AND STILL ANOTHER CARD.

An Ordinary Old Style Arrangement.

AS it has become customary for the Merchants of our borough to specify their mode of doing business, the undersigned respectfully call on the patronage of the inhabitants of Columbia and the surrounding country to the store of I. O. Bruner & Co. on the corner of Third and Union streets. They do not intend to advance on the old system of Credit, but will sell for Cash, and are willing to give a liberal discount to all those who favor them with their custom, and do not expect the loss of Credit to be added to the price of Cash.

They have just received a new and full assortment of Dry Goods, which they intend to sell very low, and are constantly receiving additions to their stock of Groceries, which for quality and cheapness cannot be excelled by any other store on the city.

Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)
3. The North British Review (Free Church.)
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only a small part of their character. As Organs of the most prominent writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the general reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
