Mixing or Bangs .- Some time ago there was a dancing party given "up north;" most of the ladies present had little babies, whose poley perversity required too much attention to permit the mothers to enjoy the dance. A number of gailant young men volunteered to watch the young ones while the parents incalged in a "break-down." No sooner had the women left the babies in charge of the mischievous devils, than they stripped the infants, changed their clothes, giving to one the apparel of the other. The dance was over, it was time to go home, and the mothers hurriedly took each a baby, in the dress of her own, and started,, some to their homes, ten or fifteen miles off, and were far on their way before daylight. But the day following there was a prodigious row in that settlement: changed the sex of their babies; observation disclosed startling physiological phenonena, and then commenced some of the tailest female pedestrism; living miles upart, it took rao days to unmix the babies, and as many months to restore the women to their natursangerous for any of the baby mixers to venfare within the territory.

OPENING OF BOOKS .-- The Commissioners of the Reading and Columbia Railr a l ad vertise in to-day's Spy that they will open books for the reception of subscription to the capital stock of the above road on Monday, 8th prox., at the Washington Ilouse. in this borough. This is the nece-sary preliminary step towards an earnest commence ment of this important work. Our citizens will now have an opportunity of showing their interest in an undertaking that must, if carried out-and we have no doubt of mothers discovered that a single day had its success-so materially influence our future prosperity.

We have urged and shall not cease to urgo upon the people the necessity of a movement by them in the direction of progress. We need some common project in ally sweet dispositions. To this day it is which the entire town can unite, to give fresh spirit and impetus to our business, our pleasures, and our very lives. If we remain much longer indifferent to our most vital interests we shall stagnate, and no future infusion of energy and new blood will suffice to redeem us from a merited ring fence and whitewash. Now is the men of the town to take advantage of this opportunity to build up a business which cannot be discreed from us.

"MURDER MOST FOUL."-We are loth to make injurious charges against one of the

eraft, but we must lay at the door of our neighbor, the Star, the violent death of an estremed citizen of Columbia. A late issue of that paper summarily killed off John Daly, Esq., by drowning. His numerous friends in this vicinity went into unmitigated crape, and a neat stone with appropriate inscription was talked of. The body of the unfortunate man was recovered, identified and received decent sepulture. His untimely end was subject of some days' wonder and moralizing, and then the memory of the defunct John was mainly treasured by his washerwoman. Chief among the sincere mourners for the departed, ranked Esquire Welsh, whose official intercourse with John was of the most amicable and pleasing nature. (The Squire had sent J. D. down numerously, for sundry offenses.) A few mornings since, soon after daylight place of business at the basin, encountered thrilled through his entire system something very nearly resembling a panic. There, quite freely-upon his martial bearing, his either in the budy or the spirit, stood the lahule old age, his military pantaloons, ect. mented Daly. The 'Squire pondered, and finally concluded to test the matter by a little ghost-laying formula which should effectually dispose of the revenant if such the apparition should prove. So, after a brief clearing of the throat, the Justice pronounced: "John Daly, this Court sentences you to thirty days at hard labor, and may the keeper have mercy on your bones." REPOTED BY OUR SPECIAL "MOTCHARD." "CHERRY RIPE."-On Sunday 26th uit., information was brought to Justice Welsh of the re-opening, by Johnny Roach, of the 'Sweet Bean Grocery," in the vicinity of the Canal Basin. This establishment is a kind of guerilla concern which interferes with the customers-consequently the emolaments-of that more regular caravanseri, the "Sullivan House." The Justice knowing that the latter first-class house enjoyed a monopoly of the trade of the vicinity, and was, moreover, a sound and well-conducted institution, conspired with Hollingsworth to "come down" on the irregular dispensatory. On the same evening the two visited the neighborhood and made a descent on Johnny's crib. They found the property in the "full tide of successful experiment." The stock was low, but there was ample evidence of a plentiful supply of the strychnine having been recently dispensed. Johnny and his guests were tolerably overcome and appeared so powerless that it was judged expedient to defer the arrest until next morning. The chief was then armed with the necessary warrant and proceeded to the "Sweet Bean," when he was informed that Johnny had, "just this minute gone out into the country for cherries." Nearly three weeks have since clapsed and the fruit have not yet ripened sufficiently to allow the return of Johnny, plunder ladenet. THE CASS DOCTRINE -- On Friday, 8th inst., John Burrows and Frank Hughes, and drunkenness. Burrows was too drunk a free-born American citizen, and knew his rights, he did, and he'd like to see any pettifoggin' 'Squire in any d-d one horse town keep him from gittin' drunk jist whenever he d-d pleased. He spit upor and contemned the magistrate, and consigned our venerable high constable to the nethermost Tophet. Justice Welsh ackn owledged the invulnurability of Hughes' stra agical position in principle, but took the aberty of standing on the practical working or our boasted theory of American inviolability of person, which has latterly le med very strong'y towar is "bosh." The 'Squire assumed that as American citizenship was powerless against the local statuteof foreign governments, it should not stand against the municipal regulations of the cities and towns of our favored land. Therefore, resolved, that, although it is the inestimable and inalieniable privilege of every American citizen to get drunk when and where he pleases, it is contrary to the peace and good order of the borough of Columbia that any but citizens of said borough shall get drank and stay drank within the boough limits. On this principle the offen ders were sentenced, (in consideration of its being a first offence the penalty was made light) to enjoy the hospitality of the porough for one night, and at the live hour of daylight to undergo the rigors of banishment from the town for the remaining term of their natural life. They were time for action, and we entreat the moneyed put to bed in the salubrious hostelrie over which Richard presides, and in the morning admonished to retire beyond the borough limits under penalty of perpetual imprisonment on Hogentogler's farm.

For the Spy. Paring .- It is somewhat annoying to have a person looking over your letters books and papers, hunting through your burcau drawers, watching all your steps, peening, pimping and listening to all you say and do; and I have no doubt. Mr. Editor, you will hardly believe that there is any person so mean as to be guilty of such conduct. Yet I can assure you, that I know just such a person, whose name I will withhold for the present; but a repetition of the offence shall be followed by a publication in the Spy, that will be any thing but pleasant. The party complained of, I know, will see this communication, and will therefore have full and fair notice It is hoped, therefore, that such disagree able conduct will not again be enacted. columns to puff a common patent medicine, but are placing before them a discovery, which, if fully known, would probably do more to alleviate human suffering, than any more to alleviate human suffering, than any invention of modern times. Dr. Hance, in asking us to notice his preparation favorably in our editorial department, has sent us for perusal a number of letters from persons who have used his pills, and have been cured thereby. All of them speak in the most grateful and eulogistic terms. One great advantage this medicine possesses is the fact, that it can be transported through the mails, thereby affording every one an opportunity of dealing directly with the inventor, and also preclusively affording every one an opportunity of dealing directly with the inventor, and also preclusively and underdish to a post, and any part of the country, and will forward them by the return of mail, on the receipt of a remittance. His prices are as follows: One box, $3; two do., $5; twelve do., $24. All orders for the medicine should be addressed to to Seth S. Hance, 108 Baltimore atreet, Baltimore, Md.
