DR. J. H. ROBINSON. ON THE Northern Trapping Grounds! Nick Whiffles "In the Pison Newspapers Ag'in, by Mighty!" THE

NEW YORK MERCURY FOR SATURDAY, JUNE 25, 1859,

(BED_Now ready at all the News Depots and bookstores,) Will contain the initial chapters of a new Western Tale, from the graceful and felicitous pen of DR. J. H. ROBINSON, who has been engaged to write exclusively for that journal for a term of years. This story is entitled

"PATHAWAY; OR,

THE MOUNTAIN OUTLAWS: A TALE OF THE NORTHERN TRAP-PING GROUNDS:"

And is considered by the Author to be the very best work which his talent has yet produced. .

Those who know the dramatic power and Elegant Style, the interesting situations and Beauty of Incident, which have rendered famous all the writings of the AUTHOR OF "BUCK BISON," cannot but hail with delight this new emamation from his pen.

The Trapping Grounds of the North and West,

form a peculiarly favorable field for the location and working out of a romance, and the characters that roam through that Flowery Wilderness are especially fitted for introduction into its pages. The readers and admirers of

DR. ROBINSON'S WRITINGS will remember with pleasure the character of

"NICK WHIFFLES,"

in a story of that name, recently published, and will be glad to learn that the same personnge will figure in

PATHAWAY, surrounded as ever with many "Diffikilties," and lending to the romance a vein of sym--pathetic humor and quaint drollery that will render it irresistible to the lover of fun and the student of human nature.

In addition to this attraction, the plot will be found more Intricately Mysterious, and the situations more replete with the fire of Dromatic Interest, than in any other story the author has yet written. It is full of WILD LIFE & ACTION crowded with stirring incident and

Perilous Adventure,

and through the whole story runs an under plot which interweaves a Golden Threaded Woof of sentiment, tinting all with the radiant light of the Gentle Charm of Love. The most exciting and picturesque scenes of

PATHAWAY, will be chosen as the themes for a series o

BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS, from the pencil of the most celebrated of American artists. FELIX O. C. DARLEY, whose drawings have made THE NEW YORK MERCURY such a favorite with all who appreciate true artistic excellence. The clear and vivid style of Dr. J. H. Robinson's descriptive writing is such that the artist can soize upon his creations without difficulty, and thus the best powers of PEN AND PENCIL that stall o are brought to bear with as great a unanimity as if both were wielded by one person.
