The following announcement from Mr.

Dakens, will convey an idea of the character thank of the wool:

columbia Tobacconists Ahead of all contracting myself, and my strongest enorgies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to the begun. I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to dvecore on past arrangements. Those I leave steeding for themselves in due course. That sustained the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to week as honestly as I could during the last time years, will continue to be striven for, each the year round." The old weekly cares and duties become things of the Past, merely so be assumed, with an increased love for them and brighter hopes cominging out of them, in the Present and the I look, and plan, for a very much wider cirthook, and plan, for a very much where circo of readers, and yet again for a steadily extonding circle of readers in the projects I hope
