HAMMONTON LANDS.
NEW ENGLAND SETTLEMENT.

RARE OPPORTUNITY.---TO ALL WANTING FARMS—in a healthy place, twenty-five miles from Philadelphia, on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, New Jersey. An old estate has recently been arranged for sale, and the first division of 10,000 acres divided up into farms of twenty acres and upwards. The soil is of the best quality for the production of fruits, grains &c. The prices is from $15 to $20 per acre, payable in easy quarter yearly instalments within a term of four years with interest. The terms are made easy in order to insure the rapid improvement of the land, by enabling every industrious man to buy a farm. It is now being extensively improved by good roads, and some of the best citizens from New England and the Middle States are making improvements. It is a region of the most healthful of Pennsylvania. Streams of pure water have been built in four towns. Fifteen hundred persons from the north and vicinity of the United States are settling there. It is an important business point, on account of its location in the midst of a large and Every article raised in the Northern States can be raised, and do well there.

BEST LITERARY PERIODICAL

in the English language. The object of the conductors is to furnish a work which shall be a welcome companion to the fireside, as well as to the counting-house of the man of business, combining the solid and the light, the grave and the gay, the original and the selected, the useful and the entertaining, in such proportions as to render it a work of general interest and value. Its literary character is of the highest order, and its columns are open to the contributions of the most distinguished writers of the day. The tone of its criticisms is candid and liberal, and its articles on Politics, Religion, Science, Literature, Morality, and the Arts, are characterized by ability, moderation, and a high moral feeling. In short, no pains will be spared to render it worthy of the support of the intelligent and refined, and to make it a work which may be safely introduced into every family circle.

Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews.

L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1.
The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2
The Edinburgh Review (Whig)
3.
The North British Review (Free Church.)
4.
The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5.
Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES.

The receipt of ADVANCE SHEETS from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in hands of subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
