A DEAD THING ON A RACE TRACK .--- The Virginia penchant for seeing blood horses in motion is well illustrated by an anecdote told us recently at Petersburg.

Mr. Deswell, Sheriff of Hanover county, eeing old Larkin White, an ex-member of the Jockey Club, but now a member of the Baptist Church, on the quarter stretch, during the recout races of Ashland, Va., jousely remarked to him:

"Why, Col. White, they'll turn you out of the church for being here."

"If they do," said Larkin, "they'll turn Finsley, yonder, out of the Methodist Church. 'll go aud see him."

Accordingly, Larkin wen over and stated the case to his neighbor Tinsley, who, by the way, stammers badly.

"Oh!" replied Tinsley, "I've go-go-got a d-d-dead thing 'f it! I've co-co-counted noses, and there's a ma-mu-majority of the church on the track!" Larkin turned away, regretting that he had, in the excitement of his feelings, joined what he considered now to be the "wrong church."-Montgomery Mail.

A STRONG STOMACH .-- A western cattle dealer, who rarely had the privilege of sitting down to meat with a family, and had never ocen in a minis er's house in his life, was and three of "Sullivan" produced the annot long ago benighted and lost in his ride across the prairies, and compelled to ask for lodgings in the first house he could find. Happily for him, it proved to be the dwelling of a good man, a parson, who gave him a cordial welcome, and, what was especially agreeable, told him supper would soon be ready. The traveler's appetite was ravenspoiled by the engraver, in inserving the two dollers, lawful money. High Constable Hayes, Bernard Gorick, Johannes Ober and by, he complied; and without waiting for a second invitation, he laid hold of what he could reach. "Stop, stop!" said the good man of the house; "we are in the habit of saying someusing here before we eat."
