NEW YEAR EVE BALL!

Third Annual Ball for the Benefit of the SUSQUEHANNA FIRE COMP'Y,

AT ODD FELLOWS' HALL, COLUMBIA, PA.,
On Friday Evening, December 31, 1858.
TICKETS, TWO DOLLARS,
Columbia, December 18, 1858-2t

A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

IS my prayer to all my customers, and I wish to tell them that in addition to my present large STOCK OF GROCERIES I have just received everything necessary to the full enjoyment of the holidays—to satisfy the cravings of the inner man, and to the great delight of the little ones. Call and get the "fixins" for your mince pies, cakes puddings, &c.

FOUR REASONS why I wish to do an exclusive Cash Business.

FIRST—My profits are not sufficient to admit of losses

SECOND—I find I cannot credit one and refuse another without giving offence.

THIRDLY—My temper is not sufficiently mild to take pleasantly all the insults offered on presentation of bills when they are over due.

FOURTHLY—I believe it to be the duty of every man to pay cash for what he consumes.

To those of my customers who have paid their bills promptly, I will say I thank you for your past favors, and will omit no inducement that lies in my power for a continuance of your trade for cash

My prices will be less than formerly, and my stock unsurpassed.

HERTS, BROTHERS',
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM, ZINC AND PLATINA PENS,
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS, BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens and during that time having discovered their increasing usefulness, and preferring their extensive and necessary service—the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a pen, on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and cleanness of the quill, with sagacious the durability of the steel pen, at the same time entirely overruling the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of steel pens.

The pen will be found a invaluable article in Offices, as they never need mending; also to Banks and Schools as they will not rust or corrode, and the inkstand keeps clean and needs no cleaning and not corrosive

CAUTION—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced certain unprincipled Makers to foist on the public a spurious imitation, it will please to observe that each genuine pen is stamped HERTS, Brothers' Patent, 18—, and each box of genuine pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name

Pens may be had wholesale, at the Principal Depot, 211 Broadway New York and Retail from all Respectable Stationers in England, France, and the United States.

Price 37½ cts per dozen—$3 25 a box.

THE restorative of Prof. O. J. Wood, for restoring hair perfectly and permanently, has never yet had a rival, volume after volume might be given from all parts of the world and from the most intelligent to prove that it is a perfect Restorative; but read the circular and you cannot doubt; read also the following.

THE HAIR—People have for centuries been afflicted with bald heads and the only remedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we earnestly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Woods Restorative there is no such thing as fail We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the finest and most beautiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been before

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it soft and glossy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the greatest enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to

It is the duty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a beautiful head of hair, either in man or woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left untried to obtain such a consideration.—Woman's Advocate Philadelphia.

Cochocton, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856.

O J. WOOD & CO.—Gents: As I have been engaged in selling your Hair Restorative the last season for one of your Agents, (H M Dickinson) and having experienced the beneficial effects of it myself I would like to obtain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United States, for restoring the hair I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair, but have found nothing that restores the secretive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restoratives is what you represent it to be, I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly, S T. STOCKMAN.

Wayland, Mass., Feb 5 1858.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Sir: It is with pleasure I realized the good effects of your Hair Restorative, I wish to state, that finding my hair growing thin, as well as gray, I was induced from what I read and heard to try the article prepared by you, to promote its growth and change its color as it was in youth, both of which it has effected completely. In the operation I have used nearly three bottles. Yours, &c.,

The New York Tribune, 1858, '59.

THE New York Tribune, now more than seventeen years old, which was the first journal in the world that appeared regularly on no larger a sheet as so low a price as two cents, and which has attained the unparalleled aggregate of more than 200 000 subscribers, respectfully solicits its share of the patronage which the Metropolitan Press is henceforth to receive.

Within the present year The Tribune has provided itself with a new and much larger Press at a cost of $30 000, merely that some of our subscribers may receive their papers a mail earlier than they otherwise might do With correspondents at the most important points throughout the civilized world, and a staff of writers chosen from among the best in the country, we believe that even those who dislike the politics of our sheet concede to it frankness in avowing its convictions and ability to maintain them. We appeal then, to those who believe that an increased circulation of The Tribune would conduce to the political, material and moral well being of the Republic, to aid us in effecting such increase.

The Daily Tribune is printed on a large imperial sheet, and published every morning and evening, (Sunday excepted), and mailed to subscribers for six dollars per annum in advance, or for 50 cents per month.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the Editorials of the Daily with the Cattle, Horse and General Markets reliably reported expressly for The Tribune Foreign and Domestic Correspondence, and forming entire sheets of Congress it will contain a summary of Congressional doings with the more important speeches. It will also contain a first-class novel, continued from number to number thus affording a first-rate family newspaper to those who prefer not to take a Daily.

The Best, Cheapest, and most Successful Family Paper in the Union.

HARPER'S WEEKLY.

Price Five Cents a Number; $2,50 per year.

WE would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that alone, we desire to see it universally read and form a certain kind of intelligence too prevalent which haunts the morals of its readers, and pollutes their taste for sensible reading, and is a large factor bad in its effects.—New London Advertiser.

As Harper's Magazine has done much to drive out the yellow covered literature, so we should be glad to see this new Weekly take the place of those papers which depend for a circulation on foul, trashy novels.—New York Examiner.

Harper's Weekly abounds in original matter, spicy piquant, instructive and entertaining It has just deserved a very large and increasing circulation. It is a up top family paper.—Boston Journal.

Harper's Weekly of large size for binding and with excellent opportunity is afforded for any one who wishes to preserve the history of the country as it is made, to do so by filing Harper's Weekly.—Pontiac (Mich.) Jacksonian.

Its best features are clean type, its entertaining variety, its severe but generally criticisms upon the bills of the times, its legantly written and instructive tales, essays and its able correspondence all combine to make it the model newspaper of our country and one that every family must prize Its conductors well know the wants of foreign and home-reading public and never stoop but to elevate and refine any other journal Being published too, in a form for preservation and binding, it takes rank of a work deserves to be well bound in future years as well as come a companion to the learned and fireside as the day on which it was first perused.—Mel'combsville (O.) Inquirer.

Its illustrations are far ahead of any journal of the kind in the country. Its pen & portraits of distinguished living men stand in the same rank with the price of the volume.—N. Y. Christian Advocate and Journal.

Its tales, sketch and poetry are unexcelled. Its circulation is probably the greatest success ever achieved by any publication in such a early period of its existence.—Brooklyn Eagle.

The best family paper we ever saw. Its pages embrace a good degree of solid reading matter, and its notices of the leading topics of the day are written with an ability which would do credit to the "Thunderer" of the British press—the London "Times." In point of illustration it is the ne plus ultra of our pictorial press.—New London Advertiser.

Harper's Weekly" carries to riders and popularity with every issue because it aims at and has that average requirement for family reading which this enterprising house so well comprehend Its articles are brief, lucid, and devoid of partisanship. It is as versatile in subjects as it is correct in tone, besides being marvelously cheap.—Boston Transcript
