HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

THE mo-1 popular Monthly in the world New York

Observer

No Management No Magazine in Europe or America is so well known, none has has a smany readers; and, we may safely say, none has received so large a tribute of admiration from the cultivated classes, that delight in a healthy, diversible elevaning periodical Internute. It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireadenever had a more delightful companion, nor the million amore entertaining friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant, Balimore.) Twenty-five cents used in the money that we know three dollars securers for one year, and what three dollars sever went so far? Put the same smoont in clothes, eating, drinking, furniture, and how much of a substantial thing is obtained? If dieas, fact, and sentiments have a monetary value—above all if the humor that refreshes, the pleasunties that bring a gentle smile, and brighten the pussage of a truth to your haun, and the happy combination of the real and the imaginative, without which no one can live a life above the animal, are to be put into the scale apposite to dollars and cents, then you may be certain, that if Harper were three or four times we dear, it would amply repay its price. It is a Magazine proper, with the idea and purpose of a Magazine—not a book, not a scientific periodical, nor yet a sapplier of light goes p and chany ancedotes—but Magazine that takes every form of interesting, dient feel, and attractive literature in its grasp.—Southern Times. er gazine in Europe or America is so well fiel, and attractive interacte in its grasp.—Southern Times.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaurous reading, such as cannot be found in the same compass in an other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier Unquestionably it is this best su tuned work of the kind in the language, that is to say in the world The splended monthly essays from the Edicor's Table are above price. year of pro-pers, to the work.—N Y Christian Adocaran Ad Journal
We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and variod excellences of Husper's sugazine, a journal with a mount by circulation of about 170 000 copies, in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work same sydence of the American people, and the popularity it has acquired is metriced. Each number contains fully 144 pages of instructive matter, appropriately litastrated with good wood cuts; and it combines in itself the racy mountly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the duity journal. It has great power in the creation and dissemination of a love of pure literature—Trubner's Gulde to American Literature, Lendon, HABPER'S WEELL.—The fifty-two numbers of this attractive and entertaining publication, i-sued during the last year, have been gathered into a single volume, and now that we see them together, we are surprised at the variety, the prightlines, and the value of the contents. There is a complete history of neuty all the public events of the year—there are ample dissertations on the leading topics—there are the graceful triflings (not always trivial, however, but profoundly instructive) of the Lounges—there are the trles and stories of Bulwer, Dickens, Thackeray, &c.—there are the records of jokes, new and old—and, above all, there are those striking wood cut representations of contemporary men and things, of follies and fashionand of customs and countries—all contained within a single volume, and to he had for a song. It is a grand picture-book of the human life of the nineteenth century, in all its phases, and in nearly all nations. Every class of readers, moreover, may be uncreated by it—the old and thoughtul, the young and gay; the man of business, the child and the woman.

We would not so often call attention to Harper's Weekly if we were not well satisfied that it is the best family paper published in the United States, and for that reason, and that all ue, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature toop prevalent, which blants the morals of literature toop revalent, and that all ue, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature toop revalent, and that all ue, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature toop revalent, and that all ue, we desire to see it undermine and root out a certain kind of literature toop revalent, which blants the morals of lite reders, vinules their toste for sensible reading, and is altogether some of the literature of the literature was a single state of those papers which depend for excitement on poor, trashy novels.

Wilmington, Del., Sept. 17, 1859.—Messrs. Evans & Watson. Philadelphia: GRYLLEREN.—The Salamander Fire-Proof Safe of your manufacture, purchased by us from your Agent-Ferris & Garrent, of our city, some time months ago, was severely tried by burglars hast Saurday night, and although they had a sledge hammer, cold chieels, drill, and granpowder, they did not succeed in opening the Sale. The lock being one of "Halt's Patent Powder proof," they could not get the powder into it, but drilled a hole in the lower panel and forced in a large charge, which was ignited, and although the dror. inside and out. showed the explosion not to have been a small one. It was not forced open. We suppose they were the greater part of the night at work on it. We are much granified at the resolt of the attempt to enter it, and if the showe facts are of any service, you are at liberty to use them.

Knoxville. Tennessee, March 13th, 1550.
Messrs. Evans & Warsox, Philadelphia:—Gentlemen—It uffords me great pleasure to any to you that the Suismander safe which in purchased from you in February, 158, proved to be what you recommended it—a sure protection from Sire. My storchouse, to deter with several others, was burned to the ground in March last. The Safe fell through into the cellar. In and was exposed to intense heat for six or right bours, and when it was taken from the ruine and opened, at it contents were found to he in a perfect state, the books and the papers not he ing injured any whatever. I can electedly recommend your Safes to the commensum, believing, as I do, that they are as near fine-proof as it is possible for any Safe to be made.

VANHAAGEN& MSKEONES DETERSIVE SOAP PHILADELPHIA.

now in market Washing Soap. 19 now in market for more than a year and that it has given universal satisfaction, is evident from the fact, that the Manufacturers of it, in order to supply the demand, have been obliged to increase their capacity to make equal to One Hundred Thousand Pounds por Week. It is decidedly the best and cheapest Soap ever made in this Connerty; One Pound of it will go as far, for any use, as Three of the Common Soap in general use. It is made upon a new principle, of the hest materials, and known only to Van Hangen & McReone. It does away entirely with the washboard—sayes the necessity of boiling the clothes, it does not shrink Flaunel, Removes Grease, luk or Paint spots perfectly, and from the most delicate faction and with one-half the time and laher usually spent to do the washing.
It is warranted free from Sal Soda, or other injurious alkalies, and guaranteed not to injure the clothes.
For sale by all re-pectable Grocers, and Wholesale by THAIN & McKEONE.

No 22 and 21 South Wharves, Phildelphia.

CAUTION.

There being several imitation brands of Detersive soap in market, the public are notified that none is unuine except Van Haagen & McKrone is Stamped upon each Bay of the Soap, as well as the Boxes.
