"Scarcely a day."

pon a certain place, the circular piece of but, after a moment, resumed; old which formed the back of the rosette a diamonds opened, and a lock of hair, coved with glass, was exposed to view, Ulara, who followed all lils movements would not restrain an exclamation of sur- to hear her voice for the last time." wise. He turned saddenly towards her.

"M. Epernon has given you this?" "It was left to him by his mother," "He told you so?"

"Yes, he did." A dark cloud gathered on the English-M. Epernon was seated.

and its dangers,

as great-travelers risk their lives in Europe as well as in Africa "

"Travelers in England perhaps do so," sald the Frenchman, displeased at the inerruption.

"I was not speaking of England, but of ... ance. Twelve years ago, I was nearly offed there." "The ladies uttered an exclamation of dhight and mingled curiosity.

" You! you! " How was that?" "It is a very simple story. I was travelng in a chaise, with a large sum of money -about thirty thousand pounds; and just to I had reached - the night was very lark. We traversed a thick wood. The and was soft and sandy, so that the noise of the horses and wheels could scarcely be leard. The carriage passed, at length, a all rock which rose abruptly at one side. The same of this rook was St Samfrons. The postillion pointed it out with his whip s he passed, and I have good reason to rerember it. The carriage suddenly stopped. vecks recovering from my wound. All injuities were vain. This is the more strange, or among the stolen articles were some ample, a bracelet just like this!" Mr. Quinton shower' the bracelet he had a his hand, and the party were all eagerly xamining it, when Clara attered an exclaaution.

swels not difficult to re ognize; for ex-

Epernou was leaning against the wall lm ist senseless.

"What is the matter?" every one cried, Mr. Quinton rose.

'I can tell you!" be said.

"My inther, ' cried Clara. The Englishman stopped, and received er, almost fainting, in his arms. Exclamations of dismay and trose from the startled group. Meanwhile, the consciousness of Epernon slowly returned, and he perceived Mr. Oniston holding the almost lifeless form of has daughter.

"Her father!" repeated he wildly. "Her father!"

He looked round him for a moment with door, disappeared from the scene.

CHAPTER V. every other consideration from the mind of Mr. Quinton. When ther agitation had in Quinton started almost with surprise.

said Energon, in a low voice. "It is true; people of your class are genenelly more prudout."

"I would undersite you, if it were possihie "

Mr. Quinton lowed. "The proof that I have not committed this crime, is fortunately easy. At the time! Sen. This confidence is genuine." which was laid before him.

even if you had no chare in it."

as a family how loose. Is it your family repair the wherves, preparatory to the ac-the excess over and above the present rate whom I am to accuse?" heen to pectable, and deserves to be so."

erime, unhappy man?" For a few moments. My time is precious." Mr. Quinton made a sign of attention. Then Harrisburg, and it is expected that by the appropriating the excess over the old rates A. M., New York. Epermon related every incident which had list of April next the improvement will be of taxation prescribed in the second section taken place the story of Chiad, his death, completed, and boats drawing 41 feet of above recited. the search he had made for the buried trea- water enabled to pass readily. We anticitures his success. When he had finished pate a material increase in the heavy freight tion has recently been given to the financial portfolio and a fewel-case.

that of in the funds," he said. "You will is as fine a business location as any in the public. find the recorpts in due form. This easket State, and in default of the Transporters contains the remainder of your jewels."

Lave told mois so strange, and the recovery advantageously tenant the vacant premises. of my property so entirely unexpected, that I am really in doubt whether to thank or to a serious error."

truth. After the convict's story, for a long installed: time I struggled against the temptation. I W.P., T. J. Kuch; S. P., G. Clawges; T. late case where the bill of a member was worship dreuched with rain, and said to a trial and execution of Butler for high holds on to his purse strings. He means to time I struggiest against two temporation. I w. F., I. J. Kuen; S. P., G. Ciawges; I. Inte case where the onl of a memoer was worship arenched with rain, and said to a trust and execution of Butter, for high solution of another members are. When a great man in a uniform covered with gold scarcely returned my salute, S., C. J. Bruner; T., W. II. Pfabler; A. T., of the provisions of the above quoted act, take cold if Z go into the pulpit so wet." Squire in the benevolence of his heart. The firm concluded to close their nacount. ered with gold scarcely returned my solute, S., C. J. Bruner; T., W. II. Pfabler; A. T., of the provisions of the above quoted act, take cold it is only in solution of the pupit so were of the provisions of the provisions of the pupit so were of the provisions of the provisions of the above quoted act, take cold it is only in the head; indeed, this is the only in the head writhout taking any notice of me at all, I W., S. Hammaker, A. W., J. Hunter.

heard a voice which cried, 'St. Samfroms!' and named it to mim. The model at it with vive should I ever be discovered. It was in vive should it ever be discovered. It was in vive should be proper parties for setting the public for a hearing, but the witnesses subpsensed this change. We trust that Mr. Trumbo the proper parties for setting the public for a hearing, but the witnesses subpsensed -counted the stones which covered the like a child the arrival of night, scarcely road, mund olusp-then pressing his linger knowing why.2- Epernoti stotiped suddenly;

> "We shall never see each other again: the Faresell I litter may be considered that of a dying man. I had wished, I had hoped, to be allowed to say farewell to another, and He stopped and looked towards Mr. Quin_ ton, but the Englishman shaded his eves with his hand. "I understand," said Epernon; "you think me unworthy of this last favor-so be it-farewell!" He turned to depart, Wich suddenly, silent as # figure nan's lnos. He went away with the from the land of light, on the threshold apracelet in his hand, and as he traversed peared another form, in white rament, with the apartment he came upon a circle where disheveled hair, and eyes glittering with the fire of fever! Epernon uttored a fierce Just at that moment a Frenchman was cry; another moment, and the two lovers solding forth about the African expedition were locked in one another's arms. Mr. "The dangers of civilization are quite of this is no place for you; return, Clara, I dead weight of an onerous tax, "Citizen" entreat, I implore you.'

"I have heard all!" she sobbed. "Yny despise me, then!"

Clara replied by throwing herself into her lover's arms; he pressed her to his heart, and covered her hand with kisses. Mr. Madam Rumor, the unfortunate mother. Ouinton, dumb with anger, seized at last promised to be his!"

"Clara, you are mad?"

"I have promised to be his; I will never leave him!"

with rage, "I warn you-leave this lady to my care."

him. I can bring no reproach on your name, gious and Charitable uses," for I have never been permitted to bear it; to postillion fell dead by a pistol-bullet; I have only been to you a source of remorse he carriage had been rifled. I was three from it; Ah! my father, farewell. I am no longer your daughter, but his wife!"

against her breast. Mr. Quinton, unable to endure the sight, seized his daughter with one hand, and raised the other as if to strike ested in the contract for the sale or furnish-"No violence, sir," exclaimed Epernon; "fear nothing. I do not accept the sacrifice wished to return to poverty again; I prefer daughter. The poison begins its work-I am a dead man!"

Chara uttered a cry: she seized Epernon, who began to totter, and held him in her her breast, and ceased to exist.

The Columbia Spy.

COLUMBIA, PA. SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1859

A New Firm .- By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Doctors Act of Ascembly of 1828, supplementary to tire recepts of the borough for the past year a startled gaze, and gliding towards the Filbert and John and J. S. Dellett, late of the act of incorporation of the borough together with $1,300 00 borrowed by coun-McCorkle & Dellett, has entered into a co- which provides partnership to carry on the Drug business The attention which the situation of his daughter demanded, for some time banished they succeed. Mr. Dellett will be the manual they corporation or council, do we stand? aging partner, and have charge of the store, who are directed by the tenth section of the where he will give his personal attention aforesaid act to render their accounts at a where he will give his personal attention and supervision to the careful preparation of her maid, and was pacing to and fro in the adjoining chamber, when the door openation of medicines, compounding prescriptions, the adjoining chamber, when the door openation of medicines, compounding prescriptions, and Epernon stood before his.

Ar. D. has been familiar with the month of January, render their accounts to business for many years, and his character the said council for settlement, any law to be them take proper interest in the affairs the country polysites and art render their accounts at a distribution of the said council, in the month of April, yearly, shall hereafter at a quarterly meeting of the said council, in the month of January, render their accounts to be negligent and no more, and desire to find a hole in the cont of the month of April, yearly, shall hereafter at a quarterly meeting of the said council, in the month of January, render their accounts to the month of April, yearly, shall hereafter at a quarterly meeting of the said council. We believe the members to be negligent and no more, and desire to be negligent and no more, and desire to be negligent and no more. "You searedly or sected a visit from me," is too well known to need our commendative contrary notwithstanding, firm will be energetically prosecuted, and tive—no rendering of the accounts of taxserved. A fresh stock of drugs, &c., has pelled. been laid in and the public is invited to call. We wish these gentlemen complete success in their undertaking.

DELPENING THE PENNA. CANAL.-The forward carnestly the work on the Canal this long talk, he handed the Englishman a business of the Canal for the coming season, affairs of the borough, that no man knows who formerly occupied the numerous were-"Sir." aid Mr. Quinton, "the story you houses on its borders, manufacturars might reproach you you have certainly communited of the Rising Star Lodge No. 30 Cadets of Commonwealth and the cartis of members Temperance, on Thursday evening, March to support such law. The only excuse is that Say a crime: I seek not to disguise the 3d, the following officers were elected and of ignorance of the law, a poor one at best, predecessor.

"Proceedings of Council."

There is always more or less clamor against public servants, and any man who has occupied an office in the gift of the people can testity to having served an exacting master. (Exacting in some respects, but easily, and, alas! too frequently, hoodwinked and bamboozled.) This is especially the case where the service is gratuitous, and most eminently applicable, above all other ble. eases, to the officers of a small town or boceived a fair proportion of abuse, deserved or undeserved, and the members of the present body are not exceptions. That vigilant Quinton sprang towards his daughter. party "A Tax Payer," has been alive to the himself has protested against little irregu-"Do not envy me this last mournful plea- larities, and that very Cerberus of popular of the then debt, and the reduction, comings and overreachings are laid at the

First, it is charged that contrary to Act 'Hear me, ' said Clara, throwing herself It is entitled "An Act Relating to Corporaon her knees; "leave me, and let me follow tions and to Estates held for Corporate Reli-

By Secrion 1, it is enacted: "That it shall not be lawful for any counand when I came to my senses, Iheard that and embarrassment. I would relieve you cilman, burgess, trustee, manager or director of any corporation, municipality or publie institution to be at the same time a treasurer, secretary or other officer, subordinate Speaking thus, Clara flung her arms round to the President and Directors, who shall her lover, and pressed his drooping head receive a salary therefrom, or be the surety of such officer, nor shall any member of any corporation or public in-titution, or any ofing of any supplies or materials to be furnished to or for the use of any corporation, municipality or public institution of which of this angel; I cannot accept it; I have not he shall be a member or officer, or for which he shall be an agent, nor directly nor indidying an honest man. Take away your rectly interested therein, nor receive any reward or gratuity from any person interested gentleman's accounts. But how are the in such contract or sale; and any person vio-numerous orders, bills &c., issued and don't tell the truth, the whole truth and lating these provisions, or either of them. shall forfeit his membership in such corpor-ation, municipality or institution, and his arms. He smiled, laid his head gently on he held guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall forfeit any sum not ess than three times any advantage he may have derived from such offense, if any, and if no such advantage have been received, not exceeding five hundred dollars for each

The second count of the indictment sets forth that by gross neglect of Council the

"That the street supervisor, treasurer, the public may depend upon being well collectors for that period having been com- shortcomings are errors and not crimes.—

passed in 1856, as follows:

it took place, I was on service in the Black Pennsylvania Railroad Company is pushing of Lancaster, be and they are hereby em-The Englishman gluncel at the paper at and near this place. Peter Kearney has been working steadily with a large force of apon all other property new by law taxable been working steady with a single force of a plan at other property now by law taxable been working steady with a single force of a plan at other property now by law taxable been working steady with a single force of a tother property now by law taxable for borough purposes, such amount as may be necessary to meet the expenses of said borough. It is plain you know of this crime the canal in thorough order. On the 1st cided, That the said assessment shall not in

"Section 2 .- That the whole amount of

Lastly, it is charged that so little atten-

The first charge needs no argument; it is proven by the minutes of Council. It appears that bills have repeatedly passed that body presented by, and in the names of, that these bills were unjust ones, nor that dry enough there."

CHANGE ON THE N. C. RALLROAD .- We re- the borough suffered by their payment, but gret to learn that the accommodating con- the law is a wholesome and positive one may fall on his feet and find a more com- right upon this matter. We have been fortable berth than the one he leaves. Dr. given to understand that the assessment of selves: Richard was ordered to make sure Alexander H. Barnitz, of York, succeeds taxes for the last three years amounted to of the absentees and the hearing adjourned Mr. T. May he prove as popular as his nearly $10,000, while the amount collected to 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning. The was barely $5,000. If this be the case High Constable received the pledged honor heavy censure must fail on the negligent parties. The restive tax-payers of the bo- not fail him on the morrow, and in proof of rough who bear the burthen, may well kick his confidence in their word locked them up under the imposition of the whole support in the cellar over night. They were prompt of a corporation whose servants apparently in their appearance at the Blue Front on the give neither attention nor thought to their 1st inst. duties. We grant that on every tax duplicate are taxes which are necessarily noncollectable, but that the enormous proportion of one-half in this category is incredi-

To the third charge we give credence .passed, and an enormous increa e of taxation followed, the only qualifying accompaniment being the provision in the act, prescribing the appropriation of the exto public abuses. Let us hear what short- ty cents on the hundred dollars valuation. That proper appropriation of this door of the Counsil Chamber, and then defather the foundlings or throw them back on the borough now rejoices in an empty treaan undiminished indebtedness. We, with pay. As the act in question prohibiting all be set aside, of outstanding taxes, and rethe Sea.

In conclusion we feel that the want of zens as to the indebtedness of the borough named. may be properly charged upon the negligence of the Conneil. It is positively asserted that no member of that body is aware enough for some one or more to become of you infernal niggers to shield the priscollector as money, to be accounted for?ceives them as equivalent to cash. To what crier will call John Edmonds." amount has this borough scrip been circulahen any sum in the discretion of the Court statement published in the Spy of March your name and tell the truth, you black of Quarter Sessions of the proper county, 6th, 1858, the indebtedness of the borough rascal; and hereoffail not, under the penalty on Feb. 1st 1858, $4,074 48, while the that may ensue!" available resources amounted to $2,761 00mainly in outstanding taxes. As the eucil have been insufficient to meet interest and current expenses we may infer that our do we stand?

In our remarks we have been actuated they assume to manage. Let them thank has been for at least three years inopera God that they are neither a State Leigisla-There must be reform, however, and speedan "An Act to increase the Revenue of the to corruption is becoming an unbearable Borough of Columbia, Lancaster County," | evil. Public speculation is looked upon as venial in a national light, and even states "That the Chief Burgess and Town Coun- and the large municipalities are said to be heaven's sake let not our trifling borough loaves and fishes prove a deception and a snare. If our councils cannot be depended on where shall we look for virtue!

AVERICAN AGRICULTURIST .--- We cannot inst., J. S. Roath with a force of forty men any one year exceed the sum of forty cents to highly recommend this publication to commenced work on the Busin, and will in each hundred dollars of the valuation for our agricultural readers. Its information is county rates and levies: &c., &c.

"You gave this broader to Miss de Vismes completely clear it of mud, deepen it and "Section 2.—That the whole amount of the valuation for our agricultural readers. Its information is county rates and levies: &c., &c. to, highly recommend this publication to It furnishes many valuable suggestions to commodation of a large coal trade during of taxes which may be hereafter levied, the farmer and keeps him informed of every "No." and be, "my family has always the approaching season of navigation. The shall be specially appropriated to pay the new discovery calculated to advance his independent of the farmer and keeps him informed of every shall be specially appropriated to pay the new discovery calculated to advance his independent of the farmer and keeps him informed of every shall be specially appropriated to pay the debt now existing against the said borough, until the same shall be paid off in full; and that after the said debts shall be so paid in > Petersons' Detector .- Petersons Detector for March has been received. This is one of the most indispensable publications and hope to see a welcome addition to the the amount of municipal indebtedness, and have a copy, conveniently placed in his able and its price trifling.

CADETS OF TEMPERANCE .- At a meeting members, in direct violation of a law of the number of this invariably interesting periodical. It is cheap and good.

Police Items.

REPORTED BY OUR SPECIAL "HOUGHARD." for the prosecution failed to present themof the recusant witnesses that they would

The prosecution opened, but was immediately requested to dry up by the defendant, who mixed up denunciations of prosecutrix, her husband, baby and remotest kin with appeals to the 'Squire for justice and to the witnesses for truth. She expressed a berough. Our Councilmen have always re- In the face of urgent remonstrance the act lief that he putty-faced wench could get of 1856, cited above, was procured to be ahead of her, and a determination to compel her enemies to "take to de woods" before she was done with them. She concluded with "Bring on de witnesses; dey know what to say, dey do!"

There was a smile of security on the readily establish his good name. sure," said Epernon, in a tone so broken- right, "Pro Bono Publico," has had an eye after such liquidation, of the rate to thir- innocence or unbounded trust in the soundness of her witnesses. This triumphant grimace taken in connection with information obtained from a reliable source, of a eide, if we can, whether the members must criminally neglected we cannot doubt; for little conspiracy among the witnesses to defeat the ends of Justice and bring off Aunt sury, and, as far as we can inform ourself, Martha in a coach, caused a twinkle in the 'Squires eye, and a motion to Richard to been interested in furnishing the borough the proper appropriation has, as we believe, with supplies for which they have received been neglected, that a corresponding sum Aleck Hall, were called and ordered to pecuniary relations between corporations ligiously applied to reducing the old debt locate themselves in the corner of the court and officers in their service or employ is in- and for no other purpose. When that debt room most remote from the door. The nature of this charge, we annex such portion of it as applies to the case in question. diate'y made, and our town rid of a burthen wall, their former disinterested spectatormore intolerable than Sinbad's Old Man of air giving place to one of dread suspensethey evidently began to suspect that neither their common nunt nor themselves would proper information on the part of the citi- leave the presence in the vehicle above

The magistrate put on his three-month-athard-labor, limit-of-the-law expression and you here again!". proceeded to address the now completely of the financial condition of the town. If frightened darkies. "This Court has been this prove correct would it not be well credibly informed that it is the intention properly qualified to give a remote guess at oner, your aunt Martha Loney, from the the nature and extent of our municipal in- consequences of her violation of the constivolvement? The annual account of the Bo- tution. Niggers, by the Dred Scott decision rough Treasurer shows satisfactorily, the it has been established that you have no amounts received and paid out by him, and rights-not a right, and by a decision of nothing more could be looked for in that this Court it has become an unalterable law passed by Council, and paid in to the tax nothing else, I'll send every nigger of you to Bush Hill for five years! Now mind The treasurer cannot receipt to the collec- what I say, and keep your eyes skinned; tor for them as cash, while the collector re- this Court will not be trifled with! The "O ves! O ves! O ves! John Edmonds.

ted? In short, where do we stand? By a John Edmonds, John Edmonds! Answer to

The terrified woollys came up to the mark like lambs to the sacrifice, and truth and the country. whiskey, but sometimes treated in return for presents of fowls. He charged one James Stout with having concluded a bargain Thirdly it is asserted that in contempt of ily. The tendency of all public servants this side issue James made battle and deof this kind about two weeks since. On clared his innocence. Could prove an alibi and requested the 'Squire to refer to his docket and state where that official record located him, Stout, at the time of the alleged brief examination declared Stout innocent, his last sentence to the County Prison not having expired at the time indicated.

The proof of Aunt Martha's offence being positive she was held to bail for her appearance at the April term to answer the charge of selling liquor to minors on Sunday without a license. The witnesses not producing bail were committed to testify, or for trial as may hereafter appear.

Louise, LA Reine.-On the afternoon of the 21st inst., Queen Louisa of Sawneytown, "What part, then, have you had in this tween St. Charles Furnace and the lower rime, unhappy man?"

"There accepted an inheritance. Listen as few moments. My time is precious."

"A large force is complayed becard hundred dollars as aforesaid," &c., &c., at price $1 a year puts it within the reach tween this place and the Junction, above tween this place and the Junction, above tween this place and the Junction, above the office, retired temporarily from public life, that after the said debts shall be so paid in deepening and full, then the assessment shall not in any lightless for rebellion. She duly set forth how cach hundred dollars as aforesaid," &c., &c., at price $1 a year puts it within the reach overcome by the arduous duties of his office, retired temporarily from public life, the correspondent in bne so paid in the lower that after the said debts shall be so paid in deepening and full, then the assessment shall not in any lightless for rebellion. She duly set forth how cach hundred dollars as aforesaid," &c., &c., at price $1 a year puts it within the reach overcome by the arduous duties of his office, retired temporarily from public life, appeared and made complaint before Esshe had called in as premier, pro tem. asked the question, "What is the standing Charles Butler, an athletic mulatto. On of Mr. --?" In due time the correspond-Mr. Cloud's return to court, after his brief ent replied to the query as follows: of the day. No business man but should sojourn at his country seat, he demanded "If your question refers to Mr. - s real "Your thirty thousand pounds have been trade of our town therefrom. Our Basin that such knowledge is not attainable by the Counting room. Its benefits are innumer—with the habitual self denial of all office swer it is good; but to say that he is obsti-ARTHUR'S TONE MAGAZINE.—This maga- by the "Virginny interest," declined to the extreme end of an execution, and then zine for March has been received. A good capitulate. Internicine was the conse- doles out the cash to the constable as though DALLEY SMAGICAL PAINEXTRACTOR of ignorance of the law, a poor one at best, and even this palliation is impossible in a much of a pulpit gift, came into the place of enemy, the law. She desired the arrest, to the grim death grasp with which Mr.

fillibuster commission to Richard, empower-

I want wid sich a man as dat."

righteous judgment.

in dread tones pronounced this dooms

"You, Elliot Cloud, being a white man, and, by the showing of Mrs. Sawney, an before I have time to wonder how they came unsophisticated innocent, may justly claim up before me, I feel them pressing their the arm of his daughter, and e deavored of Assembly, and in violation of their oaths every heavily taxed citizen, have a right call over the names of the friends of the foreibly to seperate them, but without avail of office, certain members of Council have to insist that this wrong be righted, and if defense. John Edmonds, Jim Stout, Roland contrary notwithstanding, (a bow from Mr. with a thirty dollar bonnet, and a divine C.) therefore to rescue you from the hands head, comes pitching into my waistcoat. separate themselves from the crowd and of the fiends who trouble you existence, I, with such a force that I feel the buttons Thomas Welsh, one of our Justices of the against my spine. Next-Mary gazes up Peace, in and for said County, do sentence at me from between my jack boots, and "Sir," said the Englishman, trembling sufficiently known, and will best explain the shall be extinguished let the grateful reduction. The shall be extinguished let the grateful reduction in Richard's control of the shall be extinguished let the grateful reduction. County Chatcau. (Collapse of Marc Antony | my shirt bosom. Cloud and a snaky look about Cleopatra | Ahl my friend, all research and study on Sawney.) You, Charles Butler, being the mysterious subject of women has been nothing but a darned nigger any how, may comparatively in vain till, in this eventful as well accompany your, brother cloud for year of 1859 the fashion of skating has the term of 39 days. (Grin, of triumph opened new and varied sources of informafrom Butler.) And hark ye, Cloud, when tion. Do you remember your first attempt you get out of prison don't let me catch at driving tandem? Do you remember how would'nt have been here this time if it round, and staring you in the face as if to hadn't been for old Derrick, the d-d old ask "what the deuce you'd be at?" Well, heathen." (Manifestation on the part of just you go and try a woman on skates, Richard.)

vas making out commitments for the bal- and divers ways of accomplishing their obance of the crowd scattered Queen Louisa jects? Dear Mary! I offered myself to herand her subjects on a full canter. The every time she turned up or came round .prisoners were locked up together for the 1 nm hers. night and on the glorious 22nd went down by the special Cadwellville line.

It would seem, Mr. Editor, that if a peress servant.

others, but instead of that giving an au- handkerchief, when the lady lent him hers, thority for cruelty, it should be a claim for mercy and benevolence.

Rumor says, but it is hoped to be a misperspiration were poured out profusely: take, that there are a few, and happily but rain, and they were obliged to take refuge Aunt Martha folded her hands and hung a few, who seem to think that they greatly in the half way house—a "one horse" logout a pearly flag of distress on her sable magnify themselves by umeasured abuse, tavern, consisting of two rooms -- a bar-room cheek, as she heard witness after witness of their hired and apprenticed domestics.— and lodging room. The lady-laid her lap solemnly swear that she, the prisoner, had They have no sympathy for the unfortunate dog on its mat before the fire, and herself sold whiskey on every day of the week to creatures entrusted to their care, but flatter and husband took sents. In a short time all sorts of people of every age. One dark themselves that by severe flogging, unnet the gentleman had an occasion to use his breast of his own sins, admitting that he more than proper and ordinary service, they ing on his knee when he got through with had procured the ardent at Aunt Martha's are clevating themselves in public estimatit. In a few moments the landlard opened in exchange for chickens stolen by him in tion and showing off to great advantage; the door, put his head in, looked around, when in truth they are only exposing them- went out, came in, gazed at the dog-his For defense Daniel Loney, son of Aunt selves as unmitigated tyrants, unworthy to nostrils all the while upturned in intense Martha, swore that his mother never sold have a servant. Some of them, as ignorant disgust. He finally appeared satisfied; went and illiterate as bats, fancy that if they to the outside door, opened it, came back carry a whole fortune on their backs, with a bound, seized the lap-dog by the tail they are superior to all others, and conse- and hurled him howling through the open quently pride themselves upon their supe- door full ten rods into the forest. The wife rior vulgarity of conduct to their hirelings. fasnted; the husband rose to his feet, terribly Altho' they belong to churches, take sacrament, and would like to be considered that for. "That's my dog," continued he saints, they are no better than their less pre- furiously. "Don't care a cuss whose dog it tending neighbors, and if they only knew fowl transaction. The 'Squire, after a what their better fellow citizens and citizenesses think and say of them, they would ing varment around my tavern." The husprobably mend their manners, and act as band and wife evacuated the house instantly, best becomes them. Altho' they have thus and proceeded on their way in the rain. far gained an unenviable notoricty, they are not perhaps aware that if they do not cease ther cruelty it is in contemplation to arraign them first before the Vestry or Trustees of ing how to skate. Since that period there the church, and next before the Quarter Ses- has been an extraordinary domand for skates sions of the county, where they will have an by married men. opportunity of showing how much better they can swear than pray, and what sweet blessed saints they are.

(he was sent down for 60 days,) and how towns of Indiana, and in closing their letter the seals and his old position, which Charles, responsibility to any limited amount, we anholders, resolutely refused to yield. Her nate and mulish but faintly expresses his Majesty sided with Cloud and called upon poculiarity of disposition when an account Butler to resign, but the latter, backed up is presented. He generally pays a debt at quence, and the Queen, feeling her forces he was driving a nail in his own coffin .too weak to come to battle with the insur- The money shaver who took the last seat in gents, rejuctantly sought foreign interven- the last car of a railroad train, so as to have

SKATE COURTING IN NEW ENGLAND,-A To become rich, it only required me to say, "gret to learn that the accommodating contained from Massers and Telephore site of the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizen when called to a public trust to acquaint free site of the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizen when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free site of gold. I yielded to the twenth arise of gold. I yielded to the common almost of anger escaped lim. We will speak of this," he said, "another me. Justlet me eximine it for a moment."

Clara, trembling, unfastened the bracelet. Clara, trembling, unfastened the bracelet. Clara, trembling unfastened the bracelet. The two charges is discovered. It was in the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizen when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free sides with the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizen when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free sides with the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizen when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free sides with the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizen when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free sides with the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizen when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free sides with the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizens when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free sides with the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizens when called to a dictor, Mr. T. A. Trumbo, has been public trust to acquaint free sides with the form the far week, accommand with the law is a wholesome and positive one, and it behooves citizens with the send free is the send trust. A far week, accommand with the law is a who ing him to arrest any and all of the ipsur sensitive New Englander, writing from Masprevented by respect for the Court and be found in the city, and nobody knew who drend of the High Constable's baton from sent them to her. We went down upon the settling their little differences then and ice, and there, that little devil of a Mary, there by combat. Their royal mistress just sat quietly down, ordered me on my opened with her statement. She first put knees, and quietly placed that foot, in my in a plea for Mr. Clould, as an innocent, lap, and bid me put on her skate. Sir, had useful member of society, who earned an Venus dropped down from Heaven, and honost living as a solicitor, (travels with a told me to rub her down with rotten stone bag ground the country, collecting cold and oil, it could not have astonished me victuals.) and was a great protection to more than when that divine foot was placed her, a lone female, from the dignity of his in my unworthy lap. I felt very faint-hut presence, and his established high moral I buckled on the skates, and stood up, with character. She then opened on the traitor. Mary by my side. Have you ever taught ous Butler, reading his pedigree and de a woman how to skater No; well, let me nouncing him as a worthless cumberer of tell you. You've seen a kaleidescope, with the earth. "Squiah, he's jist good fo' a few old bits of glass, &c., in a tin tube, nuffin but set roun' an' drink Perry's whis- and turning it, have seen all sorts of beaukey .- He's no 'count, no how. He's 'feared tiful figures. Just imagine a kaleidoscope, to steal, and too lazy to-beg. Lawd; what and in place of bends and broken glass, please substitute blue eyes, curling eye Butler offered his well known standing on lashes, lips, ivory, wavy hair, erinoline. the Hill as evidence of character, and moved guiter boots, zephyr worsted, cupids, hearts. that time be allowed him to produce sundry darts, a clap of thunder, a flash of lightworthies of his acquaintance who would ning, and "auld Nick." Imagine vourself the centre of a system with all these things Mr. Cloud-knew the 'Squire was a friend revolving around you, and a violet bank of his by a remark he made, and left his breathing sighs upon you all the while, and case confidently in his hands, certain of a you have Mary and her victim in the first skating lesson. Mary and I start-she on The Justice drew on his black cap and my left arm-all square.

First, Mary's dear little gaitor boots present themselves to my astonished vision, and that infernal perverse beast that you selected "Thank your Honor; but bless me, I as leader, would insist in turning short that's all-just try. Ah! wont you come A hint from a bystander that the 'Squire to the conclusion that women have sundry

MUSK IN A BACKGOODS TAYERN .- THE

LANDLORD SHELLS SOMETHING .-- A . short time since a gentleman and lady were travelling in Michigan, and having missed the son designed to be devilish and cruel, it stage, were compelled to take a private conwould be most readily accomplished by im- veyance from the town of Scuderi to Thomproper severity to an unoffending and help-astown. The lady had with her a beautiful little lap dog, which she carried on her lap There are people in this world, who from on an embroidered mat. During the ride necessity become subject to the control of the husband discovered that he had no which was fashionably scented with musk. About half way between the two towns the carriage broke down, in the midst of a hard cessary exposure to cold, and requiring handkerchief, and took it out, leaving it lyenraged, and wanted to know what he did s," said the man gruffly and impetuously; 'I ain't going to have no such blasted smell-

> SKATES .- Amarried lady out West nearly broke her neck a few days since while learn.

> A BACHELOR, writing from the interior of California, says that although young women from the Atlantic side of the continent often arrive unmarried on the California coast, they never get in that condition to the interior. He says that, like misfortunes, they "never come single."

> Philadelphia Division P. R. R. Wint Arrangement.
> On and after Monday, Nov. 29, Passenger Trains on this Division will run as follows:
>
> LEAVE EASTWARD:
>
> London Ac. Her. Ac. Neit.
>
> Columbis, 8.00 A.M. 2.50 P.M. 6.55 P.M.
>
> Languater, 8.35 " 3.28 " 7.30 "

> ARR. AT In all diseases inflammation more or less predemi-nates—now to allay suflammation strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, and nothing else, will allay inflummation at case and make a certain cure.

WIGS_WIGS_WIGS Batchelor's Wigs and Toupees adrones all. They re elegant, light, easy and darable Pitting to a charm—no turning up behind—no shrink-ing off the head; indeed, this is the only establishment