The New York Tribune, 1858, '59.

THE New York Tribune, now more than seventeen years old, which was the first penny daily the world had ever attempted regularly to maintain on a eight-page sheet at so low a price as two cents and which has attained the unparalleled aggregate of more than 200,000 subscribers, respectfully solicits a share of the patronage which the Metropolitan Press is not enough to furnish.

Within the present year The Tribune has provided itself with a new and large Press at a cost of $20,000, more's to it some of our subscribers may receive their papers a trifle earlier than they otherwise might do With a corps of writers at the most important points throughout the civilized world, and a staff of writers chosen from among the best in the country, we believe that even those who dislike the politics of our sheet concede to it frankness in avowing its convictions and ability in maintaining them. We appeal then, to those who like that honesty and independence of The Tribune would conduce to the political, intellectual and moral well being of the Republic, to aid us in effecting such increase.

The Daily Tribune is printed on a large imperial sheet and published every morning and evening (Sundays excepted) and is furnished to subscribers for six dollars per annum in advance, $3 for six months.

The Semi-Weekly Tribune is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the Editorials of the Daily with the Cattle Horse and General Markets carefully reported, expressly for The Tribune, Foreign and Domestic Correspondence and during coming session of Congress it will contain a summary of Congressional debates with the more important speeches. It will also contain a tasteless novel, continued from number to number thus affording a best-class family newspaper to those who prefer not to take a Daily.

BY ROYAL LETTERS PATENT.
JOHN FELIX, Sole Agent, Columbia, Pa
HERTS, BROTHERS',
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM, ZINC AND PLATINA PENS,
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS, BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens and having that time having devoted their unremitting attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article—the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a pen, on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the close nicety of the point of the quill, with extreme the durability of the steel pen a combination hitherto considered the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of steel pens.

The pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wearing also to Banks and Banks as they will not spatter—nor cut the finest paper, and are warranted non corrosive

CAUTION—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced certain disreputable Makers to foist on the public a spurious imitation it will please be observed that every genuine pen is stamped "Herts, Brothers' Patent, 1858, and each box of genuine pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name

☞ May be had Wholesale at the Principal Depot, 251 Broadway, New York, and Retail from all Respectable Stationers in England, France, and the United States.
