

ble in half a day, if they found it hanging in a place to suit them. They are extremely pertinacious in asserting their right of possession, and have not the least reverence for any place or thing. David alludes to these characteristics of the sparrow in the 84th Psalm, when he complains that they had appropriated even the altars of God for their nests. Concerning himself, he says, I watch, and am as a sparrow upon the house-top (Psalm 102: 7). When one of them loses his mate—a matter of every day occurrence—he will sit on the house-top alone, and lament by the hour his sad bereavement.—These birds are snared and caught in great numbers, but as they are small and not much relished for food, five sparrows may still be sold for two fatlings; and when we see their countless numbers, and the eagerness with which they are destroyed as a worthless nuisance, we can better appreciate the assurance that our heavenly Father, who takes care of them, so that not one can fall to the ground without his notice, will surely take care of us, who are of more value than many sparrows. (Matt. 10: 29, and Luke 12: 7).

The Columbia Spy.

COLUMBIA, PA.
SATURDAY, DEC. 3, 1859.

SEE NEW ADVERTISEMENTS OF A. M. RAMBO'S, ODD FELLOWS' HALL, IN TO-DAY'S PAPER.

Rev. Mr. Swenk will preach in the Town Hall, on Sunday afternoon, (to-morrow), at 3 o'clock.

LADIES' FAIR.—We call attention to the advertisement of a Fair to be held by the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, in Odd Fellows' Hall, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, 20th, 21st and 22d inst. The usual fine display of tempting fancy articles will be made on this occasion, and we look for a successful Fair. Extensive preparations have been made, and we can promise the citizens an opportunity of obtaining beautiful holiday presents at not exorbitant prices. The season chosen for the Fair is a favorable one and we do not doubt that many of the tokens of remembrance bestowed, on the coming Christmas, will be derived from the Magazine of the ladies of St. Paul's. They have our good wishes for their abundant success.

FAIR FOR THE NATIONAL BAND.—We are requested to state that all persons desiring to contribute to the Fair for the benefit of the "Columbia National Band," to be held on the 14th, 15th, 16th and 17th inst., may do so by leaving articles with Mrs. J. Bennett, Walnut street.

While on the subject of the fair we may mention that the Band for a very pleasant serenade on last Wednesday night. The music was very sweet and the execution evinced great improvement. The Band is steadily adding to its repertoire of good music and increasing in experience and skill. The project of a Fair for the purpose of uniforming the performers and procuring new instruments is deserving of all the support our citizens can extend to it. We hope soon to see a band of musicians turn out which will be a credit to our town, and nothing will more directly contribute to this end than a neat uniform and good instruments—the capable performers we have.

A TEACHER OF LANGUAGES.—Columbia has long wanted a competent teacher of modern languages. It will be seen by an advertisement in today's Spy that Mr. Gustavus Hegman offers his services in this branch. Mr. Hegman was formerly a resident of our town, but not in the capacity of teacher. He is furnished with recommendations from various responsible parties, and has had a long experience in his profession. We can only judge of Mr. Hegman's proficiency from his command of the English language, which appears to be very complete. We trust that he will receive sufficient encouragement in Columbia to enable him to establish himself permanently amongst us.

MILL FOR RENT.—Mr. Chas. J. Pusey advertises in today's paper the Columbia Flouring Mill for rent. This property is a first rate one, fitted with excellent machinery and driven by a new and complete engine, or by water, as may be required. The location is a good one and the mill the oldest stand in this neighborhood. It is strongly recommended by competent judges as a good opening for any one desiring to go into this kind of business.

LOSS OF CANAL BOATS.—On the evening of Friday 23th ult., a tow of seventeen Canal boats from Baltimore to Harre de Grace, encountered a severe gale and nine of the number broke loose from the tug, eight of which were sunk. Of the latter four were totally lost, the remainder being raised and repaired. One of the sunken boats was loaded with iron ore, the balance were empty. Of the number only one belonged to Columbia—the boat Equator, Mc Ginnis, Captain, owned by Captain Grosvenor. She was sunk, but was recovered and taken to Baltimore for repairs. One life was lost by the accident. Jonathan Rowell of Northumberland, Captain of the boat Napoleon, was drowned. He had been actively instrumental in rescuing a number of hands from the sinking boat, and remaining to the last on one of the vessels had to jump to save himself from going down with her. He fell short of the boat and attempted to swim, and tried to save himself, but they were in such a hurry that they could extend him no assistance, and he went down. He had in his pocket at the time of his drowning some five or six hundred dollars. One of the boats lost belonged to Wm. Conkey, Esq., of Wrightsville.

LADIES' AMERICAN MAGAZINE.—The December number of this favorite Ladies' Magazine has been received. It preserves the traditional character of its predecessor—Graham—and is equally successful. It is among the best publications of its class in the country.

COLUMBIA CRICKET CLUB.—A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Cricket Club was held in the Town Hall on last Friday evening, at which officers were elected and a Constitution and By-Laws adopted. The "name, style and title" selected was "Columbia Cricket Club." The officers elected were:
President—Samuel W. Mifflin.
Vice-President—Amos S. Green.
Secretary—M. D. Wilson.
Treasurer—N. McDonald.
Ground Committee—Samuel W. Mifflin, Lewis Merrill, John Wright, H. Brooke, Westley A. Martin.

The club is now fairly organized and we hope it will become a permanent institution. On Wednesday afternoon a number of the members assembled for play in one of the fields of M. M. Stricker, just outside the borough, and made an initial attempt at a game. Being green hands the performance was not brilliant, as play, but as exercise it went as far as if it had been first-class.—We took a hand, and our effort at rejuvenation resulted in as sore a skin-full of muscles as we have any desire to tote. We dreamed that night that we had volunteered as Heenan's substitute in his battle with Sayers for the champions belt, the which encounter was then and there in fearful progress. It may be unnecessary to add that we didn't carry off the trophy. At this writing we are slowly convalescing.

From the interest excited by the game played on last Wednesday, imperfect as it was, we believe that Cricket will find favor in our town. Already the boys have got together a club, and we hear of another amongst the young men. The more the better. We have got some good material if the spirit can be got up and kept up.—Those who are most deficient in the physical qualities necessary for good players, however, are they who most need this exercise. Men who, like ourselves, are confined to the desk or office, require some stirring exercise, and in Cricket it will be found, combining more excitement and interest than in any other game. Want of time is the general excuse of business men for neglecting outdoor exercise. It will be found, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, that one or two afternoons in a week devoted to some active game, will result in an economy of time—certainly of health, therefore necessarily of time—in the long run. We heartily wish the "Columbia Cricket Club," and every other similar Club, success and long life.

"Old Browns."—Like a large majority of the community we are very tired of "Old Browns" and his chivalric Virginia captors—no, beg pardon, he was overcomen by the Federal forces—jailors, and by this time, executioners. We have admired until even our enthusiasm failed to keep up the interest, Governor Wise's admirable warlike disposition of troops and preparation for that "army of rescue"—that terrible paper army, destined to overcome Virginia with ridicule, more difficult to repel than would have been a bona fide incursion of "sympathizers." We only recur to the subject to introduce the following extract from the Charleston Mercury, which shows that the South—at least outside of Virginia—appreciates the pleasing and creditable position into which the chivalry of the "Old Dominion" have worked themselves in their flank. Referring to the reported offer of aid by Governor Gist of South Carolina to Governor Wise of Virginia, since proved to be a canard, it says:

We are satisfied that every intelligent man in the South has been completely disgusted at the broad and pathetic farce that has been played off before the public about the hanging of that hoary villain, "Old Brown." From the 500 invaders in possession of Harper's Ferry and the 1,000 negroes carried off to the mountains of Pennsylvania—from the further invasions and threats of invasion—the arsons and fears of arson—the marches and counter-marches of the panics and cessation of panics—Governor Wise, the energetic, and his troops—down to the final climax of military aid offered by Governor Gist of South Carolina to the Governor of Virginia, for the purpose of making certain the aforesaid hanging of Old Brown & Co.—it is a tissue of disgraceful exaggeration and invention sufficient to stir the gall of any Southerner, who has regard for the dignity and responsibility of the Southern people. To us it really looks as if those in possession of the telegraph were in league to falsify the South and make us a laughing stock to ourselves and before the world. We sincerely trust that our Legislature, which meets to-day, will bear this in mind, and take no action whatever in regard to ourselves or our institutions, that may open here the appearance of being prompted by the Virginia farce and its terrorism.

A New Book.—Messrs. Brown, Taggard & Chase of Boston announce the publication of a volume by Dr. Hayes, entitled "An Arctic Boat Journey in the Autumn of 1854." This will be a most interesting addition to the story of circumpolar experiences. It contains the history of an attempt, in open boats, by eight persons, setting out from the brig "Advance," (then in her winter quarters at Rensselaer Harbor) to reach Upernivik, in North Greenland, the most Northern outpost of civilization. The distance was one thousand miles, and the party were caught in the ice by an early closing in of the winter. After living nearly three months in a snow hut among the Esquimaux, the party traveled three hundred and fifty miles, in the middle of the Arctic circle—a journey without precedent in the annals of those perilous countries. The novelties of Arctic narrative are by no means exhausted by previous publications, and the community will doubtless welcome a book which, avoiding the beaten track of the many expeditions that have gone in search of Sir John Franklin, presents to its readers lively pictures of more remote regions, and of personal adventure of which there has been, hitherto, no record. The volume will be illustrated by a new map, by which the public will be enabled to obtain a clearer idea of the principal field of Arctic adventure than by most others now published.

SREINER'S STOVE AGAIN SUCCESSFUL.—Among the awards of the Fulton Institute of Lancaster, we notice that our townsman, Mr. Philip Sreiner, received a Silver Medal for his Furnace, Heater, Ornamental Hall Stove, Parlor Stove and Parlor Cook; also a certificate of honorable mention for a Plain Stove. Mr. Sreiner has taken all the honors offered near home and some abroad. This must be gratifying to Mr. S. and certainly should be to his fellow citizens. We have always contended that this stove is destined to take permanent place among the great inventions of the day, and its complete success justifies us in our opinion. The Sreiner principle is bound to be adopted everywhere. We congratulate Mr. Sreiner on his new success at the Fulton Institute.

A CARD.—Some malicious wretch, on Saturday evening last, threw from Union st., a stone of considerable size at the window of the study of the Rev. Dr. Leitner, which crushed the glass and fell harmless at the feet of that gentleman. The perpetrator of this act will without doubt be sorry to learn that the Reverend gentleman suffered no personal injury from the assault—for which his many friends are profoundly grateful. If he who did this, is under the impression that such acts are indicative of an American and patriotic spirit, it is time that he should be undeceived; if, on the contrary it was caused only by a "playful ebullition of spirits," he will oblige perhaps as good citizens as himself by exercising a proper and salutary restraint upon his "playfulness." Further, if he will call at the office of the subscriber he can have the missile—now no doubt rendered highly valuable for the service it has done—returned to him with some words of good advice, and a warning, that may perhaps, save him from an impending fate more elevated than agreeable.

F. X. ZIEGLER.
COLUMBIA, Dec. 2nd, 1859.

Police Items.

"REPORTED BY OUR SPECIAL CORRECTOR."
THE WRONG PASSENGER.—On the evening of Wednesday, 30th ult., Jacob Sager, otherwise "Dutch Jake," appeared before Esquire Welsch, charged with blood and dirt, and "swore his life" against one Susan Smith, who had committed a violent assault upon his person with intent to wipe him out. The police being on duty in the lower ward the Justice seized his baton and repaired to the basin to arrest the sanguinary Susan.—He found that crowing and fighting her at her residence near the Penn'a Railroad Freight Depot, and drove her captive before him to the Blue Front. On hearing it was established that Susan, who is an athletic mulatto, enjoyed a thirst for stimulating liquors, which she had that day quenched with most potent McGinnis's sufficient quantity to stir her bile and curdle her naturally saccharine disposition. In this state of exaltation she met with provocation from two white males, to whom she was naturally reticent, and she returned to her attack. Forming herself into column she beat the pas de charge, and rushed, not lowered and weapon upraised, to the combat. Debouching on the street she assaulted the first body of troops she met, and this happened by ill chance to be Jacob the complainant. She effected a complete coup, and got her weapon home on the German's head before he was aware of the attack.—Although taken by surprise Jake was by no means routed. Rallying his forces he came back at Susan, and taking possession of her weapon of offense, knocked her down and trampled her under foot.

Susan in defense exhibited blood, mud, and duds, the latter in very dilapidated condition. She swore she could whip any white man in Columbia, saving and excepting phintiff, whose old Dutch head "turned de hatchet like 'o'n." "Squiah, ef'd' bin any other head but dat hard, onens' 'o'd cranium, de hatchet was bound to fetch it. I tell you, 'Squiah, I doesn't hit no fool like when I puts myself down to it." "Squiah, de Dutchman done ruined my honor—he's bound to pay for dat. I values dat article at three fips, I does. Make him fork over."

It having been fully and satisfactorily established by unimpeachable testimony that Susan, when drunk, was the terror of the neighborhood, and it furthermore appearing that she attained that desirable state of happiness about every fortnight, the Justice ruled that defendant, in default of $500 bail, should retire to Caldwellville to await trial at January term of Quarter Sessions. Susan went down next morning per Hollingsworth opposition.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The December number of the "Atlantic" is the first issued under the new management. The opening article, "The Adventure of Samuel Absalom, Filibuster," promises very fairly, and will doubtless fully expose the iniquities, and also the stirring adventure, accompanying Walker's raid on Central America. Mrs. Stowe's "Minister's Wooing" is concluded, as, alas! is Dr. Holmes' "Professor." The latter has been so long a feature in the Magazine, and so prominent and favorite a one, that it will puzzle the editors to find a sufficient substitute—unless the author will give us something equally as good. The general contents of this number are of the "Atlantic" character, and will compare favorably with those of any former one. Messrs. Ticknor & Fields are too well known for their enterprise, intelligence and liberality as publishers, to permit the Monthly to deteriorate; we rather expect to see the periodical, in their hands, improve in quality and extend materially in circulation.

PETERSONS' DETECTOR.—A good Bank Note Detector is the business man's best defense against the thousands of new counterfeit-fits with which our country is flooded.—We have received the December number of Petersons' Detector, describing 75 new counterfeit-fits, issued within a month. Petersons' Detector is correct and reliable, and is furnished at $1.00 per annum. No counting-house, bank, or saleroom should be without it.

THE USE AND ABUSE OF TOBACCO.—By Jno. Lazzari, Philadelphia: Lindsay & Blackiston.

We have received from the publishers this discourse—a treatise severely condemning in a sanitary view the use of Tobacco. Its author is of medical distinction, having lately been a professor in the Royal College of Surgeons. It is a little book worthy the attentive perusal of every one, especially of every smoker. Were the work simply an unreasoning denunciation of the use of Tobacco in any shape or form, we should approve it; but it is more than this—it gives the experienced testimony of a careful student of the human system and of the effect of the weed upon it, against the use of that weed.

This little work is already popular. It has run through eight editions in Edinburgh, and although recently republished in this country it has reached in sale the two thousand. It will be sent by the publishers, Lindsay & Blackiston, 25 S Sixth Street, Philadelphia, postage prepaid, on the receipt of 38 cents. Ten copies to one address will be sent, postage prepaid, for $3.00. Postage stamps may be remitted instead of money.

EDINBURGH REVIEW.—The Edinburgh Review, to us from Leonard Scott & Co., New York, with its always able reviews of the prominent literary productions of the day. In the present number Thackeray's "Virginians" receives blended censure and praise; but, we think, judiciously applied. The reports of Messrs. Scott & Co., are deservedly popular, affording as they do, to the American reader, the foreign periodicals at such a moderate rate as to bring them within the reach of any man who can take a ragazine at all.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.—From the same publishers we have Blackwood for November. In it the "Luck of Ladysmide," an interesting serial tale, is continued. A narrative of the discovery of a lake in Central Africa, supposed to be the source of the Nile, is also continued. Tennyson's "Idylls of the King," is severely criticized, and there are a number of other well written papers.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—The December number of Harper is fairly up to the mark. The illustrations of a Central American article by Meagher are excellent. The stories of the present number are above the common standard of tales, and the entire contents are well and carefully selected. We miss the "Virginians," but expect the editors will replace Thackeray's great serial with something equally attractive.—John McLennan gives a couple of pages of illustrations unworthy of his genius. The fun is infinitesimal and the paths in no larger proportion. The editorial department has its usual variety of jest and earnest.

DOING A STRAMBATI CLERK.—On the last trip of the Belfast down, her clerk, who is commonly well awake as to rogues, was done out of a passage by one of them in a very unusual way. A gentleman, whom we shall call Mr. C., with his wife, was waiting on the wharf boat at Lake Providence, for a boat to Vicksburg. They fell in there with a personage whom we shall call Mr. Sharper, also bound for Vicksburg. When the Belfast stopped, they went on board together, and the clerk being busy in looking after baggage, &c., did not take special notice of the faces. After being settled in his state room, Mr. C. walked into the clerk's office, entered himself and wife on the register, and paying the two passages, retired. Late at night, the clerk saw a new face, as he thought, in the cabin, and stepping up, accosted him politely:

"You came on board at Lake Providence, I think?"
"Yes," said Mr. Sharper, blandly.
"Your name is not registered, I think," said the clerk, hinting thus quietly at the passage money.
"Yes it is," replied the passenger; "I put it down immediately I came on board. You will find it on your book."
"I don't remember," said the clerk, musingly, "please step into the office and show it to me."
In they went, and our passenger pointed to the name of Mr. C.
"That's your name, then," said the clerk.
"You have your lady on board?"
"Yes, but I am not sleeping, and I believe I will sit up till the boat lands."
"All right—beg your pardon; you had your shawl on when you came on board, and I did not recognize your face."
The boat landed at Vicksburg about three in the morning, and the stranger disappeared with as little notice as he came on board. Very early in the morning the clerk was accosted abruptly by another man—
"Hallo! we are past Vicksburg. Why was I not called at Vicksburg?"
"Why, what's the trouble? Why did you not tell me? What's your name?"
"C. sir, my name is C. I came on board at Lake Providence. I put my name on your register for Vicksburg, and here you are taking me to New Orleans!"
The thing began to explain itself to the puzzled clerk. "You are Mr. C. are you?"
"To be sure I am. What of that?"
"Only," said the clerk, "that another man passed himself off for you last night, and got ashore without paying. I began to wonder why he wanted to sit up, and did not want to be called at Mr. C.'s number."
Mr. C. was brought down to Natchez, where he took a return boat for Vicksburg, where he will keep a bright eye out for the man who personated him on the Belfast.—The clerk thinks that man will do to travel but on some other boat hereafter.—N. O. Picayune.

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSMIC CORDIAL,
The great standard medicine of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Debility of the Nervous System, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered liver or weakness of the stomach and digestive organs, are speedily and permanently cured by the GERMAN BITTERS.

The Balsamic Cordial has acquired a reputation surpassing that of any similar preparation extant. It will cure, WITHOUT FAIL, the most severe and long-standing Cough, Cold, or Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Inflammation, Croup, Pneumonia, Incipient Consumption, and has performed the most astonishing cures ever known of Confirmed Consumption.

A few doses will also at once check and cure the most severe Diarrhoea proceeding from Cold in the Bowels.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON & Co., No. 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and are sold by druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle. The signature of C. M. JACKSON will be on the outside wrapper of each bottle.

In the Almanac published annually by the proprietors, called EYBROOD'S ALMANAC, you will find testimony and commendatory notices from all parts of the country. These Almanacs are given away by all our agents.

April 1st 1859.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR.
In all diseases of inflammation more or less predominant in the system, or in the various organs, the root of disease is an inflammatory action.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once and make a certain cure.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sores, Nipples, Cancers, Blisters, Sprains, Bites, Pains, Rheumatism, Bites, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Itch, Blisters, Swellings, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barber's Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.

To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one article, such as the Balsamic Cordial, and the Balsamic Cordial, that the same is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a perfect antidote to the specific disease.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor in its effects is magical, because the time is so short in its removal of disease and permanent cure, and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury.—It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, workshop, or manufactory should be one moment without it.

No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box be open and the name of the inventor, with the name of H. O. DALLEY, Manufacturer.

For sale by all the Druggists and patent medicine dealers throughout the United States and Canada. Principal Depot, 185 Chambers st., New York.

Sold by Druggists: Columbia. (Nov. 12, 59)

MR. WINSLOW.
A experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.
Oct. 29, 1859-ly

The heavens were illuminated on the evening of August 29th, 1859, by the most splendid Aurora Borealis ever seen in the Country. Rays of particular brilliancy shined forth at intervals, and the changes were beautiful in the extreme. At one time a rapid observer remarked, that he fancied he could see the sparkling form of the stars in the sky. The Aurora was: "By all your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut above 21st, Philadelphia, September 10, 1859.

MARRIED.
On Wednesday morning, November 30th, at Philadelphia, Pa., by the Rev. J. B. Snyder, Edward T. Moxley, of this city, to Miss Jane A. daughter of Jacob Hixon, of Pineville, Chester Co., Pa.
The newly married couple have our warmest wishes for their happiness through life.

A GREAT BLESSING TO THE AFFLICTED.
Dr. McLean, the inventor of the Celebrated Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. used these pills for several years in his practice, before he could be induced to offer them to the public in such a manner as to make them known throughout the country. This learned Doctor found the same purgative that all his minded men of science felt in entering the life of man; those unscrupulous empirics who obscure their untried nostrums upon the public, and rely upon a system of puffing to sustain them. Convinced, however, of the real value of the Liver Pills, and influenced by the plain directions of the Doctor's family authorized Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., are now the sole proprietors, to manufacture and place them before the public. This great medicine has not disappointed the expectations of his friends, the medical faculty, at whose instance he was induced to place them before the public in their present popular form. From every quarter we hear the most gratifying accounts of their wonderful curative effects—the East and the West, the North and the South, are alike laden with "tidings of great joy" from the afflicted. These wonderful Pills conquered that great scourge of America, the Liver complaint.

Dr. McLean will be careful to ask for DR. McLEAN'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FLEMING BROS., of Pittsburgh, Pa. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. McLean's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of Dec. 3, 1859. [35] FLEMING BROS.

THE TRIUMPH COMPLETE.
Another cure of Epilepsy by Dr. Hance's Epileptic Pills.
DURANT NECK, PERQUIMAN'S CO., Oct. 1, 1859.
DR. HANCE—Dear Sir—Having been afflicted with falling fits for some years past, I determined to give you Pills a trial, (advertised in one of the papers), and continued to use them for some months until I was entirely cured. I believe them to be a first-rate article; and since I have used them, I have not had one attack, and am now in the enjoyment of good health.

I am, very respectfully, Yours, &c.,
JONATHAN J. JACOBS.
P. S. The Pills were recommended to me by Mr. Nathan Newby, of this county, to whose address you sent them.

These Pills, besides curing Epilepsy, are a specific for all modifications of nervous disease. Price $3 per box; two boxes for $5; twelve boxes for $24. Persons enclosing a remittance will have the Pills sent them through the mail, on their receipt. For sale by Seth S. Hance, No. 105 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., to whom orders from all parts of the Union must be addressed.
Nov. 12, 1859.

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSMIC CORDIAL,
The great standard medicine of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

French, Latin, German and Spanish Languages.
The undersigned will give lessons in the above named languages in Columbia and neighborhood, if desired, in a successful manner in this country as well as in different countries. Every man who wishes to learn to converse in any of these languages, or who wishes to put themselves under his tuition, for a reasonable and permanent, inquire at the bookstore of Messrs. Suter & Neff, or at
T. STAVOS HEGMAN.
Columbia, Dec. 3, 1859.

TOMATO PILLS.—Extract of Tomatoes; a cathartic and tonic.
J. S. DELBERT & CO'S Golden Mustard Drug Store.
Dec. 3, 1859.

JUST received a fresh supply of all the
Popular Patent Medicines of the day, which are warranted genuine, at the
GOLDEN MORNING DRUG STORE,
Dec. 3, 1859. Front street, Columbia

LABORING EXTRACTS.—Highly Concentrated
Extract of Vanilla, Peppermint, &c.
J. S. DELBERT & CO'S Golden Mustard Drug Store.
Dec. 3, 1859.

GOLD CREAM OF GYBERINE.—For the cure
and prevention of eruptions, &c. For sale
at the GOLDEN MORNING DRUG STORE,
Dec. 3, 1859. Front street, Columbia

TOOTH WASH.—Zerbin's Anti-Scrofulic
Tooth Wash, with Eucalypti, Yucca, and
Trish Wash, Da Costa's West Indian Tooth Wash,
Whitener, Tannery Tooth Wash, also, Thompson's,
Antiseptic and Aromatic Tooth Paste.
J. S. DELBERT & CO'S
Golden Mustard Drug Store, Front st., Columbia, Pa.
Dec. 3, 1859.

JUST RECEIVED, direct from the manufacturers, a lot of new patterns, unrivaled in beauty, simplicity, safety or economy. They are not only safe, but also of the most beautiful and during, very easily regulated, burn without smoke, and
the light is much cheaper than any other now in use.
For a full supply of Genuine No. 1 Kerosene or Coal Oil, suitable to burn in the above lamps, all
the lamps prepared on very reasonable terms, at the
Drug Store of
Dec. 1, 59.

MRS. WINSLOW.
A experienced nurse and female physician, has a Soothing Syrup for children teething, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases. See advertisement in another column.
Oct. 29, 1859-ly

The heavens were illuminated on the evening of August 29th, 1859, by the most splendid Aurora Borealis ever seen in the Country. Rays of particular brilliancy shined forth at intervals, and the changes were beautiful in the extreme. At one time a rapid observer remarked, that he fancied he could see the sparkling form of the stars in the sky. The Aurora was: "By all your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut above 21st, Philadelphia, September 10, 1859.

MARRIED.
On Wednesday morning, November 30th, at Philadelphia, Pa., by the Rev. J. B. Snyder, Edward T. Moxley, of this city, to Miss Jane A. daughter of Jacob Hixon, of Pineville, Chester Co., Pa.
The newly married couple have our warmest wishes for their happiness through life.

A GREAT BLESSING TO THE AFFLICTED.
Dr. McLean, the inventor of the Celebrated Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. used these pills for several years in his practice, before he could be induced to offer them to the public in such a manner as to make them known throughout the country. This learned Doctor found the same purgative that all his minded men of science felt in entering the life of man; those unscrupulous empirics who obscure their untried nostrums upon the public, and rely upon a system of puffing to sustain them. Convinced, however, of the real value of the Liver Pills, and influenced by the plain directions of the Doctor's family authorized Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., are now the sole proprietors, to manufacture and place them before the public. This great medicine has not disappointed the expectations of his friends, the medical faculty, at whose instance he was induced to place them before the public in their present popular form. From every quarter we hear the most gratifying accounts of their wonderful curative effects—the East and the West, the North and the South, are alike laden with "tidings of great joy" from the afflicted. These wonderful Pills conquered that great scourge of America, the Liver complaint.

Dr. McLean will be careful to ask for DR. McLEAN'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manufactured by FLEMING BROS., of Pittsburgh, Pa. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. McLean's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of Dec. 3, 1859. [35] FLEMING BROS.

THE TRIUMPH COMPLETE.
Another cure of Epilepsy by Dr. Hance's Epileptic Pills.
DURANT NECK, PERQUIMAN'S CO., Oct. 1, 1859.
DR. HANCE—Dear Sir—Having been afflicted with falling fits for some years past, I determined to give you Pills a trial, (advertised in one of the papers), and continued to use them for some months until I was entirely cured. I believe them to be a first-rate article; and since I have used them, I have not had one attack, and am now in the enjoyment of good health.

I am, very respectfully, Yours, &c.,
JONATHAN J. JACOBS.
P. S. The Pills were recommended to me by Mr. Nathan Newby, of this county, to whose address you sent them.

These Pills, besides curing Epilepsy, are a specific for all modifications of nervous disease. Price $3 per box; two boxes for $5; twelve boxes for $24. Persons enclosing a remittance will have the Pills sent them through the mail, on their receipt. For sale by Seth S. Hance, No. 105 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., to whom orders from all parts of the Union must be addressed.
Nov. 12, 1859.

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
DR. HOOFLAND'S BALSMIC CORDIAL,
The great standard medicine of the present age, have acquired their great popularity only through years of trial. Unbounded satisfaction is rendered by them in all cases; and the people have pronounced them worthy.

French, Latin, German and Spanish Languages.
The undersigned will give lessons in the above named languages in Columbia and neighborhood, if desired, in a successful manner in this country as well as in different countries. Every man who wishes to learn to converse in any of these languages, or who wishes to put themselves under his tuition, for a reasonable and permanent, inquire at the bookstore of Messrs. Suter & Neff, or at
T. STAVOS HEGMAN.
Columbia, Dec. 3, 1859.

TOMATO PILLS.—Extract of Tomatoes; a cathartic and tonic.
J. S. DELBERT & CO'S Golden Mustard Drug Store.
Dec. 3, 1859.

JUST received a fresh supply of all the
Popular Patent Medicines of the day, which are warranted genuine, at the
GOLDEN MORNING DRUG STORE,
Dec. 3, 1859. Front street, Columbia

LABORING EXTRACTS.—Highly Concentrated
Extract of Vanilla, Peppermint, &c.
J. S. DELBERT & CO'S Golden Mustard Drug Store.
Dec. 3, 1859.

GOLD CREAM OF GYBERINE.—For the cure
and prevention of eruptions, &c. For sale
at the GOLDEN MORNING DRUG STORE,
Dec. 3, 1859. Front street, Columbia

TOOTH WASH.—Zerbin's Anti-Scrofulic
Tooth Wash, with Eucalypti, Yucca, and
Trish Wash, Da Costa's West Indian Tooth Wash,
Whitener, Tannery Tooth Wash, also, Thompson's,
Antiseptic and Aromatic Tooth Paste.
J. S. DELBERT & CO'S
Golden Mustard Drug Store, Front st., Columbia, Pa.
Dec. 3, 1859.

JUST RECEIVED, direct from the manufacturers, a lot of new patterns, unrivaled in beauty, simplicity, safety or economy. They are not only safe, but also of the most beautiful and during, very easily regulated, burn without smoke, and
the light is much cheaper than any other now in use.
For a full supply of Genuine No. 1 Kerosene or Coal Oil, suitable to burn in the above lamps, all
the lamps prepared on very reasonable terms, at the
Drug Store of
Dec. 1, 59.

GEORGE J. SMITH,
Wholesale and Retail Dealer of Cakes
and numerous confectioneries, such as Cakes, Biscuits, Sugar Biscuits, Confectionery, of every description, &c., &c.
Between the Bank and Front Streets,
Dec. 3, 1859.

GREAT VARIETY STORE,
JUST RECEIVED, a large and finer stock of Toys and other goods than ever before. My friends and others are invited to call and examine the stock before purchasing elsewhere, as they will here find a splendid assortment, suitable for presents to persons of every age and taste. A complete assortment of Toys, such as Dolls, Toys, &c., &c., CHINA and other Fancy Articles, too many to mention, for sale by G. J. SMITH, Locust street,
between the Bank and Front Streets,
Columbia, Dec. 3, 1859.

SHAKER CORN.
JUST received, a first rate lot of Shaker Corn, at
H. SUTDAW'S
Grocery Store, corner Front and Union st.
Nov. 26, 1859

FOR MINCE PIES!
FIRST rate mince pies, made by SUTDAW'S
Grocery Store, corner Front and Union st.
Nov. 26, 1859.

COACHING.
CARTER & BECKER,
MANUFACTURERS OF
COACHES, CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c.
Second Street, nearly opposite the Lutheran Church, Columbia, Pa.

SILVER MEDAL—1st PREMIUM—1