Blackwood's Magazine and the British Reviews. L. SCOTT & CO., NEW York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

The London Quarterly (Conservative.) The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)

The North British Review (Free Church.) The Westminster Review (Liberal.)

Blackwood'sEdinburghMagazine (Tbry.) These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical,—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters being considered indispensable to the letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.
