The proprietor of the Cheap Book Store has evailed The proprieto of the Courty bost court in mediof the opportunity to purchase a large stoci the most varied assortment of valuable books of early class and description. He now offers to this he the same, at proportionably and unusually low Those in want of valuable standard works, for the improving of a well-selected history, will find it to their great advantage to call and examine the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it ulways was, to supply the wants of the community with anything in my line, on the most reasonable terms possible. This we find the better and most advantageous course for all parties. The Political Economist tells us the cheaper an article is, the more universally it can and will be used. Then the conclusion is, that when we buy cheap, we must sell cheap, simply allowing our-lives a reasonable profit.
