cloud, I was fain, though still condemning all fighting on general grounds, to subdue certain angry feelings, and to take shelter under the Master's lesson, "that if I was without sin, I might then cast the stone."-And I asked myself a question which I could not answer-why am not I the fighter and he in my place, wrapping himself up in his pharisaical cleak of spiritual pride, and PAPER. thanking Heaven that he is not such as I? Who can answer me that? No, I do not feel quite comfortable in sitting in judgment on this unfortunate person, as I must consider him to be, without first ascertaining whether the five talents committed to my care, with a clearer knowledge as to their uses, have been made to produce other five also? If it has turned out that I have learned a lesson in charity, my half hour's ride was nothin vain.

REPORTED BY OUR SPECIAL "MOUCHARD." A LITTLE BIT OF HORSE TALK .- On Thurs lay, 28th ult., Christian Hirnise appeared before Justice Welsh asking a warrant for the arrest of a stranger, name unknown, who had ridden away on the steed of Mr. George Hepperle, of this borough, with no intention-as informant believed and was willing to swear-of returning the same. The prayer of petitioner was entertained by the Court, and a warrant placed in the hands of Hollingsworth, 1st Division, Mounted Police, directing him to take the body of ---, and produce him at the Blue Front. Mounted on his firy charger, the official departed, ventre a terre, and disappeared in the bridge with the velocity of a noderately dischargedlarrow. Being aimed with precision he hit the hole of the farther ville, surrounded by a halo of dust, and an successful in his mission, and the same eve-Graw, of the city of Lancaster, as the ab-

John, with the bravery of conscious innoployer, a Lancaster trader, had been seized with a desire to become possessed of the York County, where the exchange was consummated, and the bargain scaled in a copious flow of lager. Graw was dispatched for the animal, and his ingenious manner of obtaining it at the hands of Hirnese excited that gentleman's suspicion, hence the complaint.

Prosecution attempted to prove a swindle but the case was dismissed by the magis trate : Hirnese for costs.

We understand that Hepperle, consider ing himself over-reached in the transaction, the dealer having closed his eye with a wretched charger in exchange for a very good horse, intends seeking justice in York County.

The Squire discouraged the encampment project. While admitting the soundness of the great Squatter Sovereignty principle as a political dogma, or dodge, he apprehended in the preset instance the jumping of the Squatter's claim on the part of Hollingsworth, Richard, or some unauthorized deputy. The magistrate is generally impartial in his recom mendation of the tradesmen, landlords and others of Columbia, when an occasion offers for advice to anxious inquirers, but in the present instance he volunteered as touter for the Hotel des Etrangers, better known as the Borough Inn, and highly extolled the bar, table and shake down of that literally patronized first-class establishment. WHATTHEY SAY IN SOUTH CAROLINA, Abheville, S. C., Aug. 21, 1858.

Mesars Farrel, Herring & Co., Philadelphia. Gentlemen—The close attention which our own affars have required since the fire, has hitherto prevented us from writing you about the 8afe.

On occasion of the fire 19th of July, by which we suffered a large lose, our store, with a number of other buildings, was consumed. The Safe, of your manufacture, which we had in the store, was exposed to a most intense heat, as is well attested by the cfects on its strong iron frame, which, from its flaked and seally appearance, looks as though it had been heated for a long time in a furnace. The Safe, with heaps of molter glass and kegs of nails, dueed into a mass, fell into the cellar, surrounded by burning materials, and there was, suffered to remain, case the contents had been removed before the fire reached us, annit the 2d of August, 14 days afterwards.

The difficulty in cutting it open with the best tools that could be procured, convinced us of its power to resist the attempts of burglars, and when it was opened, we found the interior, to the astonishment of all, entirely uninjured by fire.

This test has a so fully convinced us of the capabilities of your Safes, that we would rot part with the one we have in use for a large sum, were we debarred the privilege of getting another. Respecifally yours.
