THE GIFT BOOK TRADE .- THE PRINCIPLES O WHICH G. G. EVANS, THE FOUNDER OF THE BUS ing business denominated the "GIFT Book TRADE," has induced us to devote a few reing to look for but benefit from a collision marks on the subject, and to speak particularly of the business as conducted by Mr. G. G. Evans, 439 Chestnut Street, Philadelp whose principles and practice in the trade, we

Because swindlers or ignoramuses, in any trade, subject us to loss, we are not therefore to censure men engaged in legitimate trade; because "Peter Funk" traders in watches deably if he can, forcibly if he must, in the ceive and cheat the public, honest watchmak ers are not to be denounced and avoided; and so, because a number of "Peter Funk" concerns in the Gift Book Business, encouraged by the great success of Evans' enterprise, sprung up in various cities, and for a time cheated those who were deluded into dealing with them, there is no reason that a fair, liberal and energetic publisher should be con demned along with them. No injustice could be greater. People must deal with tradesmen: Franco is "spilin' for a muss," and will they must have watches—they must have books -and let them take care to seek the place where they can procure the articles they want, without deception, and on the most advantage

Mr. Evans originated the Gift Book Busines The Old Fellows of Columbia, Wrights- in 1854, and his great success in it is the reville and Marietta, will celebrate the forti-eth anniversary of the institution of the order in the United States, in the Lecture-room of the Odd Fellows' Hall, Columbia, toon of his establishment, have now mostly perished, while he pursues the even tenor of his way, giving satisfaction to all who deal

> The fairness and honesty of the business is not to be doubted, and are easily understood. He is an enterprising man, and setting out to do a large business, he purchased his books in large quantities; in order to increase his sales, he determined to give part of his profits to purchasers, in premiums. The principle of Premiums or Gifts has been adopted in many branches of business, and, perhaps, every newspaper that has spoken against the Gift Book Business has recognized the principle, either in deductions to clubs, extra copies, or gifts of engravings, &c. Evans purchases whole edius of books at the lowest figures; sells them at the regular retail prices, and gives a premi-um with each book; in every $10,000 worth of books he appropriates $5,000 worth of jewelry, watches, &c., which are given away with the books, purchasers often receiving gold watches,

On the same principle, if a man buy a chest of tea, is the grocer to be blamed or commend ed, if he gives his customer a few pounds of coffee into the bargain? The question needs no reply. His encouragement to American authors, publishers, and manufacturers, is very great; in a single year he purchased from on condiment is a sadly unnatural one, and to be paid:—David Mullen, $7,75; Henry manufacturer alone, $38,000 worth of jowelry, one to be discouraged and deprecated. In Culp, $3,75; David Evans, $19,69; Hiram and thousands of persons engaged in junting, agency, vast numbers of useful books have been spread through every part of the country to the great advantage of the rising generation held to be a public benefactor.

In short, in Mr. Evans we find an enterpris ing man-the originator of a business which he has followed with the greatest energy and strictest integrity, until it having a vast extent and importance, a host of imitators (some of them honest, perhaps, but ignorant of the bus iness) arise and disappoint and cheat the pub-lic, bringing down condemnation not only on themselves, but on the man whose trade they were counterfeiting. To rescue Mr. E. from this unmerited censure, and to state what we inderstand to be the nature of the Gift Book Business, as established and conducted by him, has led to this article. No one who deals with Clerk was directed to give notice that on and him can be wronged or disappointed; not only will the purchaser receive the full value of his money in books, but with each book a premium, or gift, and that very handsome and valuable .- Cecil Whig.

In Norristown. April 1st., FRANCIS KNOTWELL, of Davenport, Iowa, aged 35 years. The above is one of those mournful bereavem hat fall on the heart with peculiar sadness. Mr. Knotwell was favorably known to many in this region, as former Superintendent of the copper mine at Valley Forge; but for the last two or three years, he has been residing in the Far West. He left his wife and three children, with two sisters, a few weeks since on business, for New York, in good health, and reaching the esidence of his brother-in-law, Stephen Bawden, Esq., of Norristown, where he sickened and died, far away from his loved ones. He was interred at the Montgomery

Unparalelled Combination of Talent. Eisenbise & Co.'s Celebrated and Inimitable Company,

Beg leave to announce that they will give TWO OF THEIR POPULAR ENTERTAINMENTS. AT COLUMBIA,

ON MONDAY, APRIL 25, 1859. UNDER A WATER-PROOF PAVILION Canable of comfortably seating. 2.000 PERSONS.

This novel undertaking has been projected and successfully carried out by the enterprising gentlemen composing the company, who have spazed neither means nor time to reader it worthy the patroange of an appreciative public. The ring performances of the traveling Circuses throughout the United States have long since crassed to annase and astonish the pleasures-seeker, and have been voted shores? as often as witnessed. Knowing these facts, the Proprietors have dispensed with all such state performances, and in their thereof have formed a happy and pleasing combination of rare artistic talent, among which will be found the following: MONS. MORGAN AND PROF. PARKER, In their Olympian Games and Gymnustic Fents o La Perche, La Trapeze, and their new und difficul performances of the Corde de Vulata—a truly wor. MAD.
