week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and Niew York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months. Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the atories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens, and the stall of writers associated with him, embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, sev-eral weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in London.

We will state that this arrangement has ordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from us pen, cannot fail to command for it at once

The following announcement from Mr. Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:
ADDRESS.

Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be off-red to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round."

Columbia Tobacconists Ahead of all flammetition in transferring myself, and my strongest energier, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be began, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves in due course.

That fusion of the graces of the imagination rith the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to week as honestly as I tould during the last nine years, will continue to be striven for, "all the year round." The aid weekly cares and duties become things of the Past, merely so be assumed, with an increased love for them and brighter hopes springing out of them, in the Present and the cle of readers, and yet again for a steadily ex-randing circle of readers in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expectation will be realized, if it deserves realization.

The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto is re-membered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell The Story of our Lives from Year to Year.

CHARLES DICKENS.

The proprietor of the Cheap Book Store has evailed himself of the opportunity to purchase a large stock of the most varied assortment of valuable books of every class and description. He now offers to the public the same, at proportionably and amusually low rates. public the same, at proportionally and unusually low rates.

Those in want of valuable standard works, for the improving of a well-selected library, will find it to their great any orings to call and examine the extensive stock on band. My object and wish is, as it always well-supply the wants of the community with anything in my line, on the most reasonable terms possible. This we find the better and most advantageous course for all parties. The Political Economist tells on the cheaper an article is, the more universally it can and will be used. Then the coulculation is, that when we buy cheap, we must sell cheap, simply allowing ourselves a reasonable profit.
