A few days after, a comrade of mine, who had served abroad, came to visit me unexpectedly, with a friend of his, whom I had never seen before. I could not, however, resolve to lose sight of the grass plot, and as it was a line summer's evening, I told the servants to bring a table and a bottle of wine into the garden. I then placed my own chair over the grave, and thus, feeling sure it could not be tampered with, I endeavored to make myself easy and to enjoy any glass. My comrade expressed the hope that my wife was well, and was not keeping her room, and that she had not been driven away by their appearance.

I was obliged to stammer out in reply the story of the child's disappearance. The soldier, who was a stranger to me, did not look me in the face, but kept his eyes fixed on the ground all the while I was talking, which caused me the greatest uneasine s-I functed be such etad the fintly. THE EXPRESS OFFICE BURGLARY-IMPORTANT DEVELOPEMENTS .- In our "Police Items" of iast week we gave particulars of the robbery of the Adams Express Office, in this place, suppressing names and circumstance which might interfere with the detection and punishment of parties implicated. Up to this time no trace of the burglars has been discovered, but by a curious chance the raid upon the Express Office, developed a criminal project of which our town was to have beheld the fulment at its own proper cost. This contemplated crime, to a greater extent than the burglary, has been the subject of investigation since its discov-
