The Best, Cheapest, and most Successful Family Paper in the Union. HARPER'S WEERLY

Price Five Cents a Number; $2,50 per year. W F would not so often call attention to Hupper's Weekly if we were not well antified that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of internative too prevalent, which blutts the morals of its readers, whiteis their taste for sensible reading, and is altogether bad in its effects.—New Landon Advertiser.

As Harper's Mugazine has done much to drive out the yellow covered itterature, so we should be glad to see this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trushy novels.—New York Econoglist. ngelisi. 8 Weekly abounds in original matter, spicy anger's vicercy accounts in original matter, spicy, and, instructive and entertaining. It has, and decly, a very large and increasing circulation. It into family paper.—Boston Journal. (Itarper's Weekly) is the proper size for binding, an excellent opportunity is afforded for any one wishes to preserve the history of the country as it de, to do so by filing Harper's Weekly.—Pontiach 1. the to to so by hing Langer's version and to to so by hing Langer's version and the control of the times. It is all caves at a clear type, its entertaining variety, excre but just criticisms upon the follies of the times, egantly withen and instructive articles, and its able spondence, all combine to make it the model newser of our country, and one that every family must. Its condensed weekly summary of Foreign and cesus intelligence is altogether superior to that constain any other journal. Being published too, in a for preservation and landing, it taken care of us it rives to be, it will be found in future years as weller a companion for the family and freside as the day which it was first perused.—McConnelsville (O) Interface.

Its illustrations are far ahead of any journal of the kind in the country. Its pen portraits of distinguished living men are of themselves worth the price of the volume.—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

Fresh, sparkling, and vivacious. Its circulation is retably the greatest success ever achieved by any publication at such an early period of its existence.—

Brooklyn Earle. Brooklyn Eagle.

The best family paper we ever saw. Its pages embrace a great variety of reading matter, and its articles on the leading topics of the day are written with an ability which would do credit to the "Thunderer" of the British press—the London "Times." In point of illustrations, it is ahead of any of our pictorial sheets.—New London "Abstricts"

London Advertion.

"Hatpre's Weekly" gains readers and popularity with every issue, because it aims at and hits that average requirement for family reading which this enterprising house so well comprehend. Its articles are brief, timely, and devoid of partisanship; it is as versatile in subjects as it is even in tone, besides being marveloasly cheen.—Boston Transcrint.
