westminster Review (Liberal.)

Elackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain — Whig. They, and Redical,—but politics forms only one leature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

HAMU JUST FUELING LIICIT RAII MOCK Of In Books, Stationery, &c., are now prepared to hold out inducements to the public, such as have never been offered in the history of Lancister Book Stores. The liberal encouragement extended by the public, since we are is business, has spurred us to renewed energy. To sell books as low as the lowest, and as good as the best, is now our aim. In consequence of the stringency in the Money Market, and the extraordinary low prices at which Books. Stationery, &c., sold at the late Trade Sales in Philadelphia and New York, Teachers of Public Schools will find it greatly to their advantage to call on us before selecting their books, &c. books, &c. We would here distinctly say that we employ no Country Agents, preferring to remain at home, and which we have the benefit of any expense which would thereby occur by selling our Books, &c., at a would thereby occur by selling our Books, &c., at a lower figure.

We have all the school books now in use in the County of Lancaster, all of which, we are prepared to sell wholesule or retuil, making the most liberal deduction to teachers.

Our Stock of Miscellaneous Books, is unusually large this season, and much lower in price than here-tofore. The Reading Public will please bear this fact in mind, when they select their books for the winter. We have also all the best MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPERS of the country, both English and German, which will be mailed to all parts of the United States.
In our stock of Foolecap, Letter, Note, and all other papers, we defy competition, as we pay particular attention to this branch of the business.
We have the most varied assortment of Gold Pens for Ladies and Gentiemen, and take great pleasure in making the public acquainted with Our Own Pen, the "Scribnius," and only ask an imparinal trial of it, by those who can judge of the qualities of an "A No 1.
Commercial Pen," feeting ussured that it is just the thing that has been wanted to make writing a pleasant task.

WUR STOCK OF FANCY GOODS, such as Port-monnaies, Parses, Card Cases, &c., &c., is as usual, rich and extensive, and we invite the especial attention of the ladies to the same. We have also a very fine stock of Albuma, Portfolios, Writing Derks, &c. We keep constantly on hand a great variety of Moulding for Picture Frames, and are prepared to frame pictures of any size, at the shortest motive and a very low price. Our receipts of goods by Express are atmost duily, so that we are enabled to supply snything not on hand, when ordered, in a most incredibly short time. In conclusion, we carnestly solicit a continuary of public patronage, with the assurance that no effort will be wanning on our part, to give general satisfaction, and preserve for our establishment the name of the "People's Book Store," 33 North Queenstreet, Lancaster.
