"ALL THE YEAR ROUND."
DICKENS' NEW WEEKLY.

WE have the pleasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficiently in advance of publication for that purpose. The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens, and the staff of writers associated with him, embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, several weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in London.

We will state that this arrangement has been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extraordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr. Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:

ADDRESS.

Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round."

In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored, and all the literary and business cooperation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free gratify to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves to due course.

That two of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of every individual, and for which I have striven hopefully and earnestly as I could during the last nine years, will continue to be striven for, "all the year round." The old weekly cares will not become the less of the Past, merely because accustomed, with an increased love for them and stronger hopes springing out of them, in the Present and the Future.

I look, and plan, for a very much wider circle of readers, and yet again for a steadily expanding circle of readers in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expectation will be realized, if it deserves realization.

The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto to remembered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell the Story of our Lives from Year to Year.

CHARLES DICKENS.

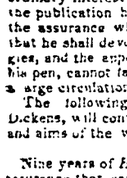
SALAMANDER SAFES.



EVANS & WATSON.
No. 25 South Fourth st.,
PHILADELPHIA.

Have been awarded a first premium at the Fair of the Franklin Institute, for the best Fire and Burglar Proof Safe, and have been awarded the Premium for Best Safe for Banker's use, by the Franklin Institute of the United States.

☞ Five Safes in one fire. All come out in good condition.

The Salamander Safes of Philadelphia are known the world.

EVANS & WATSON, one of the oldest manufacturers in the United States, are now manufacturing their Safes with the improvements which have been suggested to them by the experience of many years, rendering an increased security against the terrific element.

Philadelphia, April 12, 1859.

Messrs Evans & Watson,—Your Safe we believe possesses the highest satisfaction to state to you that during the fire of the Safe which was purchased of you some twelve months since, it passed a large portion of the time very hot, and in contact with burning ruins, and when opening the Safe on getting cool, found the contents in perfect order. We therefore take pleasure in recommending your Safes to the public as possessing the requisite qualities for the preservation of their valuable contents in case of fire, and as worthy of the confidence they have enjoyed.

We shall take pleasure at recommending them in terms of business as a safe depository for Bullion.

COACHMAKING.

CARTER & BECKER,

MANUFACTURERS OF
COACHES, CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &C.,
Second Street, nearly opposite the Lutheran Church, Columbia, Pa.

THE subscribers call attention to their Coach and Carriage Making Establishment, where they continue to manufacture Coaches, Carriages, Buggies, Sulkies, and all other vehicles in their line. Their reputation as workmen is fully established, as they can refer to all who have given them a trial. Their work is made of the best of materials, and strength and durability combined with elegance of finish and lightness of draft. Their prices are moderate, and their work is warranted to give satisfaction. They also give particular attention to and warrant all such work to be done to give satisfaction.

In addition to their practical experience in the business, they employ the assistance of the best workmen—none other being employed.

The public is respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves.

Books from the Spring Trade Sale
AT CHEAP BOOK STORE.

A RARE opportunity for those in want of Good Books at a small cost.

Never have Books sold cheaper than at the recent Philadelphia Spring Sale.

The proprietor of the Cheap Book Store has availed himself of the opportunity to purchase a large stock of the most varied assortment of valuable books of every class and description. He now offers to the public the same, at proportionally and unusually low rates.

Those in want of valuable standard works, for the improving of a well-selected library, will find it to their great advantage to call and examine the extensive stock on hand. My object and wish is, as it always was, to supply the wants of the community with anything in my line, on the most reasonable terms possible. Thus we find the better and most advantageous course for all parties. The Political Economist tells us "the cheaper an article is, the more universally it can and will be used." Then the conclusion is that when we buy cheap, we must sell cheap, simply allowing ourselves a reasonable profit
