DICKENS' NEW WEEKLY.

W E have the pleasure of announcing that we have entered into arrangements with Charles Dickens, for the issue of his new publication, entitled, "All the Year Round," each week, in New York, simultaneously with its issue in London, plates being taken from the English edition, and forwarded to us sufficient-ly in advance of publication for that purpose-The first number will appear in London and New York on Wednesday, May 4th, and will contain the commencement of a new story by Charles Dickens, to be continued from week to week during about eight months.

Thus, it will be seen that American readers of "All the Year Round," will obtain the stories and other contributions of Mr. Dickens. and the staff of writers associated with him, embracing an array of distinguished talent with which no other publication can compare, sev-eral weeks in advance of their reaching this country through ordinary sources, and at the same time they are given to the public in Lon lon.

We will state that this arrangement has been consummated by the payment of a large sum of money to Mr. Dickens, yet the extra-ordinary interest which the announcement of the publication has excited in literary circles, the assurance which Mr. Dickens has given that he shall devote to it all of his best energies, and the appearance of a new story from his pen, cannot fail to command for it at once a large circulation.

The following announcement from Mr

Dickens, will convey an idea of the character and aims of the work:
ADDRESS.
Nine years of Household Words are the best assurance that can be offered to the public of the spirit and objects of "All the Year Round." In transferring myself, and my strongest energies, from the publication that is about to be discontinued, to the publication that is about to be begun, I have the happiness of taking with me that staff of writers with whom I have labored. and all the literary and business co-operation that can make my work a pleasure. In some important respects, I am now free greatly to advance on past arrangements. Those I leave to testify for themselves in due course. That lusion of the graces of the imagination with the realities of life, which is vital to the welfare of any community, and for which I have striven from week to week as bonestly as I could during the last nine years, will continue to be striven for, "all the year round." The old weekly cares and duties become things of the Past, merely so be assumed, with an in-creased love for them and brighter hopes pringing out of them, in the Present and the

I look, and plan, for a very much wider cir cle of readers, and yet again for a steadily expanding circle of readers in the projects I hope to carry through "all the year round." And I feel confident that this expectation will be realized, if it deserves realization.

The task of my new journal is set, and it will steadily try to work the task out. Its pages shall show to good purpose their motto is re-membered in them, and with how much of fidelity and earnestness they tell The Story o our Lives from Year to Year. CHARLES DICKENS.
