EVANS & WATSON'S SALAMANDER SAFES. 304 Chestnut Street, PHILADELPHIA.

Geo W. Woodward. John W. Grary, J. P. Rutherford, Alfred S. Gillett.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 17, 1859.—Messrs. Evans & Watson, Philadelphis:

GENTLEMEN:—The Sulamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufaceure, purchased by us from your Agent. Perns & Garcett, of our city, some time months ago, was severely tried by buginrs has Saturday night; and although they had a sledge hammer, cold chieels, drill, and grunpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Safe. The lock being one of "Hatt's Patten Powder proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the door, inside and out, showed the explosion not to have been a small one, it was not forced open. We appose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much gratified at the result of the attempt to enter it, and if the above facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them.

Knoxyllie. Tennessee. March 13th, 1839.

Messes. Evans & Warson, Philadelphia:—Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to say to you that the Salamander Safe, which I purchased from you in February, 1858, proved to be what you recommended it—a sare protection from fire. My storedouse, to gether with several others, was burued to the ground in March 1safe. The Safe felt through into the cellur, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and was exposed to intense heat for six or eight hours, and when it was taken from the ruins and opened, all its contents: were found to be in a perfect state, the books and the paper's mot bring injured any whatever. I can cheerfully recommend your Sufes to the community, believing, as I do, that they are as near fireproof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.
